GRAND FESTIVAL,
GRAND FESTIVAL,
NEXT WEEK.
PROGRAMME OF THE
GRAND HORTICULTURAL SCHOOL FESTIVAL,
To be held at
PALACE GARDENS AND HALL,
14th-st., near 6th-av.,
May 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 16,
In aid of the
HORTICULTURAL SCHOOL
FOR POOR ORPHAN GIRLS.
Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, the Rev. Dr. Chapin, the Hon. G. A. Grow, the Hon. John Cochrane, W. H. Fry, esq., and other eminent orators.
Music by Dodworths, Robinson's and other favorite bands. Two of Dodworth's full bands will perform at the Soiree on the evening of 16th May.
GRAND HORTICULTURAL EXHIBITION:
Flowers in abundance; hot-house plants; roses of all kinds—red, white and yellow—a concentration of Summer's charms.
GREAT EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS, by celebrated artists, many of them very valuable, placed on exhibition for the benefit of the Horticultural School for Females.
INTERESTING EXHIBITION OF BIRDS.
Canaries, Linnets, Nightingales, Troupials, Thrushes, larks, Mocking Birds, and other choice and rare feathered songsters.
GRAND SOIREE DANSANTE!
At this social hop, given under the auspices of the famous 71st Regiment, it will be admissible for ladies to remain their bonnets and shawls, if they prefer to do so. The new and spacious hall opens directly into the Garden; it is spacious, cool and airy.
ADDRESSES, GRAND CONCERTS AND FIREWORKS!
There will be Addresses, Concerts of Vocal and Instrumental Music, Promenades, Fireworks, Balloons, &c., &c., making altogether the grandest Festival ever given in this city.
GRAND PROMENADE CONCERT!
This Concert will be one of the most pleasing features of the Festival—the large new hall, two hundred feet in length, affording a promenade of unequaled extent, beautifully decorated with flowers, plants, paintings, &c., &c.
ADDRESS BY THE HON. G. A. GROW OF PENN.
The subject of Land Reform is now exciting an unusual degree of interest from the fact that the Hon. G. A. GROW of Pennsylvania, during the late session of Congress, advocated the passage of a Land Reform bill with marked ability. Mr. GROW was the master spirit of the House.
AT THE GREAT FLORAL FESTIVAL!
Mr. GROW will deliver an Address on this exceedingly interesting subject. No man understands the question better, and but few, if any, can handle it in a more masterly manner.
LAND REFORMERS REMEMBER!
That Mr. GROW is to deliver his Address on the evening of Thursday, May 12, 1859. For the price of admission to the spacious and SUPERBLY EMBELLISHED GARDENS AND HALL!
You will hear an Address on a subject deeply interesting to all, and contribute at the same time toward a most deserving charity. Music and Fireworks on the same evening.
A MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS.
A donation to the cause from Messrs. JOSEPH & ISAAC EDGE, jr., the celebrated Pyrotechnists, on the opening night. A fine display every other night during the Festival week.
THE REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER.
This popular speaker, who combines many of the best qualities of the most celebrated orators, ancient and modern, has also consented to deliver an Address for the benefit of the Horticultural School.
THE REV. DR. CHAPIN.
This truly eloquent divine has promised to be present on one of the evenings of the Festival week, and it is enough to say that he will speak.
THE HON. JOHN COCHRANE.
The political and other friends of Mr. Cochrane (who is one of the most admirable orators of his party), will have an opportunity of listening to a speech from their favorite some evening during the continuance of the great Festival.
WM. H. FRY, ESQ.
This witty, sparkling, pungent and caustic speaker has also kindly consented to say something in behalf of the School. Mr. Fry's numerous admirers would alone fill the monstrous new hall at Palace Gardens, as would the friends of any orator named in the programme. Such an ARRAY OF ORATORICAL TALENT has never before been presented in combination at any series of elegant and intellectual entertainments given in this city, and only the NOBLE OBJECT
in aid of which the grand festival is to be held could have drawn together so many notabilities possessing such varied talents. The programme is not yet complete. Further particulars will be given in future advertisements.
On the evening of May 16,
A GRAND SOIREE DANSANTE,
under the auspices of the FAMOUS SEVENTY-FIRST REGIMENT, will be given.
DODWORTH'S FULL BANDS
will be in attendance.
THIS SPLENDID FESTIVAL
Will be given under the auspices of his Hon. Mayor Tiemann, Wilson G. Hunt, esq., the Rev. Dr. Bellows, Gen. J. H. Hobart Ward, Col. A. S. Vosburgh, E. Whitlock, esq., Paul Spofford, esq., the Hon. Henry J. Raymond, Edwin Hoyt, esq., C. Godfrey Gunther, esq., M. B. Wynkoop, esq., I. V. Fowler, esq., the Hon. Horace Greeley, Wm. H. Browne, esq., Gen. Geo. P. Morris, the Hon. J. T. Headley, Henry L. Pierson, jr., Dr. Silas Lounsberry, Wm. E. Morris, esq., President L. I. R., Henry G. Stebbins, esq., J. S. Giles, esq., H. A. Burr, esq., Thomas Tileston, esq., Dr. James Knight, P. W. Engs, esq., C. Livingston, esq., James M. Quin, M. D., and 71st Regiment N. Y. S. M.
The whole to conclude with A GRAND GALA AUCTION
of Statuary, Paintings, Bronzes and other Works of Art; also, Green-House and other Plants and Shrubs, Birds, &c. Sale under the direction of Messrs. E. & F. H. SCHENCK of 33 Nassau-st.
Admission to each Entertainment, 25 cents, or $1 for the series (excepting that of the 16th inst.); Children half price. Tickets for Soiree Dansante, $2 (admitting gentleman and lady); Ladies' extra tickets, $1 each. For sale at the principal music and bookstores; at the hotels; Danskin's Ticket Office, No. 20 Wall-st., and at the office of the Horticultural School and Festival, No. 341 Broadway.

