ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY!!!

To a former announcement we declared our intention of issuing at an early date, the first number of a New Illustrated Journal,

"THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES."

Our object is to present every week, a paper which can be taken up in a leisure hour, and which shall pertinaciously avoid all questions of a Political nature. In its columns every person will find something to interest him. Its illustrations will be in the highest style of the Art, and by the best Artists. Having made arrangements with an extensive Manufacturer in Belgium, by which we can import our paper at a much smaller cost than a majority of our Contemporaries, we shall be enabled thus to give our subscribers the benefit of such arrangements. The Publishers of "THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES" are now negotiating with a number of distinguished writers for their regular contributions to our Paper. Among them are "Artemus Ward," (Chas. F. Browne,) the inimitable Humorist, P. T. Barnum, (Author of "Humbugs of the World,") who we expect will contribute a Series of Articles, the subject of which, for obvious reasons, we do not at present mention, but which, if announced, would create an unprecedented excitement.

One of the most brilliant and promising of our younger Adventurers and whose late work ("The Campaigns of a Non-Combatant") is so remarkable for a peculiarly graphic power of delineation and exposure is George Alfred Townsend ("Alfred Trample") will contribute a Series of Elaborate and Exhaustive Sketches, entitled, "Newspaperdom Exposed!—The Press of New York." Being an extensive treatise on the Daily, Weekly, and Monthly Press of New York city. These articles will contain developments of the Origin, Characterization, Personnels, Policy, and Rules of Composition of each of the leading Editors, Contributors, and Publishers; Rates of Payment for Literary Labor; Manner of Employment; Methods of Procuring News; Proportion of Source of Publications; Adventures, Biographies, and Peculiarities of Notable and Remarkable Journalists and Writers; Inside Life of a Newspaper; Cost of Publishing a Daily, Weekly, or Monthly; Significant Failures and Successes; "Hack-working;" Determinism, Comparative Status of Literary Men of New York, London, Paris, and Leipsic; Houses of Popular Literary Men; Follies and Vices of Journalism; Ages of Popular Publications, their Circulation, &c., &c., &c.

Among the publications analyzed in this work are the Tribune, Times, Herald, World, Sun, News, Post, Express, Journal of Commerce, Round Table, Sutton, Saturday Press, Review, Ledger, Mercury, Courier, Leader, Dispatch, Atlas, Citizen, Clipper, Independent and Home Journal, Harper's Weekly and Monthly, Leslie's Publications, Albion, Scientific, Eclectic, Peoples, &c., &c., &c. One of the most deeply interesting essays ever written. It is no puff, but a candid acknowledgment of merit, (where merit exists,) and a severe criticism on that which is trash.

In addition to these unrivalled attractions, "THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES" will contain a department devoted to the Ladies, which will be presided over by a Popular Fashion Writer, and which will be rendered doubly interesting by the Handsome Engravings of the Latest Styles of Dress. The paper will also contain a department exclusively for Gentlemen, in which will appear the latest Intelligence of Base Ball, Cricket, Chess, Billiards, Quoit, and Trotting Matches. Interesting Dramatic and Theatrical News, by an experienced Editor. The latest items in Science, Art, and Literature, Impartial Reviews of New Publications, Fascinating Novels, Tales, Romances, Sketches of Adventure, Travels, Interesting Scientific Articles, Chess and Billiard Problems, Scintillations of Humor, Wit, Caricature, Humorous Experiences and Anecdotes, &c., &c., &c.

In accordance with a custom inaugurated by several new periodicals, we shall present to every subscriber to "THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES" a picture expressly engraved for us, entitled,

"POPULAR NOVELISTS."

