Just Returned from Europe.

One of the members of our firm having made the tour to Europe, and visited all the principal PRINTING HOUSES, TYPE FOUNDERIES, LITHOGRAPHIC and MANUFACTURING STATIONERY ESTABLISHMENTS, and availed himself of the opportunities thus afforded him to familiarize himself with many new and important features connected with the above branches of business, we shall, in the prosecution of our improvements now in progress in these several departments, introduce them in time to be of advantage for the Fall Trade.

In announcing our preparations for the Fall Trade, we take pleasure in returning thanks to our numerous patrons for their continued favors extended to our house, and feel obliged to say in this connection, that the new features obtained from observations abroad, which we contemplate introducing, will merit their renewed attention. It is our desire that "THE PRINTING HOUSE OF THE UNITED STATES" shall meet the requirements of the business public in every particular, and we think our arrangements, when perfected, will secure this much desired end.

We invite orders from all sections of the country for PRINTING, BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY, LITHOGRAPHY, ENVELOPES, &c., which will be executed promptly and reasonably, in the best style, and of the best material.

I.
A NEW BOOK BY SPURGEON.
SMOOTH STONES
FROM ANCIENT BROOKS.
By the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.

Being a collection of sentences, illustrations, and quaint sayings, from the works of that renowned Puritan, Thomas Brooks.
1 vol., 16mo.....Price 60 cents.

Extract from the Preface:

"Reader, thou hast here presented to thee, in a cheap and readable form, the choice sayings of one of the King's nightingales. The great Divine who wrote these precious sentences was of the race of the giants. He was head and shoulders above all the people, not in his stature (like Saul), but in mind, and soul, and grace. Treasure these gems, and adorn thyself with them, by putting them into the golden setting of holy practice, which is the end the writer always aimed at. Use these 'smooth stones' as David of old, and may the Lord direct them to the very forehead of thy sins, for this is the author's main design."

II
A NEW BOOK BY BALFERN.
LESSONS FROM JESUS.
By the Rev. W. P. Balfern.
Author of "Glimpses of Jesus."
1 vol., 16mo. Price 75 cents.

Extract from a notice of Mr. Balfern's former work, by the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon:

"A book whose theme is Jesus is ever welcome to a place in my library. For this reason I hailed with pleasure the advent of this precious volume. I sat down to read it, and soon discovered its beauty; it was a feast of fat things, a season long to be remembered. I have read it again and again, and would desire to adore the Holy Spirit for that gracious unction which rested upon me in its perusal.

"Would you have perfume? here it is. How sweetly doth 'my Master sound!' 'My Master!' As ambergris leaves a rich scent, so do these words a sweet content; an Oriental fragrancy—'My Master!' Would you have beauty? here are glimpses of the 'Altogether lovely.' Would you hear music? listen to the harmony of the sweet verses in this book. In fine, would you learn the road to Heaven? God helping you you may find it here. Believe me, gentle reader, your faithful friend,
"C. H. SPURGEON."

THE SCIENCE OF EDUCATION; AND ART OF TEACHING. In two parts.
By JOHN OGDEN, A. M.
1 vol., 12mo., 480 pp. Price $1 25.

It is proper to say that Mr Ogden has for the last six or seven years been engaged almost exclusively with Teachers and in Normal Schools.

NOTICES.

From the Rev. William Russell, State Educational Lecturer, Massachusetts.

"LANCASTER, Mass., September.

"DEAR SIR: I have examined with care your course of lectures on the philosophy of teaching. Your plan seems to be remarkably comprehensive in the broad view of human culture which it presents, and at the same time faithfully exact in the practical details of method which it prescribes. It seems well fitted to make intelligent and thoughtful teachers of all who adopt it as a guide. The large space which it justly assigns to moral training and to healthful activity of body, as well as to intellectual exercise, commends it to the hearts of all reflecting parents not less than of teachers. The truly philosophical and thoroughly practical methods of early culture which it suggests to the primary teacher, if faithfully acted on, would make our elementary schools series of the most attractive and delightful, as well as instructive occupation for childhood."

From Wm. F. Phelps, A. M., Principal of N. J. State Normal School.

TRENTON, September—

MY DEAR SIR: Allow me to say that in my humble judgment, you have struck the right vein both in the conception and execution of your ideas regarding the Philosophy of Teaching. You afford a splendid contribution to our limited means for the training of Teachers. A good scholar merely has fulfilled only one of the conditions essential to a good educator. What we most need is a clear elucidation, and a scientific classification of the principles of education, so that they may be mastered and applied to the rearing and training of rational and immortal beings. I need not assure you that this task you have, according to my notions, most happily executed. The application of diagrams to the work seems to me to be a happy thought, addressing the subject to that most perfect of all senses the sense of sight.

A NEW BOOK on the POLITICAL HISTORY of the UNITED STATES.
PUBLISHED THIS DAY BY D. APPLETON & Co.
PARTIES AND THEIR PRINCIPLES; A MANUAL OF POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE, EXHIBITING THE ORIGIN, GROWTH, AND CHARACTER OF NATIONAL PARTIES. WITH AN APPENDIX, CONTAINING VALUABLE AND GENERAL STATISTICAL INFORMATION. By ARTHUR HOLMES. 1 vol., 12mo. $1.

Taking hold at the very beginning of our existence as a people, this book follows down the course of our history, treating it with the especial view of tracing the party divisions which have from time to time grown up, and giving, with respect to these divisions of the past time, in addition to a full and clear digest, such general and particular information as never finds its way into national history; and, with respect to divisions of the present times, a clean, concise statement very useful to those who do not follow up our party changes very closely, and valuable also as a record, and for future reference.

It contains a succinct exposition of all questions of National interest, past or present, with the views of eminent Statesmen, the action of Congress, and the bearing of those questions upon the country at large. While the work is condensed, it is at the same time, clear in its delineation of the origin, growth, character, and condition of parties. Being strictly historical, it commends itself to men of all shades of politics as a work of reference, and as a safe guide to the intricacies of American politics and the past action of our Government.

The "old stager" will find in this book much to jog his memory very profitably—while to any one studying the national history, and to young men who look forward to the probability of entering public life, it is altogether indispensable.
