Help for Poor Children—Children's Aid Society.—What right-feeling man is not eager to help poor, unbefriended children, and especially children who are trying to help themselves? The Children's Aid Society, as is well known, are seeking by many ways to clothe, shelter, and instruct the poor little wanderers of our streets, and especially to give them good homes far away. They are certain that they accomplish this in the most economical way, their whole expenses amounting only to $12,210 for the past year. With this small sum they have given employment and homes to about eight hundred poor and vagrant children, they have supported the News Boys' Lodging House, with its 4,000 different homeless boys, sustained the School for Italian organ-grinders, with its 120 scholars, the Boys' Meeting and Industrial School in Hamersley-st., and have employed in the poor quarters of the city. Visitors, for befriending and finding out destitute and homeless children, and for filling up the Industrial Schools.

It is well known that this Society depends almost entirely on individual contributions, a large portion of which are unsolicited. It becomes necessary, therefore, every season, to remind their friends and the public of their wants. The Trustees are the more impelled to this now, as, with the increasing call for the children from the West, and the increasing numbers of houseless boys at the Lodging-House, they find they have not the means for doing their work as thoroughly as it should be done. The Lodging-House has only room for 70 beds, and sometimes, in a stormy night, from 15 to 20 street boys more than can be accommodated must lie in their dripping clothes on the benches of the school-room. We need, too, better bathing arrangements, and more room for instruction and means of attraction to this industrious but hard-pressed class of lads. Our number of Visitors, too, ought to be increased, for upon their efforts depends the finding out and relieving of the miserable children of the poor Wards of the city. We wish to employ, also, more Western agents, to look after the children already placed, and to place others in good homes.

Surely, there are thousands of warm hearted men and women in this city, and every part of the country, who would gladly double or treble the amount of this work for outcast children by their contributions.

Each giver must remember that his donation goes directly to the charitable purposes of the Society.

A portion of the moneys sent will be appropriated, as may be designated, to the new Lodging-House for these boys, and a portion to the work of finding street children and placing them in country homes.

The Trustees have never before asked the public for especial contributions without meeting a liberal response, and they do not fear to be disappointed now.

Donations can be sent to the President, J. L. Mason, No. 111 Broadway, or to the Treasurer, J. E. Williams, Metropolitan Bank, or to the Secretary, C. L. Brace, No. 11 Clinton Hall, Astor-place, New-York.

This article is the Fifth of the Occasional Series of Sketches of
REAL LIFE IN NEW-YORK,
Written by Mr. BUTLER for THE INDEPENDENT, and secured by copyright.
A SERMON
BY
HENRY WARD BEECHER.
In addition to the above, the paper will contain an authentic account, derived from original sources, giving many interesting particulars, not yet made public through any other journal, concerning
STEVENS and HAZLETT.
Hazlett's real name (which was not Hazlett) is here given, together with a popular circumstance connected with his age; also, a sketch of the personal history of Stevens, in which it appears that his great-grandfather sent a present of $20 Sterling to Gen. Washington, at Valley Forge, and thus set to his family forever after, the bad example of encouraging sedition and revolution.
Interesting particulars of the "Visit of Mrs. Pierce and Miss Jenny Dunbar to the Jail;" the former being a sister to Stevens, and the latter his most attached friend.
Details of the conversation of Stevens in his cell, including his singing with his sister, his views of Slavery, his opinion of Capt. Avis, etc.
Miss Dunbar's visit to the Executive of Virginia to ask for the sparing of the prisoner's life; with her opinion of Gov. Letcher.
The last breakfast in prison, at which the two prisoners and their visitors were present.
The burial of the bodies, etc., etc.
Terms, by mail, Two Dollars a year. By Carrier, Two Dollars and a Half.

THE BLACK DIAMOND vs. HELPER'S IMPENDING CRISIS.
Subscribed to by Democratic members of Congress as A DEFENSE OF THE INSTITUTION AND SYSTEM OF NEGRO SLAVERY IN THE SOUTH.
"A little mine full of promised diamonds."—[New-York News.
SUBCRIPTIONS BY THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN CONGRESS.
The author does not pretend that his book has been adopted by the Democratic party in any other than a literary sense. The following subscriptions, however, made by leading members of Congress for a portion of the matter in the book formerly published in pamphlet form, are sufficient to inspire confidence on the part of conservative people in the author's aims, and, it is hoped, may induce a large Southern patronage of the book.
CIRCULAR.
The writer has printed, at his own expense, a small collection of letters in defense of the institution and system of negro Slavery in the South. He submits a copy. He hopes that members of Congress, friendly to him or his subject, will assist by subscribing for copies. E. A. POLLARD.
