New Orleans Daily Crescent.

WILLIAM B. ADAMS

BY NIXON & ADAMS.

NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 22, 1857.

THE RAILROAD TRADE.—We publish elsewhere, in the Crescent of this morning, a copious and interesting report of the meetings, with the correspondence, debates and resolutions, adopted by the hardware jobbers and dealers of New York, taken from the Herald of the 7th inst. We also present, in the same connection, the preamble and resolutions adopted by the importers of CREAM BREWERS.

In the correspondence and debate the evils of long credits and undue expansion are freely and ably handled. The credit system is a good system—many make it an indispensable system—when kept within the proper limits which prudence dictates; but when it is used without regard to the rules of legitimate traffic, it tends to infection, incites to reckless extravagance and speculation, and leads to ultimate bankruptcy, just as certain as the grass grows and waters run. That long credits had much to do with the production of the late commercial and financial crash, there is not a shadow of doubt. Short credits, sales at moderate profits and prompt payments, form the only true basis of a regular and substantial commerce.

Our hardware jobbers and dealers, and readers generally, will find the documents referred to replete with interest, and altogether worthy their attention.

NEW AUCTION ESTABLISHMENT.—We take much satisfaction in directing the attention of the public to the advertisement of Messrs. Poindexter, Grayson & Co., auctioneers and appraisers, and stock-note and exchange brokers, which appears in its proper place elsewhere. The members of the firm are well-known in the city, and their business capacity and integrity are unquestioned and unquestionable. Col. Poindexter is excellently well qualified to perform the responsible duties of an auctioneer; and to make properly long remunerating prices. All those who know him, and their name is legion, will bear willing testimony in this behalf. Mr. Grayson, late Cashier of the Bank of New Orleans, who will take charge of the stock-note and exchange business, is too well known to this community to need any recommendation at our hands, or at the hands of anybody else. Whoever trusts their business in his custody will be sure to have it attended to in the prompt and best manner. Of this there can be no doubt of any sort. Of Mr. Hyer, report speaks in the most favorable terms. His present connection is a sufficient endorsement. As a matter of course, the new firm will command a full share of public patronage.

GAIETY THEATRE.—The Blondin and Martinetti troupe begin a new week at the Gaiety to-night, with new attractions in their line. The grand fairy pantomime of "Faust" is to be given, with all the physical force of the troupe, and all the accessories of the theater, in the way of machinery, scenery, costumes, etc. It will be richly worth seeing. The pantomime is to be preceded by the farce of "A Pretty Piece of Business."

ST. CHARLES THEATER.—Mr. Collins, the Irish comedian, begins his engagement at the St. Charles to-night. The programme for the occasion consists of "The Nervous Man and the Man of Nerve" and "Teddy the Tiler," in both of which Mr. Collins appears; with the "Thumping Legacy," in which Vining Bowers appears. Mr. Collins is the most finished, genteel, and generally meritorious of the living delineators of Irish character, and as such will be sure to get out his engagement with profit to his manager and himself.

THE AMPHITHEATRE.—Melody and mirth still hold triumphant sway at the Amphitheater, and Matt Peel and his unrivaled band have concluded, in view of the fashionable and satisfying patronage with which they are honored, to do anything but "shut up shop." They enter upon still another week, to-night, and offer attractions of unabated strength. Professor Orton & Sons, we must not forget to mention, are to appear, as ever, in conjunction with Matt Peel & Co. The popularity of the Amphitheater, it seems, is not to be affected by any of the attractions elsewhere, however great they may be. This is all right, and may be taken as a golden proof of the merit of the institution.

ORLEANS THEATER.—This establishment was fashionably and brilliantly crowded on Saturday night, and the opera of "Les Amours du Diable" was rendered with the usual telling effect. The patrons of the Orleans seem to be better blest than those of the other theaters. They always have something of real merit before them, and always enjoy themselves heartily.

To-night will be given Meyerbeer's famous grand opera of "Robert le Diable," with M'mes Colson and Paola, and MM. Julian, Janca and Debrinay, in the leading characters. The great feature of the piece will be the debut of M'lle Torma, an Italian danseuse of high repute, in the character of Helena, the nun. The opera is powerfully cast, and will be produced with all the telling effect which has made it so great a luxury to the habitues of the Orleans.

SUNDRIES.—Large supplies of bacon, beans, beef, candles and liquors have been received by Joseph Landis & Co., No. 33 Tchoupitoulas street. See advertisements.

