CITY ITEMS.

GENERAL MASS MEETING.—Great Show on Congo Square.—Congo Square had a terrible spasm in the way of a Mass Meeting last night. The thing was called by the anti-Americans, and dubbed a Democratic meeting. Anything, it is known, will get up a crowd on Congo square, and there was all sorts of a one there last night, composed as it was of the great anti-American crew of "black spirits and white, blue spirits and gray," with an outward surrounding of members of the American party, who had no better place of amusement to patronize, and who gave the assemblage externally a very respectable appearance.

The performances were of the circus order, and afforded the highest amusement to all present. In the pit, directly in front of the stage, were a large crowd of small boys, who acted as claques whenever a pause occurred in the show, either by laughter or by shouting; while a stray Irishman and a facetious Dutchman, appropriately stationed, added much to the general hilarity by the remarks which they slipped in while the showmen were taking breath.

Dr. Labatut presided as ring-master. The first performer was the Hon. Bob Wickliffe. This gentleman introduced an ingeniously contrived hay-bag, which he covered with all sorts of solace in the funniest kind of a way, and called it SAM. He then got upon the stage, in board of commodition, and jumped into the figure heels foremost, head foremost, and in every other way, showing astonishing gymnastic power. He was followed in rapid succession and with equally startling effect—according to the circus fashion—by the other performers, viz: Messrs. P. C. Wright, Albert Fabre, — Augustin, T. J. Semmes, and a long gentleman from Attakapas, whose name we did not hear, but who was rather shorter, wheeling a double somerset and cracking his heels or heels-and-toes down on the funny thing called SAM. Each performer had his particular dub-tube to execute, which excited the most spasmodic opposition and mirth in the audience.

Said Mr. Wickliffe, while going through his part, "should I be elected, fellow-citizens, I will thank you, and should I fail I will thank you." Here the witty Irishman said, "Never mind, me boy, we'll put you in, any how!" Another Irishman, with a crash at two of seven, said, "Bob, at any rate, we'll make a push for it!" At which the facetious Dutchman said something in Dutch, and the juvenile claques put in a round. The boys had not been properly drilled, however, for several times they laughed when they should have hissed, and the more. Another of the speakers described SAM as a most seductive harlot, and then went at him or her with a gusto that was wonderful to behold. Altogether the show was excellent, and every body departed pleased.

After the performance closed, the entire company of performers, supernumeraries and all, paraded through the streets, according to the fashion of circus companies, as an advertisement that another exhibition is forthcoming.

ALL SAINTS' DAY.—For a week or more past, the little cities of the Catholic dead have been little cities of life. The trowel, the whitewash and paint brush, the hammer, and other implements of repair and improvement, have been busily at work amid the tombs, whilst ornaments of mourning, suited to the tastes and purses of all patrons, have been displayed in shop-windows and peddled about the streets. To-day will witness the climax of all this preparation, and whether we view it as a religious ceremony or as a joint display of affection and ostentation, it is one of the most pleasing and impressive exhibitions to be witnessed in the whole season. There is something so pleasing, to every heart, in an affectionate remembrance of the dead, that the custom of visiting and decorating their graved ones a year, has gone beyond Catholic boundaries, and in the Protestant cemeteries many tombs will be handsomely embellished. But Catholic cemeteries will be the great attraction. There the decorations and drapings will be universal, from the monuments of wealth in the center to the humble tablets in the remote walks; tombs and cenotaphs will frame against the sun; the avenues will be crowded by as gay and as motley a throng of people as ever got together beneath the sun—the proportion of mourners being small to that of the mere spectators—crowds of alms-soliciting orphans will flock around the gates, under the care of gray-haired priests, or soldiers of the Church—the Guardons; whilst outside the banquettes will be blockaded up with an Bibilian fair of eatables, drinkables, and flowers for the graves, and the neighboring streets in a clatter all the day long with the going and returning crowds. To those who behold it for the first time, it is a scene so novel, so pleasing, so novel, entertaining, and impressive. Those who have never witnessed it, should go to-day, just to see what a lively place can be made of a grave-yard.

FIRST BALL OF THE SEASON.—We spent a pleasant hour on Tuesday night, at the first ball of the season, given by the "Enthophonesi Society," of the Fourth District, at Union Hall, on Jackson street. It was well attended by the beauty and gallantry of that end of the city, and the dancers seemed to enjoy themselves with an extra zest, in consequence of their long deprivation of such amusement.

CLOSING COFFEE-HOUSES ON ELECTION DAY.—The Algerine coffeehouse keepers show a very creditable degree of respect to Mayor Lewis's suggestion in reference to keeping the coffeehouses closed on Monday next, during the election. Four of them, viz: the proprietors of the St. Charles, Verandah, Pelican and Wilson house, intend shutting up their houses on that day. Holmes, of the Pelican, however, boasts a very peaceable class of patrons, and so intends opening his house as usual, lighting-alays in the evening, and dousing all the proceeds to the Washington Monument. From all we can learn, there will be a very general acquiescence in the Mayor's request in the city.

