

Pierce County Fair Notes.

The Scotch Collies shown by Peffard & Wilcox, of Olympia, were very fine.

The dairy exhibit was a disappointment in regard to the number of exhibitors, but was a grand success in regard to the quality of the products exhibited. The cleanliness, neatness of packages, the superior quality of the butter and cheese would compare favorably with and we believe in some cases surpass the products of Eastern creameries. The quality of butter and cheese was so nearly equal that when the judges counted up the score there was only a difference of one-half point in first and second prizes.

C. B. Jeffries Acquitted.

We have received a copy of the Portland Evening Telegram of September 9th, containing the following item marked:

"The examination of C. B. Jeffries, manager of the fruit packing and shipping firm of this city, charged with libeling Willis Brown, took place in the Municipal Court this afternoon, and resulted in acquittal. Judge Sweek threw the case out, as the evidence did not back up the charge. Judge Sweek remarked that the character of Brown was such that that what Mr. Jeffries said about him would not injure it any and that the evidence showed Willis Brown to be mellow in spots."
