TERMS:

[illegible]

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 19, 1857.

[illegible] COUNTERS.—Marst. John [illegible] Guards, a widely-known [illegible] Company A. Na- [illegible] of the Odd Fellows' [illegible] in paying the last and [illegible]

BALL AT THE FIRE MEN'S HALL TO-NIGHT.—The [illegible] and comfortable hall of the [illegible] "Tucker Dorch," takes place [illegible] To-night. We have reason to [illegible] it will be a crowded and brilliant affair. [illegible] what would sport an elegant fancy costume, [illegible] and dance on the occasion, will not forget, that [illegible] Green, of No. 112 Canal street, will be there [illegible] her warehouse, to display their, according to their funds for the gay holiday. Her rates are very moderate.

[illegible]

GOODS TAKEN AWAY.—Messrs. P. & E. Reilly & Co., No. 126 Canal street, are closing out their stock of dry goods at prices below cost, that they may almost be said to be throwing them away. The stock is very large and very attractive, and the losses will lose nothing by going and inspecting and pricing, while they may make a great deal. We refer them to the advertisement in another column.

FISK'S COTTON SEED OIL.—This article is much superior to lard and sperm oil, for burning in lamps in cold weather. Mr. Fisk manufactures a very superior article, which he guarantees, and sells at the factory, No. 74 So. 4 Layou street. See the advertisement.

PARISIAN GLOVES.—Mr. E. Preideaux, at No. 58 Chartres street, has received a large lot of the finest gloves, which he offers to gentlemen at ninety cents, and to ladies at six bits the pair. See advertisement.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Mr. John Blaffer, No. 22 Chartres street, has just received and opened a very large assortment of toys for children, and fancy goods for grown people—[illegible] and parlor ornaments, and the like—which he offers at very cheap prices. There is not an article in the display which is not suited for a holiday present to somebody, big or little. People shopping along Chartres street, should not fail to give the stock a particular inspection. See Mr. B.'s advertisement.

TRAPPINGS FOR THE FANCY BALLS.—Mrs. Lussan, No. 102 Royal street, has received from France an assortment of masks, domiuos and fancy costumes, suited to all the tastes that revel at the fancy balls. Many of them are as rich and beautiful as fanciful, and those who would sport an elegant disguise, should go and take their pick in time. We refer to Mrs. Lussan's card to another column.

☞ The attention of the ladies is called to the sale of L. A. Levy, Jr., at 185 Camp street, at 10 o'clock this morning. A large lot of silk trimmings and head dresses will be included in the sale. See advertisement.

TOW-BOAT PERSIAN AT AUCTION.—Sheriff Parker will sell to-day, at 12 o'clock M., at the City Hotel, Common street, the tow-boat Persian, with her furniture, tackle, apparel, machinery, etc. See advertisement to another column.

☞ Palfrey & Co. will hold to-day, at the Arcade Hotel, their regular weekly sale of stocks, bonds and insurance scrips; also three powerful Canal street Church Catalogues may be obtained at their office, No. 57 Gravier street. See advertisement.

GROS DU RHIN, COLORED SILKS, FLANNELS, ETC. The attention of buyers is called to the auction sale of a large assortment of seasonable fancy and domestic dry goods, this day at 1 o'clock, by Vincent & Co., at No. 26 Customhouse street. See advertisement.

☞ Attention is directed to the sale this day by W. C. Jones, 78 Camp street, of church, sugar, rice, cigars, [illegible] whiskey, etc.

SENATOR DOUGLAS REPUDIATED.

On Tuesday morning last we presented our readers with an extract from the Mobile Register, the principal organ of the dominant party in Alabama, repudiating Senator Douglas for the ground he had seen fit to take in opposition to the admission of Kansas under the provisions of the Lecompton Constitution. We also commented upon the extract in such manner as we deemed appropriate.

The Register of the 16th the same subject is again taken up, and discussed with much vigor and emphasis. We append the article of our contemporary entire:

SENATOR DOUGLAS ON THE KANSAS ISSUE.—In our columns this morning will be found a report of the remarks of Mr. Douglas in the Senate on Wednesday last, on the Kansas issue. It will be seen, not without a good deal of astonishment, that this gentleman, with more exultation than ingenuousness, restores the observation that President Buchanan, in his message, has not approved or endorsed the action of the late Kansas Convention, nor has recommended the admission of Kansas with the constitution which it adopted. This is evidently a forced and absurd construction of the language of the message, and, we are sorry to say, is a quibble more ingenious than worthy of a dignified Senator and a great man. It is suggested evidently for the purpose of weakening the influence and effect of the position which the President has taken in support of the Kansas Constitution. But the honorable Senator will fail to fix this interpretation upon the message in the common-sense judgment of the country. It is perfectly clear that the President does endorse and sustain the action of the Convention. Such is the irresistible inference from his remarks in the portion of his message relating to this topic. He indicates, it is true, that he had expected that the whole constitution would be submitted, and that he would have preferred that that course had been pursued; but he contends, at the same time, that in the course which the Convention thought proper to adopt, it has complied with every requisite to the admission of the Territory into the Union.

