THE WASHINGTON MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.
[CIRCULAR.]
WASHINGTON, December, 1865.
Every one complains of the extortion and imposition practiced upon the people of this city in the matter of fuel, but no one proposes a remedy. A number of gentlemen associated with us own a valuable colliery in Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, producing now over 60,000 tons a year, of the best quality of white and red ash anthracite coal. The machinery and appliances are complete. Upon this property we propose to organize a company with a capital of $300,000, divided into thirty thousand shares of $10 each. The holder of each share of stock to be entitled to a ton of coal each year at prime cost, and to his share of the profits on the sale of coal to outside parties.
The first cost of coal at present rates of transportation, delivered to the door of the consumer, would be $9; at the usual rates the price would be from six to seven dollars.
A party owning ten shares would pay for it $100. This would entitle him to ten tons at cost—say $3 less than dealers' retail prices—$30.
30,000 tons sold outside at a profit of $2 per ton would be $60,000
And deducting contingencies, &c. 15,000
Would leave $45,000
or 15 per cent. on the entire capital, and added to the saving in the price of coal, $30, makes $45, or 45 per cent. on his investment.
The coal is much superior to and worth at least $2 per ton more than the coal brought to and sold in this market, and shipments and delivery can be commenced as soon as the arrangements are made.
No payment of any subscriptions will be required until the subscribers, at a public meeting, shall have appointed a committee of gentlemen of their own selection to visit and examine these mines, and report upon them, and then, if satisfactory, one half to be paid down and the balance in one, two and three months. The trustees and officers to be selected by the stockholders, and the title to be made to such trustees.
Gentlemen to whom this circular will be sent are requested to forward the project by obtaining subscriptions and enclosing them to Major I. K. Casey, No. 385 C street.
We shall be glad to give any further information.
JOSEPH CASEY,
I. K. CASEY.