☞ When coughs, colds, influenza, consumption and the numerous diseases arising from pulmonary affections, are readily cured by Woodman's Cherry Expectorant, it is easy to believe that it possesses merits based upon the only true principle of finding its way to the root of the disease. Woodman's Cherry Expectorant has balsamic, soothing and healing properties, possessed by no other remedy in the world, and is strongly recommended for all affections of the lungs and chest. n23 2p6t&1tW

☞ Light is not more necessary to the growth and health of plants in the vegetable kingdom than the free use of Woodman's Cherry Expectorant in all diseases of the lungs. The disclosing cough in consumption in all its various forms, leaves debility if not complete prostration of stretch behind; by the timely use of this wonderfully soothing medicine, the harassing cough is, as if by magic, allayed, and the debility so much to be dreaded is stopped in its career—in short, the worst symptoms are subjugated to its stimulating, strengthening and restoring properties. n23 2p1t&1tW

DIED.

On Sunday morning, 22d inst., at 3½ o'clock, Mrs. ELIZABETH H. SPLAIN, aged 47 years, wife of Robert Splain.

The friends of the family are invited to attend her funeral, from her late residence, No. 27 Bienville street, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

☞ A Word to the Invalid Public.—Scarcely four years have elapsed since the presentation of our new celebrated Stomach Bitters was made to you. You have tested their efficacy, and have manifested your appreciation by your generous patronage, from the fact that they have invariably accomplished all they proposed to do, and if there is still among you any lingering prepossession have induced our preparation to rank among the popular medicines, we would earnestly refer them to any of the leading physicians in the land, who are invariably prescribe it in all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, constipation, loss of appetite, etc., etc. It does not profess to cure all things, but we hold for the above diseases it is the only speedy and reliable remedy. We would seriously caution you against the different spurious articles put up and palmed off as the genuine "Hostetter," and it is due to yourselves to acquaint us with all parties engaged thereby. We have at present several in different sections of the Union under hands, but hereafter we intend prosecuting to the fullest extent of the law.

DR. VANDERVEER'S FAMOUS MEDICATED GIN, OR SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.
A pure article, safe, harmless and reliable, should be in the hands of every family. A chill comes on after one arrives home frequently, from walking in a rain storm. Half a wine glass or a whole wine glass will prevent a fever. You have no appetite—a wine glass at dinner is a splendid tonic. You feel a general debility—a wine glass per day will re-vitalize your system. You are troubled with gravel, or predisposed to dropsy—a wine glass night and morning will save you from these complaints.

Removal
—OF—
THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE COMPANY'S SOUTHERN DEPOT
—TO—
11.....Camp Street.....11
The Southern Depot and Salesroom of the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE COMPANY has been removed to the store, No. 11 CAMP STREET, New Orleans. The lower store of said building has been elegantly fitted up for the particular accommodation of our numerous lady patrons.
We now have a good assortment of MACHINES on hand, and having our usual large force at work at our Factory, making 250 Machines a week, we hope to be able to supply the great demand.
GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.
N. B.—All orders should be addressed to WILLIAM L. CUSHING, Agent of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company. n18 2p1f

Forty Dollar Sewing Machines,
FOR PLANTATION AND FAMILY USE.
These Machines are superceding the high priced and complicated machines. Most persons are using them in preference, because they are so simple and easy to learn, and they are not continually getting out of order.
The public are solicited to call and judge for themselves, at
No. 7 Camp street.

Dissatisfaction
Often exists in the minds of customers who are induced by advertisements to visit establishments professing to sell "BARGAINS." This feeling is produced by the fact that they too frequently find but two or three articles—and these of the most trashy kind—sold at low figures, while the stock generally is at
VERY HIGH PRICES!
No such feeling has existed in the minds of those who, during the past two weeks, have visited our establishment, but
ALL AGREE
In saying that our stock of Cheap Dry Goods
is composed of DESIRABLE ARTICLES, and that our prices
AVERAGE MUCH CHEAPER than those of ANY OTHER ESTABLISHMENT! The low rates at which we sell FOR CASH DOWN,
prevents any one lot of goods from remaining long in our store; we will not, therefore, particularize any of the GREAT INDUCEMENTS which we are now offering, but would respectfully solicit a visit from all who feel interested in Dry Goods, with the assurance that we are CONSTANTLY in the market FOR CASH and are daily receiving New Goods, which we can sell at LESS THAN IMPORTATION COST, TO CASH BUYERS.