To Whom it may Concern.

CAUTION to DEALERS in ELASTIC FABRICS containing THREADS or SHEETS of VULCANIZED RUBBER.—The undersigned gives notice that he holds an absolute conveyance from Charles Goodyear of the exclusive right to use Vulcanized Rubber prepared according to said Goodyear's patent of June 15, 1844, in all elastic fabrics the elasticity of which is due to the shirring or corrugating the sheets or threads of such fabrics, and in all woven, braided, cemented or sewed fabrics, or such as are or can be covered or protected on one or both sides with substances other than rubber, and in all smooth, elastic, shirred goods; and also to make and sell India rubber threads of vulcanized rubber, and all threads or sheets of rubber which are or can be made or finished by union with or to be covered by fibrous substances. And he hereby gives notice that he is ready to supply the trade with all such fabrics at reasonable rates, and has a full stock now in store.
His attention has been called to an advertisement signed by William Judson, in which said Judson claims to be the owner of the right to import and sell such goods.
The undersigned is satisfied that this pretense on the part of said Judson is a fraud upon the public, and is made for the purpose of injuring his business. Said Judson has never exhibited his pretended titles to any Court, nor to the public; and he does not afford the undersigned an opportunity of commencing any suit against him in order to test these titles. Charles Goodyear could not give any valid titles to said Judson, nor to any one even after the titles to had conveyed to the undersigned. The question decided by Judge Ingersoll, in New-York, upon a preliminary motion and partial presentation of the case, was not decisive of the merits of the title of the undersigned, and the card published by said Judson shows that the Court was imposed upon by a pretended title in a third party which said Judson now claims to have been in himself for the last six years.
The undersigned, therefore, cautions all dealers in articles of the above descriptions, containing VULCANIZED RUBBER, that no such goods can be lawfully sold in this country without this license and stamp, and that he shall prosecute, to the extent of the law, all persons infringing upon his said rights. Orders solicited and rights to use guaranteed by

CITY OF NEW-YORK, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, Controller's Office, April 21, 1859.
NOTICE to OWNERS of REAL ESTATE.—Numerous applications having been made to this Department, by citizens holding receipts of various Collectors of Assessments, for amounts paid previous to April 19, 1856, on account of assessments for opening the Central Park, and sundry street and other improvements, which amounts have been retained by said Collectors and not credited in the proper books of the Bureau of the Collection of Assessments, to have such credits duly made and the liens created by such assessments canceled and discharged of record—NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all persons who have paid any assessments which have not been duly credited, to present the evidence of such payment at this Office for examination. Before authorizing the discharge of any existing assessment lien, the Controller will require the original receipt of the authorized officer of the Corporation to be filed in this Office, with an affidavit of the party by or on account of whom the payment was made, setting forth the facts and circumstances of the case, and such other proof as may enable the Corporation to maintain an action against the Collector under and by whom such collections were made. In cases where payments have been made to clerks or persons other than the Collectors, representing themselves to be authorized to receive such payments on behalf of the Corporation, the authority of such persons to act in the premises must be clearly shown. When payments have been made by bank checks drawn to the order of the Collectors and indorsed by them, such checks should be presented with the receipt of such official.
Applications for the discharge of liens in the above-mentioned cases, accompanied by the required proof of payment, should be made in writing and addressed to the undersigned, the envelope being indorsed "Claim for discharge of an assessment lien."
If, upon examination, the proofs of payment shall be deemed satisfactory, the lien will be canceled and a certificate to that effect will be given under the hand of the Controller. If the proof is not found satisfactory, the papers will be returned.
ROBT. T. HAWS, Controller.
