THE DRIGGS PATENT PIANO-FORTE—Or, THE VIOLIN PIANO. It is built upon an iron frame or bed-plate, entirely separate from the case, thus relieving the sound boards and every other part of the instrument from the strain. It will remain IN TUNE for MANY MONTHS, and, when the strings are settled, even for years. It has convex sounding boards above and below, like the Violin, which are connected together in the same manner, thus making the entire instrument a vibratory shell. It has greater depth and fullness of tone, and its "Sostenuto," or power of sustaining the tone, has never been equaled, except by instruments of the violin class. It IMPROVES WITH AGE and USE, becoming more vibratory and the tone purer and more sonorous. "It is the BEST PIANO-FORTE EXISTING," and is recommended by GOTTSCHALK, THALBERG, and many other artists and professors. Sole Agents, WM. HALL & SON, No. 543 Broadway, between Spring and Prince-sts.

WONDERFUL IMPROVMENT in GRAND PIANOS. THE LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE RAILROAD.—To the Stockholders of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company:

In an anonymous communication in The Herald and Tribune of May 7, I am charged with bringing a suit against the La Crosse Company, in the year 1853, and am also charged with other things which are equally as false.

I brought a suit against the Company in 1855, and obtained a judgment for $412,271 26 in October, 1857, and an execution was issued thereon, under which possession cannot be had until Judge Miller's decision is confirmed at Washington.

In the month of September, 1857, the Company executed a lease of the road and all its property, to Selah Chamberlain, for an indefinite period of time, and on the 24 of October, 1857, they confessed judgment in the sum of $629,000 to this Mr. Chamberlain. I then commenced a suit in equity, in the United States District Court of Wisconsin, before Judge Miller, against the Company and Mr. Chamberlain. In February, 1859, Judge Miller made a decree "that the judgment and lease were void, and setting both aside." From this decree Mr. Chamberlain appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, and has given "security upon appeal" in the sum of $150,000, to pay my judgment, if affirmed, which will not, in the usual course of things, be decided before the Winter of 1860; in the mean time he remains in the possession of the road.

The individual who signs himself "Stockholder," is evidently in the pay of the "Third Mortgage Bondholders," who have the Road under advertisement for sale on the 21st day of May, 1859; and, unless the injunction granted by Judge Orton, and served on Mr. Barnes, the Trustee, a few minutes before the time he was to have sold the Road, on the 23d day of April, 1859, is sustained, the Road will be sold under the third mortgage, and the stockholders cut off. Mr. Chamberlain, as "Stockholder," well knows, is now, and has been, urging the sale of the Road, under the third mortgage, and is decidedly hostile to me, consequently hostile to the stockholders.

Will Mr. "Stockholder" have the goodness to give his name to the public, and likewise to inform the stockholders of the Company what share he and his coconspirators against the stockholders have had in the issuing of the surplus stock, over the amount allowed by the charter of said Company, which is ten millions? I ask Mr. "Stockholder," who so ably represents with his anonymous pen Mr. "Third Mortgage Bondholder," what he thinks of the following document, and what he thinks of the Wisconsin State Prison?

"STATE OF WISCONSIN, SECRETARY'S OFFICE, MADISON, April 29, 1859.

SANDFORD R. KANE, esq., Milwaukee—DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 27th inst. is received. On the stockholders' list of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, filed in this office on the 26th inst., it appears that the number of shares of stock upon the New-York transfer books, is 81,075
And upon the books of the Company, reported by the Secretary 101,010
Total 182,085

Respectfully, J. D. RUGGLES, Assistant Secretary."

I sincerely hope that there is some mistake in the Secretary's statement. I have written to him to ascertain, and most sincerely hope such a stupendous fraud has not been perpetrated by any one upon the stockholders.

Mr. Alexander Mitchell, to whom the "Third Mortgage Bondholders" wish the stockholders to give their proxies, and the consent to have the road sold under the third mortgage, was one of the ten Directors of the road in 1856, who distributed the so called "Corruption Bonds" to the members of the Wisconsin Legislature, taking 10,000 himself.

I have commenced a suit in the District Court of the United States for the District of Wisconsin, in behalf of the stockholders, against Alexander Mitchell, and his co-directors, to recover against them the sum of one million dollars, and the interest thereon; if successful, the stockholders will gain that amount. He is likewise one of the defendants in the action I have instituted, as a stockholder against William Barnes, Trustee, and others, to set aside the third mortgage bonds as fraudulent, and thereby prevent the sale of the road. Mr. Mitchell was at the time this action was commenced a third mortgage bondholder, and, as I am informed, was to have been one of the Directors under the new organization, if they had been successful in selling on the third mortgage. Among the active friends of Mr. Mitchell are the third mortgage bondholders, the present direction, and Mr. Stephen H. Alden.

The stockholders of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company are requested to call on John Fitch, No. 44 Wall-st. NEWCOMB CLEVELAND.

Astor House, N. Y. May 7, 1859.

Circuit Court for Columbia County.—Newcomb Cleveland, plaintiff, vs. The La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, William Barnes et al., defendants. On motion of Wm. P. Lynde, and Mat. H. Carpenter, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is hereby ordered, and I do hereby order: That said William Barnes, defendant, his attorney, solicitors, agents, servants and successors, and all persons claiming by, through, or under him, or doing his will, or under his direction, or in any way personating said trustee, absolutely desist and refrain from selling the railroad of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, defendant, or any part or parcel thereof, or any of the property or franchises, or effects, mentioned or described, or intended to be described, in the trust deed or mortgage from said Railroad Company to said William Barnes, dated the 21st day of June, A. D. 1856, or in the indenture made supplementary and additional thereto, by said Railroad Company to said Barnes, dated the 11th day of August, 1858, and from attempting to sell, or offering the same for sale, whether by advertisement or otherwise, under the power or authority given or contained in the said mortgage or deed of trust, or said indenture supplementary and additional thereto, until the further order of this Court; and I hereby order that an undertaking be executed on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient security to William Barnes, defendant, in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditional that the plaintiff will pay to the said Barnes such damages as he may sustain by reason of this injunction, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, if the Court shall finally decide that the said plaintiff was not entitled to said injunction.

Dated at Madison, Dane County, this 21st day of April, 1859. (Signed) H. S. ORTON, Judge of the 9th Judicial Circuit, Wisconsin.

I certify the above to be a true copy. (Signed) WILLIAM J. C. FOSTER, Notary Public, Mil. Co., Wis.
