The Publishers would commend this Review to the attention of the American public, as a work which, dating almost from the commencement of the literature of our country, has always sustained its high reputation wherever our language is known, and one which presents the strongest claims to their favor.

It is to America what the Edinburgh and London Quarterlies are to Great Britain, and takes rank with them both in Europe and America.

Nearly all the great authors of our country were first brought before the public through this Review. Webster, Everett, Sparks, Prescott, Bancroft, with scores of other noted men, of whom our literature is proud, have been among its contributors, and its pages continue to reflect the best talent of our times.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is published quarterly, in numbers of nearly three hundred pages each, at Five Dollars a-year. CROSBY, NICHOLS & Co., No. 117 Washington-st., Boston.

Specimen numbers will be sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1 25 in money or stamps.
