Kerosene Oil.
167 GREENWICH-STREET. 167
The value of the Oil manufactured by the Kerosene Oil Co. has been already established, being unexpensive, extremely cheap, and producing a light not inferior to gas. Under the name of Coal Oils, parties have been selling various clumsy imitations of the above Oil, some adulterated with Rosin Oil, Camphene and other explosive materials. The subscriber has opened a store at No. 167 Greenwich-st., two doors from Courtlandt-st., for the sale of pure KEROSENE OIL, and will have constant supplies at all times, as per copy of letter from the agents of the Company:
"This is to certify that Mr. Wm. Corbet purchases the genuine Kerosene Oil from us, and can be relied on as dealing only in the pure article, we having agreed to keep him always supplied.
(Signed) "AUSTENS,

BRADSTREET'S COMMERCIAL REPORTS,
FOR BANKERS and BUSINESS MEN.
The fourth Semi-annual Volume of this valuable record of credits, which was published on the 15th of January, having been exhausted by a rapid and extensive demand, a second edition of said volume, revised and corrected, has been issued, and is now ready for delivery to such as have not already supplied themselves with the work.
Several hundreds of the best Bankers and Merchants in different cities of the Union have assisted in perfecting this REFERENCE RECORD, thus making it a veracious and reliable compend of the pecuniary condition and prospects and business capacities of about 22,000 MERCANTILE FIRMS, in TWENTY-SIX of the PRINCIPAL CITIES and CENTERS OF TRADE in the United States.
The New-York Merchant or Banker will ascertain by a Key accompanying the Book, the grade of credit, character, habits, and capital of such as will be likely to deal with him, while the out-of-town Merchant will learn with accuracy the exact foundation on which the New-York houses base their business.
To provide for any possible errors that might occur in a work so GIGANTIC IN DETAIL, and to keep purchasers informed of the changes that must necessarily take place, the Proprietors issue a PRINTED SHEET OF CORRECTIONS EVERY WEEK.
The time and trouble such a work must save, the losses it must prevent, and the influence it must have to secure to a sound and profitable trade, make it invaluable to Wholesale Merchants, Manufacturers, Note Brokers and Banks of Discount; and yet the whole, including the two Semi-annual Volumes, the Sheet of corrections and the facilities of the Office, are furnished to subscribers at ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS per annum.
Full particulars, not embraced in this advertisement, may be obtained at the Office of the Proprietors and Publishers,

NEW WORKS IN PRESS,
AND PREPARING FOR PUBLICATION
BY
LITTLE, BROWN & CO.,
No. 112 Washington-st., Boston.
HISTORY OF THE LIFE AND TIMES OF
JAMES MADISON,
By the Hon. WM. C. RIVES.
3 vols. 8vo.
It is proposed to add another to that series of National Works which have appeared within a few years, illustrative of the lives and characters of the great men who have identified themselves with the history of this country, and of the important events which transpired during their career, and in which they acted a prominent part.
In tracing the history of Mr. Madison's active life during a period of sixty years, (from 1776 to 1836), the writer has been necessarily led into a review of the most important portions of our public history. Mr. Madison's career was contemporary and closely identified with the War of the Revolution, the arduous labors of the old Congress, the composition of the Articles of Confederation, the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, the political questions which arose under the Administration of Washington, the struggle of parties which terminated in the election of Jefferson over Adams, and the complicated questions of foreign policy which led to the war of 1812—a war commenced and terminated under his own administration. In passing under review these great scenes of our history, the writer has been enabled by access to the papers of Mr. Madison and other original documents, to throw new light upon many debatable passages of the highest and most permanent interest in American annals.
Besides the career of Mr. Madison himself, of which no connected narrative has ever yet been given to the public, the works will embrace authentic and illustrative notices, founded chiefly on original and unpublished documents, of the most distinguished of his contemporaries—Washington, Jefferson, George Mason, Patrick Henry, Richard Henry Lee, Adams, Jay, Hamilton, King, and others. Whether the subject, the materials or the dramatic personæ be considered, the work, in its design, would seem well fitted to supply yet remaining and important desiderata in our national history, on questions which must ever engage the deepest interest of the American people.