MURDER EXAMINATION.—Michael O'Donnell, alias Scotty, and John Hussey, were yesterday partially examined before Recorder Bright, on a charge of being accessories to the murder of Joseph Stelmer, at Polly Coffee house, on the evening of the 21st ult. The case is not presented of sufficient interest to justify a publication of the testimony—Stelmer having been simply knocked down, bitten and stabbed in the ear during a drunken brawl; the man who did the stabbing—supposed to be James Tachin—having never been arrested. Owing to the absence of witnesses, the case was continued to the 7th inst., and the accused remanded to prison.

RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY.—Jean Obiale was arraigned yesterday before Recorder Bright, on a charge of having received Mary Moore's silk, which had been stolen from the steamship landing. Case fixed for the 9th—bail required, $300.

SWEET SON-IN-LAW.—The notorious Benjamin F. Houghton was up before Recorder Bright yesterday, on a charge of giving loose to his ancient devilitry. Mr. H. E. Wade, his father-in-law, swore that while he was taking his wife and daughter to church on Sunday evening, being on Poydras street, between St. Charles and Carondelet, Ben came up, seized him by the arm, and threatened to shoot him, after which he followed his sons-in-law with a knife in each hand. The Recorder fixed the case for the 9th inst., and required Houghton to furnish bail of $1500, which he secured to do, and went to prison.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—G. L. McClendon, arrested for snapping a revolver at Jack Moran, on Prytania street, at half-past 2 o'clock yesterday morning, being at the time under the influence of liquor, was yesterday before the First District Court for carrying the said revolver. In default of bail he was sent to prison. Moran is to be examined on the 9th, for knocking down John B. Russell, at the same time and place.

CHASING WITH A PISTOL.—Joseph Damon was arraigned yesterday before Recorder Bright, on a charge of snapping a pistol at the drive boy Bob Logan, on board the steamer Elephant, and chasing him down the levee with murderous intent. He was required to give bail for his appearance on the 9th.

BREACHES OF TRUST.—Eugene Despuit, yesterday complained to Recorder Bonnee that Jean Deseche had failed to make any return to him for $12 worth of dry goods which he entrusted to him last week to peddle through the streets.

Jean Pierre Montagne complained that Jean Castin, alias Philibert, had failed to return a saddle, bridle, and whip, worth $35, which he lent him on June last. Warrants were issued.

ASSAULTS, ETC.—Mr. and Mrs. Rousselin, cit Lequez, were yesterday charged before Recorder Bonnee with beating Mrs. Eugenie R. Humbert in her own house, No. 292 Dauphine street, early in the morning—all in order dropped of the bonds in keeping the peace under which they were at liberty. Mary A. Lyon complained that Mrs. Thiron slapped her face in her own house on Bienville street, between Bourbon and Dauphine. Warrants were issued.

Recorder Bonnee also issued his warrant for the arrest of old man Kelley and his son, Kelley the younger, the old man for ordering the young man to brickbat Anton Eberl, on Morgan street, on the 24th inst., which order the young man obeyed to a T, fully and energetically, that Eberl thinks murder was intended.

ILLEGAL SEIZURE.—The widow of Nicholas Gessel, of Pensacola, deceased, was yesterday accused of larceny, before Recorder Bonnee, in having taken possession of a piano and other articles of furniture before her husband's creditors had been satisfied. The case will be examined in a few days.

STONING AN OMNIBUS.—A lad named James Cornford was arrested on Tchoupitoulas street yesterday, for striking Mr. Thomas J. Harper with a brickbat, while he was in an omnibus. In default of bail, James was sent to prison.

WORK-HOUSE, ETC.—Eliza Fagon, a begging vagrant, and Jim Thomas, a dangerous and suspicious vagrant, were yesterday sent out by Recorder Bright for a month each.

John Churchill, a boy, accused of robbing the money till of Mrs. Ann McDonald, on Constance street, on Tuesday evening, was sent to the Boys' House of Refuge.

James O'Neil, for getting drunk and "running a muck" in South Market street, and knocking down a woman, was ordered to pay $10 fine or go to prison at the rate of half a dollar a day. Patrick Hanlon, for raising a drunken row on Levee street, was fined $5.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

New Orleans Money Market.

CRESCENT OFFICE, NO. 70 CAMP STREET, Wednesday Evening, October 31, 1855.

