DR. J. H. ROBINSON

Writing for

THE NEW-YORK MERCURY.

ANOTHER GREAT ENGAGEMENT.

The proprietors of THE NEW-YORK MERCURY respectfully announce the engagement of the celebrated author, Dr. J. H. ROBINSON, universally acknowledged to be the only truthful delineator of FAR WESTERN TRAPPER LIFE.

His Opening Tale for THE MERCURY is now nearly completed, and he believes it to be the best he has yet written. The following announcement from the author's graceful pen will be greeted with enthusiasm by his tens of thousands of admirers:

A CARD.

TO THE READERS OF "BUCK BISON," "NICK WHIFFLES," "ONE-EYED SAUL," ETC.

To those who have followed my heroes and heroines over the Western Trail, and to the far trapping-grounds of the Great North, I beg leave to announce that I am now engaged in preparing another Serial, the scenes of which transpire in the same wild latitudes, and which I shall endeavor to render worthy the attention of my former readers. It will be perceived that I have chosen a section of country in which daily events transcend the feeble fancies of fiction—where incident crowds upon incident, and wild adventure and daring deeds are inevitable things.
The title of my new story will be

PATHAWAY;
Or,
THE MOUNTAIN OUTLAWS.

A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS.

"PATHAWAY" will be published in the columns of THE NEW-YORK MERCURY, to which journal I have engaged to contribute EXCLUSIVELY for a term of years. To my numerous readers I would return my sincere thanks, and shall ever hold in grateful rembrance those who, by their partiality and favor, have contributed to my success. If we do not jog along together as heretofore, mutually pleased with each other, I trust it will not be through want of effort on my part to continue to merit their approbation. Those who have taken an interest in the "difikilties" of Nick Whiffles—a character pretty extensively known—may very possibly find in "PATHAWAY" a character of his name and nature, whose exploits and drolleries will not shame those of other years. In short, it is my purpose to produce a story that shall excel other productions of my pen, in the novelty of its situations, in truthfulness of delineation, intricacy of plot, and rapid succession of incident.
It will be illustrated by DARLEY.

J. H. ROBINSON.

Worcester, May, 1859.

The publishers of THE MERCURY will only add that they pay Dr. Robinson a higher price for his labors than has ever yet been paid by the newspaper press to any American romancer, but a sense of duty to our quarter of a million readers demands his eminent services. It is our mission, by honorable competition to excel in every department, at whatever cost, and that mission will ever be faithfully performed.

"PATHAWAY" will be commenced in THE NEW-YORK MERCURY without delay, and other novelties will follow in rapid succession.

PRAIRIE FARMING IN AMERICA.
D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 346 and 348 BROADWAY,
HAVE NOW READY:
PRAIRIE FARMING IN AMERICA,
WITH NOTES BY THE WAY,
ON
CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES,
BY
JAMES CAIRD, M. P.,
Author of "English Agriculture," "Letters on the Corn Crops," "High Farming," "The West of Ireland," &c.
One volume. 12mo. Paper covers. Price 25 cts. Cloth, 50 cts.
"The picture of Prairie Farming is drawn, not by a smart Eden land agent or speculator, in the hope of taking in unwary Brittishers, but by an eminent English agriculturist. Nor is the reader invited to place blind faith in Mr. Caird's conclusions. They are given in such a form as to show the exact amount of personal knowledge and local experience from which they spring; and the steps in his calculations are in general easy and obvious enough for the most ordinary intellect to follow. And, as far as we can judge, no element in the purely economical aspect of the question has been mistated or forgotten.

The first monthly part of "ALL THE YEAR ROUND" is now ready. It contains the whole of the first four weekly parts, including the entire first book of Dickens's new novel, "A TALE OF TWO CITIES," which is now exciting more universal and intense interest throughout Europe and America than any other literary production. Those who have neglected to secure the weekly parts, should not let this opportunity pass, of obtaining the monthly. Take it home with you to-night. The Lawrence Sentinel, of Massachusetts, says:
"Parents could not put books into the hands of their boys and girls that would give them so much instruction in so pleasant a way as 'ALL THE YEAR ROUND.' The scientific articles are especially entertaining—at once thoroughly philosophical, and yet as fascinating as fiction. Nothing equal to them, in their peculiar line, has ever appeared in any other magazine. In the departments of poetry and fiction, the standard is very high, yet not above the level of the million."

