The Managers of the Orphan's Home and Asylum of the Protestant Episcopal Church in New-York, No. 146 West 39th-st., having obtained ground for their institution, have appealed, through the Church papers, to the liberality of Episcopalians, to aid in their projected building. The appeal has been promptly met, but more money is still needed to make up the required sum of $20,000. To enable them to commence building this Spring, and to obviate the evil of their doing so under the pressure of debt, they would now, through the daily papers, urge the claims of their Institution upon all members of the Episcopal Church who may not have seen their former appeal, and ask for contributions from all persons who may be interested in the cause of the friendless orphan.

TWO NEW NOVELS!
Published this day, and for sale by all booksellers:

I.

LIFE BEFORE HIM.
A NOVEL OF AMERICAN LIFE.
One vol., 12mo., 401 pages. Price $1.

"A book of singular originality and genius..... Its style is brisk, fresh, and vivid; its characters are such living flesh-and-blood creations as to flit before you, not like unsubstantial pageants, but positive entities..... The whole tone and temper of the book is hearty and delightful, and the views of life the most pleasant and entraneing we ever read. Occasionally the author steps out of his story to address the reader, and then his humor flashes; he is fanciful, brisk, and fascinating."—[Home Journal.

II.

AGAINST WIND AND TIDE.
By HOLME LEE,
Author of "Kathie Brande," "Sylvan Holt's Daughter," &c.
One vol., 12mo., 440 pages, cloth. Price $1.
From The London Literary Gazette.

"The new publishing season has commenced auspiciously; and the Novel before us is, by many degrees the best specimen of fiction that has been placed in our hands. With much of the terseness and vigor of 'Adam Bede,' it has a refinement which we do not find in that very clever work, and a combined knowledge of the world and insight into character, which render the tale startlingly real and life-like."
From The London Athenæum.

"We prefer this novel to any of the author's previous ones. The story is interesting, and the characters well designed..... The incidents are true to life and death; and the reader is touched with a pity deeper than words or tears can speak it."
Mailed, post free, on receipt of price.
W. A. TOWNSEND & Co., Publishers, No. 46 Walker-st., New-York.

"An important geographical problem remains to be solved."—[N. Y. Spectator.

FOURTH THOUSAND NOW PRINTING.
DR HAYES'S
ARCTIC BOAT JOURNEY,
IN 1854.

The Publishers are now printing the FOURTH THOUSAND of Dr. Hayes's interesting book, and solicit orders from the Trade for the same. The extended notices of the leading journals in the United States, and the liberal extracts from the book, testify to the interest in Arctic Navigation.
"A 'twice-told tale' may be worth hearing or reading if the subject be interesting and the style good. Such is the case with this book of Arctic travel. We do not mean to say that the matter here is twice told—only in this day of Arctic knowledge every book on Arctic travels cannot be read, and it is well to know which are worth reading."—[N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.
"The book is desirable for its spirited pictures of life and adventure among the Esquimaux."—[Providence Post.
"The precise position of Arctic Discovery at the present time is admirably shown by the excellent chart of the regions on every side of the Pole."—[Daily Advertiser.
"It is one of the most readable volumes that we have examined for a long time."—[Congregationalist.
"The thrilling adventures and terrible sufferings encountered in this journey are recorded in a graphic style, which cannot fail to interest all who have read Dr. Kane's Arctic Expedition."—[Detroit Free Press.

Lingard's is undeniably the standard history of England. Hume is no longer regarded as an authority; while Macaulay's is but a mere fragment, embracing a period of scarcely fifty years.
"Lingard's is the only work worthy the name of History of England."—[Daniel Webster.
"It is infinitely superior to Hume, and there is no comparison between it and Macaulay's romance."—[Brownson's Review.
"Lingard's History has long been known as the best history of England ever written."—[Albany Transcript.
"This history has taken its place among the classics of the English language."—[Lowell Courier.

NOW READY:
No. 1.
THE IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT.
It contains the famous Speech of Mr. SEWARD at Rochester, in which he pointed out the fact of the Irrepressible Conflict; the equally famous speech of Mr. O'Conor at the Academy of Music, contending that Negro Slavery is not unjust; Mr. O'Conor's recent letter to certain New-York merchants on the same subject; and a brief collection of the opinions of eminent men with regard to Slavery.

No. 2.
DEMOCRATIC LEADERS FOR DISUNION.
The recent powerful Speech of Senator WILSON of Massachusetts, in which the fact is demonstrated that the Disunion Movement, begun thirty years ago by Mr. Calhoun, has at last obtained the control of all the most influential leaders of the so-called Democratic party. This is proved by quotations from their own declarations, given in their own language, and forming an array of testimony which cannot be disputed.

No. 3.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.
From The New-York Independent.

"The VERY BEST BOOK ON SLAVERY YET ISSUED. Sound, judicious, kind, Christian, and most timely and faithful. * * * The author rehearses in a graphic way the measures of violence which "'SOUTHERN AGGRESSION' has of late so systematically pursued; and, while condemning the crazy zeal of John Brown, he shows that heroic self-denial for the oppressed puts to shame the coward fury of the South for oppression. Yet the tone of the book, while candid, frank and manly, is always kind and gentlemanly;
"NOT SECTIONAL, BUT FRATERNAL; not partisan, but Christian. He points the South to the simple remedy for existing evils, by substituting wages for the lash, free labor for coerced toil."
From The New-York Tribune.

"Its animated descriptions, and the frankness and cordiality of its tone, are adapted to give it a favorable reception, even with readers who differ most widely from him in opinion. * * * The topics to which this volume is devoted, and the spirit in which they are discussed, though they may arouse a tempest of opposition from those who regard silence as the only safety, will secure it a wide circulation among the Friends of Freedom throughout the country."
From The Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy.

"It is a CONTEMPTIBLE ABOLITION PRODUCTION, written in a very readable style, and well calculated to taint the minds of the young."
From The Detroit Christian Herald.

"It furnishes VALUABLE INFORMATION on the questions which now agitate our country."
From The Hartford Evening Press.

"His impressions are such as would be derived by any honest, fair-minded Northern man. It is WARM, DIRECT, ELOQUENT."
From The New-York Observer.

"The book is intensely and avowedly Abolition."
