BY NIXON, ADAMS & CO.

OFFICE, NO. 70 CAMP STREET.

THE DAILY CRESCENT

Has a circulation which makes it a desirable medium for advertisers. As a Family Paper, it circulates largely, reaching many hundreds of homes at an early hour, and being read before the approach of business hours, consequently articles for family use may be advantageously published in its columns.

THE WEEKLY CRESCENT

Is published every Monday morning at $5 a year, invariably in advance. Having an extensive circulation throughout Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama, Texas, and other States, it presents a favorable mode to advertisers of making their wares and commodities known. Advertisements inserted for $1 per square, each insertion.

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 27, 1855.

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE. ☜

The officers of the steamers Guinare, Golden Gate, Sovereign and Pennsylvania, have our thanks for late papers from Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis.

STEAMBOAT DEPARTURES THIS DAY.—By reference to our first page, it will be seen that no less than twenty-four steamboats are advertised to leave this day, for the Ohio, Mississippi, their tributaries, and almost every navigable stream known to the South and West.

THE MAILS.—The Northern and Eastern mails due on Tuesday, failed from Atlanta, Ga. The mail due yesterday failed from beyond the lake and of the Pontchartrain railroad, no boat having arrived, nor mails received at the Post office, up to the time of closing last evening. The presumption is, the storm of Christmas night was heavy on the coast, and the winds heavy from the south-west. There will be due this morning the mails of the 16th, 22d, and 23d inst.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.—Mr. P. S. Wiltz, elected clerk of the Second District Court at the last November election, was inducted into office yesterday. Mr. Wiltz is a clear-headed, active, sagacious business man, and we venture the prediction that under his clerical regime, litigants will have no reason to feel anything but satisfaction at the punctual and methodical manner in which he transacts their business.

KEYSTONE ASSOCIATION FESTIVAL.—The sons of glorious old Pennsylvania, resident in Louisiana, had a noble re-union at the St. Charles Hotel last evening. The period selected was peculiarly appropriate—being "the anniversary of the only treaty never sworn to and never broken"—of Penn's treaty with the Indians.

After an appropriate address from Judge Rawle, the large company, at a little of 7 o'clock, sat down to a sumptuous repast—such as Hall & Hildreth well know how to prepare—and very shortly after, toasts, wine, sentiment and wit, were the order of the occasion. Everybody appeared to be happy and patriotic, and separated at a late hour at peace with themselves, "all the world and the rest of mankind." We doubt if a more joyous celebration was ever held in the proverbially gay Crescent City.

We have not room, at this late hour, for a report of the proceedings, the toasts and responses, and are constrained to close, wishing the Association and the members thereof many pleasant, joyous and genial returns of the occasion, and that such may surpass in pleasure and good fellowship, its predecessor.

STATE SCHOOL TEACHERS' CONVENTION.—There will be a convention of the school teachers of the State at Thibodaux, commencing to-morrow and ending the following day. When the call for the meeting was first made, some time since, we alluded to it at length, setting forth the highly commendable objects in view. We have only to express the hope, therefore, that a large number of the instructors of youth may be found in attendance on the days appointed, and that much good may flow from their deliberations.

The school system of Louisiana is defective in many parts, and sadly needs improving, if not re-modeling.—Who so capable of pointing out defects, suggesting improvements, and imparting useful information, as the school teachers? Doct. Bard, the newly elected State Superintendent of Public Education, is expected to be present and address the convention.

HOWARD LODGE No. 13, I. O. O. F.—A meeting of this Lodge will take place this evening, at 7 o'clock, in their lodge room, No. 5, Odd Fellows Hall, and as officers for the ensuing term are to be elected, and other important business acted upon, it is particularly requested that every member be present.

BUSINESS.—It was lively yesterday on the landing, though it was rather cool and rather muddy, yet as the weather was clear, the inconveniences were not deemed as very serious. The levee continues to be crowded, though thirty-four steamboats were advertised to depart. They will hardly be missed to-day, as many were detained outside, waiting for berths. There is, however, some room at the upper end of the Fourth District, and as that is embraced within the limits of the port, consignees of produce must receive it there, though it is as onerous and inconvenient to the boats to have to discharge there, as it is to consignees.

