Caution to Purchasers of Billiard Tables.
As unscrupulous persons in this city are endeavoring to palm their imitations of my tables on the public, by falsely asserting that a decision has been obtained affecting the patent for my Combination Cushions, I take this opportunity of stating that no decision affecting any of my patents, has ever been rendered, and of informing the public, pending the measures taken to put an end to imitations of the outward form of my Cushions, that O'Connor & Collender of Nos. 63, 65, 67 and 69 Crosby-st., in this city, are the sole manufacturers of my model Tables and Combination Cushions.
MICHAEL PHELAN.

PRAIRIE FARMING IN AMERICA. D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 346 and 348 BROADWAY, HAVE NOW READY:
PRAIRIE FARMING IN AMERICA,
WITH NOTES BY THE WAY,
ON
CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES,
BY
JAMES CAIRD, M. P.,
Author of "English Agriculture," "Letters on the Corn Crops," "High Farming," "The West of Ireland," &c.
One volume. 12mo. Paper covers. Price 25 cts. Cloth, 50 cts.
"The picture of Prairie Farming is drawn, not by a smart Eden land agent or speculator, in the hope of taking in unwary Britishers, but by an eminent English agriculturist. Nor is the reader invited to place blind faith in Mr. Caird's conclusions. They are given in such a form as to show the exact amount of personal knowledge and local experience from which they spring; and the steps by his calculations are in general easy and obvious enough for the most ordinary intellect to follow. And, as far as we can judge, no element in the purely economical aspect of the question has been mistated or forgotten.
It is difficult for the Canadian backwoods to rival the attractions of the Mississippi Prairies, which offer the emigrant a cheaper freehold, and require less labor before yielding a profitable return."—[London Saturday Review.

BY THE REV. S. H. PLATT, AUTHOR OF
"THE GIFT OF POWER," &c., and
"CHRIST AND ADORNMENTS," &c.
A thrilling work on SLAVERY and the SLAVE TRADE, published TO-DAY, detailing the capture of a family in Africa by Slave-stealers—their fearful journey to the coast, the horrors of the "middle passage," their sale in America and subsequent martyrdom. The slavery of their son—his terrible sufferings, and perilous escapes; founded upon fact, but fictitiously disguised in order to shield him from detection, and published for his benefit.

DR. J. H. ROBINSON
Writing for
THE NEW-YORK MERCURY.

ANOTHER GREAT ENGAGEMENT.

The proprietors of THE NEW-YORK MERCURY respectfully announce the engagement of the celebrated author, Dr. J. H. ROBINSON, universally acknowledged to be the only truthful delineator of FAR WESTERN TRAPPER LIFE.
His Opening Tale for THE MERCURY is now nearly completed, and he believes it to be the best he has yet written. The following announcement from the author's graceful pen will be greeted with enthusiasm by his tens of thousands of admirers:

A CARD.

TO THE READERS OF "BUCK BISON," "NICK WHIFFLES," "ONE-EYED SAUL," ETC.

To those who have followed my heroes and heroines over the Western Trail, and to the far stopping-grounds of the Great North I beg leave to announce that I am now engaged in preparing another Serial, the scenes of which transpire in the same wild latitudes, and which I shall endeavor to render worthy the attention of my former readers. It will be perceived that I have chosen a section of country in which daily events transcend the feeble fancies of fiction—where incident crowds upon incident, and wild adventure and daring deeds are inevitable things.
The title of my new story will be
PATHAWAY;
Or,
THE MOUNTAIN OUTLAWS.
A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS.
"PATHAWAY" will be published in the columns of THE NEW-YORK MERCURY, to which journal I have engaged to contribute EXCLUSIVELY for a term of years. To my numerous readers I would return my sincere thanks, and shall ever hold in grateful remembrance those who, by their partiality and favor, have contributed to my success. If we do not jog along together as heretofore, mutually pleased with each other, I trust it will not be through want of effort on my part to continue to merit their approbation. Those who have taken an interest in the "difficulties" of Nick Whiffles—a character pretty extensively known—may very possibly find in "PATHAWAY" a character of his name and nature, whose exploits and drolleries will not shame those of other years. In short, it is my purpose to produce a story that shall excel other productions of my pen, in the novelty of its situations, in truthfulness of delineation, intricacy of plot, and rapid succession of incident.
It will be illustrated by DARLEY.
J. H. ROBINSON.
Worcester, May, 1859.
The publishers of THE MERCURY will only add that they pay Dr. Robinson a higher price for his labors than has ever yet been paid by the newspaper press to any American romancer, but a sense of duty to our quarter of a million readers demands his eminent services. It is our mission, by honorable competition to excel in every department, at whatever cost, and that mission will ever be faithfully performed.
"PATHAWAY" will be commenced in THE NEW-YORK MERCURY without delay, and other novelties will follow in rapid succession.
CAULDWELL, SOUTHWORTH & WHITNEY,
Proprietors New-York Mercury.

SUMMER PICTURES FROM COPENHAGEN TO VENICE.
By the Rev. HENRY M. FIELD.
1 vol. 12mo. Price $1.
"A delightful book. The writer, who is the senior editor of The New-York Evangelist, makes a Summer tour with a joyous and genial companion through the most picturesque and interesting parts of England and the continent, and coming into graceful contact with eminent personages, and refined society his 'pictures' are a succession of scenes that are surveyed by the reader with constant entertainment and satisfaction. The author is observant of men and manners; he is intelligent and candid; his historical and literary references and illustrations are copious, apposite and instructive, and his style lively and piquant, so that it is a pleasure to go with him from place to place, or linger with him in Venice or Vienna, in Denmark or Sweden. We are indebted to the author for a pleasant hour of railroad travel with his book in hand, and we commend it to our readers as one of the happiest Summer books they can take in hand, by the way or in the shades of home."—[New-York Observer.
"Mr. Field is an observing and genial writer, and his recent observations upon countries which are now conspicuous in the movements of war, will have just now a timely value. It is a very attractive book, combining the historical, the descriptive, and the narrative in a pleasing and graceful style."—[Independent.