Being the Portraits of those who, by their works, have endeared themselves to the Popular Heart. Its size is 20x28 inches. It contains, on thick white paper suitable for framing, the "counterfeit presentments" of the late Wm. Makepeace Thackeray, Charles Dickens, Douglas Jerrold, Tom Hood, Sir E. B. Lytton, Charles Reade, Wilkie Collins, and Chas. Brockden Brown. Under each portrait is a fac-simile of the hand-writing of the distinguished writer it represents. This magnificent engraving, worth at the least twice a year's subscription to "THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES," will be presented without extra charge to every subscriber to the paper.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The low price charged for their Journal will prevent the Publishers from allowing its being cut up by News-dealers, and they hereby inform all desirous of reading "THE MIRROR," that it is absolutely impossible to procure it by any other way than by direct subscription to the Publishers. To give more room for the insertion of interesting reading matter, the Publishers of "THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES" desire thus publicly to decline inserting any advertisement whatever. It is also impossible for us to send FREE Copies of our paper to those desiring them. All applications for such should contain stamps for an amount sufficient to defray all expense of value or postage.

Terms of "THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES:"

One copy 1 year	$2.00
One copy 6 months	1.25
Two copies 1 year	3.75
Four copies 1 year	6.00
Ten copies 1 year	15.00

The estimated number of Envelopes that will be required is as follows:

Class 1.—700,000 Envelopes for Circulars, 5½ by 3 inches.
Class 2.—1,500,000 Envelopes, 5¾ by 3½ inches.
Class 3.— 600,000 " 6⅝ by 3½ "
Class 4.— 400,000 " 9 by 4 "
Class 5.— 200,000 " 10½ by 4½ "
Class 6.— 200,000 " 9 by 4½ "

As ordinary quality of buff paper will answer for the Envelopes of Class 1. Those of Class 6 are to be made of Manilla paper, of firm and even texture, and the others of buff or cream-colored paper, of approved quality.

All the Envelopes must be made in the most thorough manner, well gummed for sealing upon the entire length of the lap of each Envelope, and must have each printing upon the face as may be directed by the Postmaster General. They must be handed in parcels of twenty-five, packed in pasteboard boxes, each to contain 250 Envelopes, the boxes to be wrapped in strong paper, so as to bear transportation through the mails. When a quantity not less than 5,000 Envelopes is required to fill the order of a Postmaster, they must be put up in strong wooden boxes, and, in either case, proper labels of direction must be placed upon the boxes by the contractor as directed by an agent of this Department.

The Envelopes must be furnished in such quantities as may from time to time be required to fill the orders of Postmasters, and be delivered, either at the New York Post Office, or at the Stamp and Envelope Agency in New York, as the Postmaster General may direct, free of cost for packing and transportation.

Bids are also invited for furnishing 4,000,000 Envelopes, more or less, to be used in covering dead letters returned to writers, to be thoroughly made of a good quality of Manilla paper, well gummed, 3 3-10 by 5½ inches. The envelopes must have such printing upon them as may be directed by the Postmaster General. Also, 100,000 Envelopes, more or less, to be thoroughly made of the best quality of white or buff paper, to be 4 by 8 9-10 inches in size, and to have the words "Post Office Department," "Official Business," and "Postmaster," printed on them in the manner prescribed by this Department.

These Envelopes must be delivered at the Post Office Department in Washington, D. C., in good order, ready for use, free of cost for packing and transportation, and at the rate of about 35,000 per week. The first delivery of the Envelopes specified above to be made as early in July as practicable.

Specimens of the different kinds of Envelopes, for which proposals are invited, may be seen by applying to the Postmasters of the following offices, viz: New York, N. Y.; Boston, Mass.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Baltimore, Md.; or they may be obtained direct from this Department.

Bidders will be expected to furnish specimens of the Envelopes they propose to supply, and no bid will be considered unless offered by Manufacturers of Envelopes, accompanied by satisfactory guarantees.

The price bid, along with a sample of envelopes submitted, will both be taken into consideration in awarding the contract.

Bond and security will be required for the faithful performance of the contract, and all payments under it will be made quarterly.

The bids should be endorsed "Proposals for Office and Returned Letter Envelopes," and addressed to the Third Assistant Postmaster General.

W. DENNISON,
Postmaster General.