ESCHATOLOGY;
OR
SCRIPTURE DOCTRINE OF THE COMING OF THE LORD, THE RESURRECTION, AND THE JUDGMENT.
By SAMUEL LEE.
One volume., 12mo. Price $1.
It is thought that this work will attract the attention of the clergy, the student, and the intelligent mind generally. Original and forcible in thought and argument and attractive in style, the author leaves the beaten path, and presents some startling suggestions, based upon strict critical analysis of the original text.
A high authority remarks, from an examination of some of the advanced sheets:
"Eschatology, &c., by Mr. Lee, will, we think, receive more critical attention, and be more carefully read than any similar book ever issued, not even excepting 'Bush on the Resurrection.'"
This opinion is indorsed by many of our best students and literary men; and the religious and speculative mind will here find the whole subject presented in a most attractive light.

DR. PALMER'S NEW BOOK.
THE NEW AND THE OLD;
OR, CALIFORNIA AND INDIA IN ROMANTIC ASPECTS. BY J. W. PALMER, M. D., AUTHOR OF "UP AND DOWN THE IRRAWADDI," BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED. Muslin. 12mo. $1 25.
What famous English Reviewer said of "Eothen" will, with justice apply to "The New and The Old," as well as to its predecessor, "Up and Down the Irrawaddi":
"There is a wide difference between this book and almost all other recent books of its class; the latter, for the most part, furnish us with the names of places and of things; this represents the things themselves; the latter supply facts and statistics relating to the East or the West; this gives us the very East, the very West, in all its own gorgeous or gloomy realities. Touched by this felicitous hand, the remotest objects leave upon the reader's mind not a series of mere pictures, but a sense of actual participation."
Moreover "The New and The Old" is a book of stories, based upon verifiable and remarkable experiences, mainly true as to localities, persons and events, and having all the dramatic interest of the famous "Diary of a Physician" for every one who has ever had father, brother, lover, or friend in California or India.

A BACHELOR'S STORY.
A Book of Love, Philosophy, Sentiment and Humor. By OLIVER BUNCE. 1 vol. 12mo. Muslin. Price $1.
"THE SPICE OF NEW BOOKS.
"A Bachelor's Story is equal to, in many particulars, Ik. Marvel's 'Reveries;' and while, without being at all an imitation of that work, is more or less a reverie. Such a reverie, indeed, as any thoughtful man, buried for the Winter in the country, would be likely to have over his blazing wood fire, and with a little Maggie by his side. We prophecy that the book will find a welcome wherever it goes; and no Summer traveler to the watering-places or mountain resorts will be en regle without a copy of the 'Bachelor's Story.'"

THE ROMANCE
OF A
POOR YOUNG MAN.
By Octave Feuillet. Translated from the Seventh Paris Edition by Henry J. MacDonald (late of Corpus Christi College, Oxford). One volume, 12mo., muslin. Price $1.
A handsome Library Edition.
"'The Romance of a Poor Young Man' has recently appeared in Paris, and has been hailed by both French and English critics as perhaps the most striking and admirable work of fiction that appeared in any country during the year 1858. Indeed, since 'Jane Eyre' startled the novel-reading world, we hardly remember another production of the kind which, for beauty and interest, can be compared with this."—[N. Y. Tribune.

The Publishers can afford no better idea of this most interesting production, which has attracted so much attention in London and Paris for many weeks, than by the following eloquent extract from the work itself:
* * * * * * * *
"Oh! for a Book worthy of Woman! Where shall I find it? A holy Book—a tender Book, out one which shall not be enervating; a Book to strengthen without hardening, without blunting her; which shall not trouble her with idle dreams! a Book which shall not lead her into the sadness and weariness of the Real—into the thorns of contradiction and discord—a Book full of the Peace of God."—[Michelet's L'Amour.