COTTON.—The receipts since Monday evening at six o'clock, up to the same hour last evening, were, by the Planter, from Natchez, 1,662 bales; Nashville, from Memphis, 3,462; Gem, from do., 1,728; Midas, from Tennessee river, 1,625; Louisiana, from Galveston, 153; Compromise, from Alexandria, 807; Amanda, from Ouachita City, 1,063; Laurel Hill and Capitol, from Bayou Sara, 186; Kate Dale, 674; Rosa, from Alexandria, 1,103; A. W. Gladee, 315; R. L. Cobb, from Camden, 1,073; Florida, from Mobile, 375. Total, 13,351 bales. Of sugar, 651 hhds. and molasses 3,370 bbls.

PARODI.—Those who are fond of vocal music will be happy to learn that a no less distinguished cantatrice than Parodi will be present with us the present season to heighten the gratification of our citizens. She is now without rival on the stage, and brings back pleasant recollections of the time when Jenny Lind and herself made the arts of our whole country ring with melody.—Her first concert will be given on the second or third of January.

HOLIDAY IRONY.—Charles A. Stewart, Nos. 171 and 173 Canal street, has on hand a very beautiful stock of mahogany armoirs and bedsteads, together with other articles of household furniture, which will make a useful as well as acceptable holiday present.—Those casting about for matters to purchase should consider the quality and recommendations of the stock displayed at Mr. Stewarts and give him a call. See the advertisement.

WATCHES, JEWELRY AND CLOCKS.—H. Franko, corner of Poydras and Carondelet streets, has a very large and elegant assortment of watches, jewelry and clocks, which he is selling off on the most reasonable terms. Those who would provide themselves with anything in his line of business should look at the advertisement in another column.

AT COST.—P. A. Hebrard, No. 118 Canal street, wishing to liquidate his large and desirable stock before spring, offers the entire assortment at cost. A better opportunity for those who wish to purchase on the ready-money principle, cannot be found in the city. The announcement may be seen in another column of this morning's paper.

TONSORIAL.—Those who can recall the luxury which attended the tonsorial operations of Rollins, before the Verandah was made a ruin, will be gratified to know that he has completed his arrangements for renewing in the present, and increasing in the future, that which was so pleasant in the past. Hot, cold and vapor baths will be furnished at all hours of the day and evening, and the shaving and hair-dressing departments will be conducted in the same successful and agreeable manner which gave them celat and celebrity before. See the advertisement.

FROM TEXAS.—By the steamship Louisiana, Capt. Pease, we have received our files from Galveston and Interior Texas, but they contain scarcely an item of interest.

The brig Lincoln has arrived at Galveston with railroad ties, from Bangor, Me.

The Orinoco, with railroad iron, from Wales, is reported as having arrived off the bar.

Mr. Terrill Vincent, who was arrested at Galveston about a year since, in an attempt to leave the State with several negroes, claimed by Mr. McFadden, of Brazoria county, has been tried upon the charge and acquitted by the District Court of that county. The case excited much interest.

Telegraphed to the Daily Crescent.

Recent Publications.

CICERO'S THREE BOOKS OF OFFICES, or Moral Duties: also, his Cato Major, an Essay on Old Age; Laelius, an Essay on Friendship; Paradoxes; Scipio's Dream; and Letter to Quintus. Literally translated. By Cyrus R. Edmonds. New York: Harper & Brothers.

THE ANABASIS, OR Expedition of Cyrus and the Memorabilia of Socrates: literally translated from the Greek of Xenophon. By the Rev. J. S. Watson. With a geographical commentary. By W. F. Ainsworth, Esq. New York: Harper & Brothers.

CAESAR'S COMMENTARIES on the Gallic and Civil Wars: with the supplementary books attributed to Hirtius; including the Alexandrian, African and Spanish Wars. Literally translated. New York: Harper & Brothers.

