CHECKER OFFICE, No. 76 Camp street,
Monday Evening, Nov. 9, 1857.

The week opens under very favorable prospects. Our great staple, cotton, is in good demand, and the ruling question, exchange, is shifting down in favor of a further advance in the great staple.

Specie is expected by every conveyance. The steamer Granada, from New York, will bring $480,000 from that point, and may bring a further amount from Havana.

There was very little done in the way of discounts to-day. The managers of the several banks do not consider that they are in a sufficiently strong position to expand, although they (the Banks) were above the law on Saturday—say the Bank of Louisiana, $668,000; the Citizens', $80,000; the Canal Bank, $256,000; the State Bank, $28,000. This is a very formidable showing, and which is further strengthened by the daily statements, as made this morning.

The exchange market was firm to-day. Drawers would not accede to the prices of Saturday, and we have to note a very material advance. The banks enhanced the rate of checks on New York to 1 and 1¼ per cent. discount, with some asking par. This was equivalent, however, to saying that we are not drawing to-day. One days sight was held at 2@2¼ discount. Sterling went up 1½@2 per cent. We quote good sterling bills at 86@88, with some drawers asking 100. France from 5.10@5.05 to 5.15. The market, all round, closes in favor of drawers.

There was nothing done in stocks. We, however, learn that 107½ was refused for Canal Bank, and 132 for State Bank.

Nothing doing in paper. This commodity is getting along so well that the selling of paper is becoming almost obsolete. A small amount of A1 was placed to-day at the rate of 24 per cent. per annum, which is much more favorable than paying 48@60.

There was no arrival to-day from Bravos St. Iago, bringing a small amount of silver, which, it is presumed, will go into the Mint. In every respect the general financial market has a steady upward feeling.

The returns of the banks of the city of New York on Saturday,
