POSTER'S FIRST BOOK OF CHEMISTRY.—This is a very useful school-book, from the publishing house of A. S. Barnes & Co., New York. We have received a copy through Mr. Wm. Flemming, the school-book and stationery dealer at the corner of Magazine and St. Andrew streets.

THE BRITISH MAGAZINES.—We are indebted to Mr. J. C. Morgan, of Exchange Place, for copies of the North British Review for August, and Blackwood for September. Neither contains anything about the United States, but each winds up with some learned thunder about the East Indian mutiny.

A VISIT FROM THE SPIRITS.—We have to acknowledge the pleasure of a visit from the spirits—not of the invisible sort, however, or of the black, blue and gray family—but tangible, bottle-shaped creatures, such as gladden the eye and exalt the heart of ordinary mortals. One was labeled Otard, Dupuy & Co.; another, Topaz Sherry; and the last, Old Madeira. They came as messengers of peace and good will from our friends, Messrs. C. R. Bailey & Co., No. 17 Tchoupitoulas street; and surely, for such an errand, no finer messengers could have been impressed into human service. Though speechless, their respective outpourings were sublime, touching the feelings with a power far beyond that of poor prosy language. Plainly, each article was of the first class of its kind; and peace and good will exist between the Crescent office and the house of C. R. Bailey & Co.

RETURNED.—Our friend Dr. R. A. Porter, the well-known dentist, has returned to the city from a recreative tour through Europe, looking "as large as life and twice as natural." His old friends and patrons, who may require his services, will be pleased to know that he is to be found, prepared to wait upon them, at his old post, No. 157 Canal, near Baronne street.

THE BALL SEASON.—The gay community, who have doubtless been anxiously awaiting the opening of the dancing campaign, will be pleased to hear that that joyous event will take place at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Tuesday, the 20th instant—a week from to-morrow. The ball is to be given by the "Star Club," an organization lately formed by some of our gay young citizens. The announcement of the ball, with the list of managers, and other particulars, may be seen under our amusement head. It will not be long, we judge, before other balls will be announced to keep up the excitement.

THE AGE COFFEEHOUSE.—This favorite resort, on St. Charles street, near Gravier, has been purchased by Mr. Thomas O'Neill, a gentleman of experience in supplying the public thirst, and in whose hands "The Age" may safely be expected to reach a "green old age," with all the corpulency which public patronage and popularity can lend it. Mr. O'Neill speaks a few words to his friends on the subject, through our advertising columns.

COTTON.—The receipts of cotton from Saturday morning up to 6 o'clock last evening, were by the Linda, from Shreveport, 251 bales; Reub White, from Jefferson, Texas, 273; Bayou Belle, from Ouachita, 825; Selma, from Vicksburg, 253; sundry boats, 127; Chas. Morgan, from Texas, 272; Afton, from Yazoo river, 909; Grenada, from Vicksburg, 545; Silver Moon, from Ouachita, 532; Magnolia, from Vicksburg, 2872; Sunbeam, from Shreveport, 221; Marion, from Shreveport, 579. Total, 7669 bales.

The Vicksburg packet Princess will be at the landing this morning.

TWO FIREMEN KILLED.—Two firemen—B. M. Kincaid and Wm. Maxwell—injured at a fire in Pittsburg on the 2d inst., died on the following day.

For Editors Crescent: Please announce Dr. A. H. FOX as the racing nominee of the American party of Algiers, for the State Legislature. se19 2p1c

White Teeth, Perfumed Breath and healthy complexion, can be acquired by using the BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS. What lady or gentleman would willingly endure the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate a friend's whisper will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. The genuine bottle is signed "Partridge & Co., N. Y." For sale by HICKLING & CO., Agents; MORRISON, and all Druggists. s10 2p eod6w

THE DANGER TO THE SOUTH.

The Vicksburg Daily Sun is a staunch Democratic journal, and is edited with marked vigor and ability. Sometimes, perhaps, it uses too strong expressions regarding its political opponents, but that is an unimportant incident when on the great question of the day—a question that two years hence will absorb all other questions—it occupies the true ground that every Southern journal should occupy.

The Sun, in its issue of the 5th inst., takes, strange as it may appear, ground almost identical with that taken and defended and promoted by the Crescent for months and months past, although on the ordinary political topics that have heretofore divided the two parties of the country, we differ as widely as the poles are asunder. The editor, with ourselves, unquestionably regards the cause of the South as superior and paramount to all other causes, and is willing to throw himself into the breach for that cause whenever it becomes necessary so to do. With this preliminary, we propose to make some remarks and liberal quotations from an article in the paper of the date referred to.