The weather is remarkably favorable for the gathering and preparing Cotton for market. In fact, if the planters themselves had the control of it, it would hardly be more bonedical. Of our other great staple, Sugar, there are some complaints of the frost last week, which was certainly premature for the latitude, nevertheless the high prices which Sugar commands at this time will, we believe, be a fair remunerative to the cultivator. The receipts of Cotton continue on a large scale, and with ruling prices, if they can be maintained till the advent of 1856, a great part of the country will most securely relieve the city of a large amount of indebtedness. At the same time the usual system will again be called into use, of the planter requiring factors to assume the customary obligations on the next crop, a system which of all others has entailed more injury on New Orleans than half of the epidemics which have occurred for the past twenty-five years. As the evil of accepting from year to year appears to be inherent, it may be bordering on selfishness that we present our views at length upon it. If there was no factors, paper made, the question might arise how the numerous lenders of money, who yearly congregate in our city, for no other purpose than to purchase such paper, would exist. It is well known that there is no better negotiable paper than such as appears in our market every winter and spring, drawn by the agriculturists of the south-west on Cotton and Sugar factors in our city, predicated on actual wants, or rather strictly legitimate pursuits. Another class often appears, which carries on its face indubitable evidence that it is for speculative purposes, or otherwise denominated kiting the proceeds of which are often, very often, disbursed far from the domicil of the makers, or out of the limits of the State, in a manner antagonistical to the interests of New Orleans. Then it is incumbent on the part of factors to scrutinize closely, purposes for which their responsibility is desired, and it is also due to the high credit which our city now enjoys that in the face of the untoward appearance of financial and commercial affairs in Europe, that great circumspection should be observed in granting the facilities and advances for the coming years.

We have much pleasure in announcing that the cotton factorage house of S. O. Nelson & Co., which became involved last spring, through those feelings of friendship and generosity which characterize the merchants of New Orleans, has resumed payment in full, adding another sprig to the laurels which attach to the credit of our commercial community.

There was rather more paper on the market to-day, with some negotiations at 8 per ct. under six months; longer time from 9 to 9½ for good names; second grade six to ten months at 10 to 12; third rate 13 to 16—of this last class there is but little to be seen. The Banks continue flush, and so do all good paper offering, which class at this time includes a broader range than for months past.

The Exchange Market to-day, though rather quiet, was firm at yesterday's rates. There is rather a deficiency of satisfactory produce (June) bills offering, so that operators bankers who can draw at all times without reference to balances have had fair demands at our rates. Sterling with bills lading has an upward tendency, and we learn of a sale at 7½. France are quiet with only a moderate supply offering. We quote this evening:

Sixty days on London, cash, buyers' names	10 @ 10½ prem
Sixty days on London, well drawn bills	10 @ 10½ prem
Sixty days on New York, bankers' drafts	¼ @ ½ prem
Sixty days on New York, general paper	¼ @ ½ prem
Sixty days on New York, produce bills	¼ @ ½ prem
Five days sight on New York, firm	½ @ ¾ prem
Two days sight on New York	½ @ ¾ prem
Sixty days on New York, Bankers' drafts	¼ @ ½ prem
Checks on New York, Bank notes	¼ @ ½ prem
Specie	¼ @ ½ prem

The Western Banks being in the market for Northern Exchange, and a large amount of paper maturing here for the next two months, the expected increase of Exchange will be readily absorbed.

We received to-day the last weekly statement of the Banks of the city of New York, which, according to the views of most of the moneyed artisans was a favorable one. The changes are:

Increase in Specie	$1,331,948
Increase in Loans	4,016
Increase in Deposits	1,056,745
Increase in Circulation	48,633

Including the Sub-Treasury balances, the following was the general

COMPARATIVE RECAPITULATION.

	Oct. 20, '55.	Oct. 13, '55
Loans	111,156,378	111,152,362
Specie	19,461,125	18,129,177
Circulation	5,095,651	5,047,018
Deposits	71,351,253	70,294,508
In Sub-Treasury	6,574,065	7,168,542

By the last steamer from Liverpool we learn that the ship Orinoco has sailed from Cardiff for Galveston, Texas, with a cargo of iron for the "Galveston, Houston and Henderson Railroad Company" of that State. This will enable the company to complete such a portion of the road by the first of February next as is required by the charter.

The following is a copy of one of the Money Circulars for Europe, forwarded by the steamer from Boston on Wednesday last. The steamer, also, carried out about $700,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22, 1855.

At the close of our last advices of 16th inst., our Stock Market was in buoyant, with a fair prospect of a further advance. The expectation has met with disappointment; the news of a further rise in the rate of discount of the Bank of England, and of forced movements of Specie from this to Europe, has had a depressing influence. This feeling has increased for the last two days, when it became known that about $700,000 of Gold were being shipped by the Havre steamer, in the face of European Exchanges ostensibly having no margin upon such operations, due looking to the fact that the drafts of Specie from this country might continue, influenced by other than the natural causes of commerce. These circumstances have produced an uneasiness which has resulted in a decline of Stocks in spite of a very bullish feeling during the week lower and lower. This decline has been felt most particularly upon Railroad and Fancy Stocks, State Securities having remained comparatively steadier.

Transactions in State Stocks have been quite limited; and we notice but few sales in Indiana Stocks 5s which after having risen to 82¾, have receded to 82; in Louisiana at an advance of 1, and in Tennessee at a decline of 2 per ct., in Virginia 6s of 1, and in Missouri 6s at a decline of 3 per ct. In City and County Securities some retail demands has been supplied at rendering prices among these we can mention some Bonds of the cities of Rochester and Albany, and of the counties of Clark and Montgomery, Ky.

Exchanges on London and the North of Europe are looking up, whilst Paris is heavy and not sought after. Principal sales on London 108⅞ to 109⅛; on Paris 5 17⅞ to 5 18¾.
