His Time Was Up.

"I can't get over it!" said Sandy Mactavish to his wife. "Wad ye believe it? I put a twa-shillin'-piece in the plate at kirk this morn instead o' ma usual penny."

"Weel, Sandy, if I was you, I shouldn't put ony money in till the fower-and-twenty Sabbaths are up," suggested Mrs. Mactavish.

And, acting on her advice, Sandy didn't.

On the twenty-fifth Sabbath the farmer again ignored the collection plate, looking straight in front of him; but the old beadle was not to be cheated. Holding the plate in front of the crafty Scotchman in a loud, tragic whisper he exclaimed:

"Noo, then, Sandy, mon—Sandy, your time is up the noo!"

Making Life Too Dull.

The Jersey City preached who has started a crusade against kissing must be hard up for something to do. It may be dangerous to kiss, but that makes it all the more attractive. In fact, to live an utterly sanitary and blameless life is so tedious as to make life hardly worth living.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