The Sun starts out by remarking that "he is a poor observer of the signs of the times who fails to discover that the South is menaced by dangers and surrounded by imminent perils." True, unfortunately, most true. For years the South has been drifting on a dangerous course—has been gradually nearing the vortex of the maelstrom of Northern fanaticism and her course must be changed, she must sail on a different tack, or else she is, in our deliberate belief, sure to meet the fate of vessels drawn with the converging circles of the Norwegian whirlpool. In the North-East her constitutional rights are laughed to scorn, and the name of slaveholder is hissed with loathing, scorn and hatred. In the greatest of the Middle States our organic prerogatives the majorities have been taught to disregard and trample upon, and they do disregard and trample upon them. In the well-nigh boundless North-West four Freesoil States loom up for almost instant admission into the Union, viz: Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota and Oregon. According to the latest telegraphic intelligence received in this city, it appears certain that the Black Republicans have carried the Territorial Council and House of delegates of Kansas by decided majorities. And if Kansas has gone into the hands of our enemies—of which fact there seems not the smallest particle of doubt—we of the South need never turn our eyes in the direction of the North-West. There is not, nor will there be, a glimmering of hope there! The best we can do will be to save the State of Missouri from the devastating inroads and injurious influences of Abolitionism! In this, however, it is doubtful whether we can succeed. Surrounded on the North and West by Abolition organizations, which work ceaselessly and unscrupulously, how can the Missourians hope to preserve the institution of slavery in their midst for any great length of time, especially when it is known that the principal metropolis of the common wealth—St. Louis—is in the hands of the Freesoilers, and it is likely to remain in the hands of the Freesoilers.

This picture, we are aware, is a very unpromising picture, but it is practically true and tangible, and in perilous times like these the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, should be presented to the masses of the Southern people for deliberate and dispassionate consideration. In no other mode nor manner can they be enabled to arrive at practical and solvent conclusions; and, without intending the least offence to any of our professional brethren, no matter what the difference between their political modes of thinking respecting subjects that have become obsolete, or are rapidly becoming obsolete, we must be permitted to say that we regard the editor who does not fully post his readers on these points of vital moment as derelict to his highest duties. We have endeavored, not half as ably and successfully as we could wish, we are free to say, to perform our duty in the premises, and we shall continue to do so in the future.

Turning from the uninviting prospect spread out in the North-Eastern and Middle States, and in the Territories of the North-West, let us come down to the extreme South-Western boundary of the slaveholding region—to what is popularly known as Western Texas. What do we there see? Why, as we took occasion to show, a week or more since, a strong probability that Western Texas would become a free State at no distant period! Some of our cotemporaries, blinded by party zeal and indifferent to all things else but party success, for the time being, laughed at our facts, figures and arguments, but did not present a fact, figure or an argument in refutation thereof. We respectfully submit that this is not the proper way in which to meet a question of so much importance that the powers of calculation are all but appalled in an attempt to grapple it.

But, we find we are digressing somewhat, and will come back to the very excellent and patriotic article of our Vicksburg cotemporary. With the Sun, we say: "We are no alarmist. We are no panic maker. We would not wittingly add to the fears of any one, much less prognosticate evil without a good reason for so doing. We could have no motive for saying that the South was doomed, so far as the action of the general government is concerned, unless we firmly believe such to be the fact. We may as well make up our minds to look the danger which threatens us full in the face, and meet it like men who know their rights, and knowing dare maintain them."

After stating that it is the opinion of sagacious statesmen that the Union will not last four years, "unless a great reaction takes place in the North on the subject of slavery," the Sun makes the subjoined practical remarks:

The Abolition sentiment is growing daily, and it will continue to grow until it darkens the whole Northern horizon. "When we drive slavery out of Kansas," said Senator Wilson, "we will attack it in the States where it exists." This is their programme to which they are committed. To carry it out, they will employ every agency that the mind can conceive, or ingenuity invent. "We elected a Speaker," exultingly said Horace Greeley, "and why can we not elect a President?" That they will elect the man of their choice for the Presidency, without an interposition of Providence, is not only the opinion of a few, but it is the opinion of nearly all our most far-seeing statesmen.