The three forementioned volumes, belonging to Harpers' classical library, have been laid on our table by J. B. Steel, 60 Camp street. The translation is very correct and the works are well and handsomely printed. Those who wish to read the great writers of the past, and found their knowledge of what has been upon a sound substructure, should not fail to secure for themselves the advantages offered by the present publication. Cicero, Cæsar and Xenophon must always stand in the fore rank of the writers, and their works command that attention and general regard which the old immortals only have secured for themselves. Both the De Officiis and the Anabasis are, so far as we have looked at them, closely and rigidly rendered.

An additional merit of these books is the very chaste and elegant manner in which they are gotten up. The paper is clear and strong, and the type as distinct as type can be. No publishing house in the country has sent out its works more generally excellent in the mechanical departments than that of the Harpers, and we are happy to see that this great merit is even increasing with their increasing publications. The splendid volumes that were the pride, as they were the monuments of English, French and German houses, have now a parallel with us in the publications of the Harpers, and other notable firms, who embalm and distribute the literature of the age.

A CHILD'S HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.—By John Bonner. In two volumes. New York: Harper & Brothers.

Mr. Bonner, in his introduction, states that the object of his history was to write a work that should accord with Dickens's history of England, for the juveniles. He has succeeded very well in his effort, giving the pith and point of what others might embody in volumes, in a very short space. It is an admirable thing for children, and is as appropriate for a holiday gift as any other book we know of.

THE TESTIMONY OF AN ESCAPED NOVICE, from the Sisterhood of St. Joseph. By Josephine M. Bunkley. New York: Harper & Brothers.

We have received a copy of Miss Bunkley's book, containing her experience in a nunnery. The volume is of three hundred and fifty pages, with notes and engravings. It has created considerable curiosity in the North, and will doubtless be very widely read. The Harpers have given it a fine dress and admirable typography.

J. B. Steel, 60 Camp street, has our thanks for copies of the above named books.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

ST. CHARLES THEATER.—"Shandy Maguire," "Law for Ladies," and "Barney the Baron."

FROM BUENOS AYRES.—Files to the 27th of October have been received in New York. Gouis, Bastos, Lamela, Flores and other chiefs, were again in revolution, but at last dates Flores was in retreat towards Ensenada, to re-embark for the Oriental coast. Lamela was up in the North, and a good deal of trouble was expected. Other Indian incursions were also decided.

Col. Olivera had arrived at Buenos Ayres. Exchange on United States stood at par.

DIED:

On Wednesday morning, 26th inst., Mr. ANDREW THOMAS, a native of Ross, France, aged 70 years, 8 months (or 28 days, and for the last 18 years a resident of this city.

The friends and acquaintances of the deceased and his family are respectfully invited to attend his funeral To-Day, at half past 4 o'clock, at the residence of his son-in-law, Gottfreid Hahnweidinger, at the corner of Pleasant and Fulton streets, in the Fourth District.

☞ We have frequently heard the celebrated German Bitters, sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia, spoken of in terms of the highest commendation, and we believe that it is one of the best meditinal alverstisel for the complaints for which it is recommended. They are pleasant to the taste, and can be taken under any circumstances by the most delicate stomach. The press, far and wide, have united in commending this invaluable remedy for dyspepsia, debility, etc.; and such are the healing effects of this panacea, that we hope it may be introduced to every family where dyspepsia has or is likely to have a victim. From the Bulletin of Dec. 24.

STRONG IRONY.

There appeared in Saturday's Bulletin an article with the remarkable heading of "Facts Revealed," though construed entirely of delicious misstatements, and so perverted as to convert them into falsehoods. Struggling under a painful situation, I do not feel prepared, at this moment, to frame an adequate answer to this publication of Messrs. C. C. Miller & Co., but I will publish one during the present week. In the meantime, I may remark, that I am fearless of any successful attack upon my veracity or integrity, even from one whose veracity is unquestioned; such less would I heed an assault from one like Mr. Miller, who cares wholly unconcerned as to the means he may employ to accomplish an end. He is incapable of injuring any one, save himself, and those whom he may undertake to serve.
