CELEBRATED
INDESTRUCTIBLE SKIRTS,
WITH PATENT EYELET FASTENING, WEDGE SLIDE AND WATCH-SPRING BUSTLE.
"The perfection of Skirt manufacture."—[Morris & Willis's Home Journal.
"A complete Eyelet Fastening, tasteful and elegant in effect."—[N. Y. Independent.
"This Skirt is pronounced faultless."—[N. Y. Evangelist.
"Far excelling the best importations."—[Ibid.
"It deserves all the praise it has received."—[Times.
A CARD.—The manufacturers of the "CROWN SKIRTS" beg to state that the very great favor with which the "INDESTRUCTIBLE SKIRT" has been received, has made it necessary for them to make unusual exertions to supply the demand, and that they are now running their Manufactory night and day for this purpose, their orders requiring AN IMMENSE INCREASE IN THEIR PRODUCTION, in addition to their usual large production of
THE PICCOLOMINI, ETRUSCAN LACE, GOSSAMER EXPANSION, and other popular styles. To effect this, their contracts are now out for upward of 50,000 YARDS BRAIDED STEEL PER DAY,
all of which is prepared expressly for them by their own makers and braiders—the very best in America. Having ample proof of the universal popularity of this "chef d'œuvre" of Skirt manufacture, the INDESTRUCTIBLE SKIRT, they intend placing it within the reach of every lady who wishes the most graceful, durable, and, in all respects, THE BEST SKIRT EVER PRODUCED.
P. S.—An invoice of these beautiful Skirts is now being prepared for THE QUEEN OF ENGLAND and THE EMPRESS OF FRANCE.
For sale by the Principal Jobbers and Retailers everywhere. Look for our name and trade mark, the Crown, stamped on every Skirt. No others are genuine

STEPHEN H. BRANCH will repeat his "Illustrated Blackwell's Island Lecture" at Hope Chapel, in Broadway, near Astor place, on MONDAY EVENING, April 4, which will truly represent my entrance and emergence from Blackwell's Island, with a perfect illustration of convict life, with scenery, barbers sheets, razors, baths, cells, mess-hall, quarries, overseers, &c. Three of the convicts who assisted at my first lecture are again on Blackwell's Island, two of whom were released on Thursday last, and will be in the chair nights of my lecture on Monday evening. One of them has passed 13 years on Blackwell's Island since blearedly manhood. I shall be assisted by ten convicts in prison costume, whose marches to solemn music before the audience will be sublime and exciting, and for a whole those on the Island, as cure is the march of freedom and theirs of degraded bondage. I shall also be assisted by three female vocalists, two male vocalists, and three instrumental performers. As my arduous impersonation of the "Convict" will require all my energies, I shall not play piano solos, and sing and dance before the audience as I contemplated. Let romantic lovers bring their lively virgins, and parents and old folk their innocent children and grandchildren to deter them from entering the editorial arena, and their constant exposure to incarceration for alleged libel, and to see how Columbus and Lafayette, and Louis Napoleon, and Cobbett, and poor Mike Walsh, and Stephen the motorn, appeared in prison cells and quarries, exposed to stony fragments, and how Robinson Crusoe and Napoleon the Great appeared on desolate islands. And now, at sixty-one early, and be prepared for plaintive tears and joyous screams, and violent perspiration. Let the ladies saturate their elegant attire with the strongest camphor, and bring large bottles of strong liquid peppermint, to revive themselves from sensitive spasms. As the preparations for my novel entertainment have been very extensive and expensive, and have exhausted my last dollar, I cannot prolong this advertisement, but must refer my kind and generous patrons to the small bills for the names of the performers and other particulars, which can be obtained at Hope Chapel on Monday evening next. Tickets 50 cents.
