"Mr. Brown's Lectures fill an important place, for which we have no other book. The style is clear, the spirit is kind, the reasoning careful, and the argument conclusive; and although RELIGIOUS they are not SECTARIAN, but are such that would induce many persons to attend places of worship. We are persuaded that this book will render more good than any book of Sermons or Lectures that have been published in this nineteenth Century."

"We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies, in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature."—[Trubner's Guide to American Literature, London, 1859.

"Unquestionably it is the best sustained work of the kind in the language; that is to say, in the world. The splendid monthly essays from the Editor's Table are above price. The present number is equal to any yet issued, and there is no reason to doubt a long career of prosperity to the work."—[N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

"Whoever has had occasion to consult the past volumes of the Magazine must have been struck with the multiplicity of papers embodying important geographical, historical and scientific facts, so that, apart from its merits as a storehouse of entertaining reading, it is of no small value as a work of general reference, and on a great variety of subjects. The 'Monthly Record of Current Events,' in particular, though promising little immediate interest at the date of its publication, increases in its importance from year to year, and now furnishes a sort of chronological summary, the convenience and satisfactory character of which will be the most highly appreciated by those who have the most frequent occasion to consult its columns."—[N. Y. Tribune.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1859.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, now more than eighteen years old, which was the first journal in the world that appeared regularly on an imperial eight-page sheet at so low a price as two cents, and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 200,000 subscriptions, respectfully solicits its share of patronage which the Metropolitan Press is henceforth to receive. It asks especially the patronage and active favor of REPUBLICANS—of those who hate all forms of oppression, and desire that every rational being shall be free to employ his faculties in such innocent manner as he shall deem best—of those who would extend Liberty and Fruit Slavery; but it further appeals likewise to all who look and labor for the return of National thrift, plenty, prosperity, through the Protection of American Industry by wisely discriminating duties on Imports—all who favor National Progress through internal development and melioration rather than by external aggression and extension—all who would rather have the National resources devoted to the construction of a railroad to the Pacific than to the purchase or conquest of Mexico, Nicaragua or Cuba—all who would retrench radically our present incubrate Federal expenditures by abolishing or immediately reducing the Army and Navy, and expending the money thus saved on works of beneficence which will endure to bless our children—all who profoundly realize that "RIGHTEOUSNESS exalteth a nation," and that no real advantage can ever accrue to any person or community from acquisitions or successes achieved by means which contravene the laws of Eternal Right. The free allotment of limited portions of the Public Lands to Actual Settlers thereon, and every hopeful plan intended to diminish the sum of human misery from dearth of employment of inadequate recompense—every scheme especially that seems to help the unfortunate by enabling and teaching them to help themselves—must command our earnest sympathy and cooperation.

During the past year, THE TRIBUNE has provided itself with a new and faster Press, at a cost of $30,000, merely that some of our subscribers may receive their papers a mail earlier than they otherwise might do. With correspondents at the most important points throughout the civilized world, and a staff of writers chosen from among the best in the country, we believe that even those who dislike the politics of our sheet concede to it frankness in avowing its convictions and ability in maintaining them. We appeal, then, to those who believe that an increased circulation of THE TRIBUNE would conduce to the political, intellectual and moral well-being of the Republic, to aid us in effecting such increase. As we employ no traveling solicitors of subscriptions, we ask our present patrons in every locality to speak to their neighbors and friends in our behalf; we shall gladly receive from any friend lists of those who would receive and read a specimen copy of one of our editions, and shall be particularly grateful to those who may send us such names from post-offices at which we have now no subscribers. Whatever additions may thus be made to our circulation shall be paralleled by increased efforts and expenditures to make our issues more valuable and useful than they have hitherto been.

THE N. Y. DAILY TRIBUNE.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening (Sundays excepted). It contains Editorials on the topics of the times, employing a large corps of the best newspaper writers of the day; Domestic and Foreign Correspondence; Proceedings of Congress; Reports of Lectures; City News; Cattle, Horse and Produce Markets; Reviews of Books; Literary Intelligence; Papers on Mechanics and the Arts, &c., &c. We strive to make THE TRIBUNE a newspaper to meet the wants of the public—its Telegraphic news alone costing over $12,000 per annum.

TERMS:

THE DAILY TRIBUNE is mailed to subscribers at $6 per annum, in advance; $3 for six months.
United States Postage, $1 56 per annum; must be pre-paid on papers sent to Canada.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily, with the Cattle, Horse and General Markets reliably reported expressly for THE TRIBUNE; Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, and during the session of Congress it contains a summary of Congressional doings, with the more important speeches. We shall, as heretofore, make THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE a Literary, as well as a political newspaper, and we are determined that it shall remain in the front rank of family papers.

We shall, during this year, as hitherto, constantly labor to improve the quality of the instructive entertainment afforded by THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, which, we intend, shall continue to be the best Family Weekly Newspaper published in the World. We consider the Cattle Market Reports alone richly worth to cattle raisers a year's subscription price.

We employ no traveling agents. All that it is necessary for you to do in order to become a subscriber to THE TRIBUNE is to inclose the money to us, and forward it through the Post-Office. Friends who cherish the principles we advocate, and who desire to have full and reliable intelligence from all parts of the world, will act as our agents in getting up clubs and forwarding subscriptions.

When you order THE TRIBUNE, be careful to give the name of the Post-Office, County and State, to which you wish the paper sent. And when you change your residence, and desire your paper changed accordingly, state the name of both Post-Offices—that where you have been receiving it, and that where to you wish it sent in future.

When convenient, send a draft or check, made payable to our order, in preference to sending bills, as it will preclude the possibility of the loss of money by mail. Notes or bills, however, may be sent at our risk, when you preserve a description of the bills and take a Postmaster's receipt to show that the money has been mailed.

☞ "A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE." ☜
As accidents will happen even in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Toys, Crockery, &c.
SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE
meets all such emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for one, the and other ornamental work so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.
This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-makers' Glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.