Many long months ago we predicted that, in 1860, "they," the Black Republicans, would "elect the man of their choice"—Senator William H. Seward—to "the Presidency," unless there was a remarkable change in Northern popular sentiment, of which there then appeared not the slightest probability, and of which there appears not now the slightest probability, we are able to discern.

The Vicksburg Sun thus brings its clear and well-written article to a close:

Seward is the man we will have to contend with in 1860; and in him we will find a foeman well skilled in all the arts of war; a strategist without a rival, and a political chieftain of great deliberation, unparalleled sagacity, and wonderful foresight. To defeat a well disciplined army, led on by such a man, will be no easy task. Already is he marshalling his forces preparatory to the great contest of 1860.

What are we doing? Taking our ease on the couch of inactivity, and regarding the mutterings of the thunder, which betokens the storm cloud, with supreme indifference. We must arouse ourselves from the dream of security in which we are indulging. When the enemy is thundering at our gates it will be too late to offer him effectual resistance. A oneness of sentiment, feeling and action should animate the people of the South. Let there be no division among us when the great day of trial comes. Let us evince by our unity of action that when our rights are assailed, we know how to defend them, that we dare defend them, at all hazards, and to the last extremity. We must put our house in order, in view of the threatening danger. We must prepare for the great battle which is to decide the fate of the Union, as becomes the descendants of those who fought and bled to secure the inestimable blessings by which we are on all sides surrounded.

Very well said and very correct. With all our heart we reiterate the saying that there should be "a oneness of sentiment, feeling and action" among the Southern people; that there should "be no division among us when the great day of trial comes;" and that "unity of action" and union of feeling should characterize our conduct in the future. Otherwise we will, necessarily, be ill prepared for the great struggle that is approaching, and which our enemies are determined to force upon us.

SHOT HIMSELF.—In Mecklenburg county, Va., a man named Algood, while getting into a wagon with a gun in his hand, struck the hammer against the wheel, and the piece was discharged, the contents entering his chin and tearing off the top of his head.

When the young, the beautiful, the tender-hearted are stricken down with disease "in life's early dawn," when the angel of Death claims it as the "breath of an early grave," the affliction of the heart is poignant, and nothing is seen or felt but one vast solitude of desolation and despair. On the other hand, with what rejoicing myriads of human beings hail the advent of a "balm for human woe!" In Woodman's Cherry Expectorant, the bright angel of Hope sounds the glad tidings, and says, "daughter or son be healed." Thus is an untimely grave—the sun which possesses the curative properties of Woodman's Cherry Expectorant. o12 2p1ts W

DIED:

On Saturday, the 10th inst., at Hedgeford Plantation, parish of Terrebonne, Miss. SARAH E., wife of J. C. Potts, Esq. Natchez papers please copy.

Facts cannot be questioned, when the people of any country bear testimony in mass, as in the case of Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Not only have we the individual evidence of the land, but almost every paper in the Union is commenting upon the great benefit derived from the use of these celebrated Bitters, besides various diplomas awarded them, among which is one from the Ohio Mechanics' Institute, at their Thirteenth Annual Exhibition at Cincinnati, where the committee was composed chiefly of physicians in the city. These are all weighty facts that cannot help but convince the most credulous that it is at least worthy of trial. For dyspepsia in any form, these Bitters are a certain cure when used as per directions on bottle. For sale by druggists and dealers generally. o12 2p&3t1W

Dr. James has returned from his Northern tour, and can be found at his old established Dispensary, 82 Customhouse street, between Royal and Bourbon streets, New Orleans. All that are unfortunately afflicted, should apply to him immediately and save themselves from the awful and terrible consequences of fearful maladies.

See advertisement in another part of this paper, headed "Dr. James' Medical House." o1 2p1w

Sudden Change.
There is nothing more trying to the human constitution than sudden changes of weather. Heat rarifies the blood and increases the perspiration, but when suddenly checked, those humors which should pass off by the skin are thrown off inwardly, causing Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Difficulty of Breathing, Watery and Inflamed Eyes, Sore Throat, and many other complaints.
WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are a delightful medicine for carrying off a cold, because they expel from the body those humors which are the cause of the above complaints. Four or five of said Indian Vegetable Pills taken every night on going to bed will, in a very few days, carry off the most obstinate cold; at the same time the digestive organs will be restored to a healthy tone, and new life and vigor will be given to the whole frame.