If this is not endorsing it, we cannot see what else it means. Although Mr. Buchanan has not, in so many words, recommended the acceptance by Congress of the constitution adopted by the convention, this is clearly and inevitably deducible from the whole tenor of his remarks and arguments, in which he maintains that the action of the convention has been in conformity to, and has fulfilled every requirement of the organic law, thus entitling the Territory to admission upon its application. Such is the clear meaning of the message, as it is and will continue to be understood and interpreted by the common sense of the country, free from all quibbling and pettifogging distinctions and refinements.

As to the course which Mr. Douglas has elected to pursue on this distracting issue, it is now clear that our worst apprehensions are realized, and that this once doubted and idolized champion and leader of the Democracy has taken the fatal step which makes him no longer one of us. He stands now side by side with the Rewards, the Hales, the Bentons and the Greelays. He cannot stand within them and still be of the Democracy. It is impossible.

The Southern people in future, it is to be hoped, will not "strain at the gnat and swallow the camel," as they have frequently done heretofore. They must do more, if they would render themselves and their section safe. They must get rid of the influence of a party name, and set up for themselves, think for themselves and act for themselves. For years and years they have been growing weaker in the proportion that their Northern enemies grew stronger, and still have clung, with unflitering devotion, to the fatally delusive influences of a name. They must banish this sentiment, repudiate it in all its aspects and bearings, or else prepare for degrading and ruinous submission to whatever tyrannies the infernal spirit of Abolition fanaticism may see proper to inflict. No other alternative is left.

We are not surprised at the course of Senator Douglas. He is an ambitious politician, and wants to be President. He would not scruple to sell the South or the North if he could thereby achieve his object. He now thinks it safest and most profitable to sell the South to the North, instead of the North to the South, and he will sell if he can. Mark the prediction!

The Great Northern Railroad.

We referred, day before yesterday, observes the Vicksburg Southron of the 12th inst., to the determination of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad Company, to continue that great work north of Canton as speedily as possible. Here is the official record of the action of the directory:

Whereas, It is the purpose of this Board to prosecute as vigorously as their means will permit, the construction of that portion of the road lying North of the town of Canton in the direction of Kosciusko, therefore be it

Resolved, That so soon as the road South of Jackson shall be completed, the grading shall be commenced North of Canton.

We understand, continues our cotemporary, that the above resolution received the unanimous approval of the Board of Directors, notwithstanding certain influential parties urged a different course.

Speaking of this action of the Board the Jackson Mississippian says:

This action of the Board shows that it is the intention of the company to carry out in good faith their obligations to the State of Mississippi and comply with the terms of the donations which have been made to the road by her Legislature. It puts a quietus to the proposition which has been mooted to terminate the work at Canton. We learn that the entire road will be in running order and ready for use between Jackson and New Orleans by the first of April. The work will therefore be "vigorously prosecuted" South of Canton.

Our Mississippi friends need be under no apprehensions, we are assured, that the managers of the Great Northern Road will not carry out in good faith all the obligations they have assumed. Their duty, as well as their interest and the interest of those they represent, prompt an honest fulfilment of pledges, and we have no doubt all those made will be redeemed at the earliest practicable moment. Great works of internal improvement, like the Jackson Road, require time—are not to be completed in a day, week, month or year—consequently those more immediately interested than others should exercise a proper degree of patience and wait coolly until the steam wagon comes along. It should also be borne in mind that railroads, like all other enterprises and businesses, have suffered from the pressure of the times.

When the Great Northern Road is completed to Jackson—we may as well say Canton, twenty-four miles beyond, as the road from Jackson to Canton is in running order—it will do a tremendous business, and the section finished will be one of the best paying sections in the United States. Of this we have no doubt, and never have entertained any doubt. It will, besides, be of great service to New Orleans, of much benefit and convenience to the people residing along and adjacent to the line, and will tend to develop, in a remarkable manner, rich, valuable and interesting portions of country. Success, full and ample, to the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad, say we.

FRANKO'S TOMBOLA.—Let no one fail to take one or more chances in the magnificent tombola of Mr. H. Franko, No. 9 Poydras street, near Carondelet—chances, only one dollar each. Prizes, a $2,000 house and lot, a $400 watch and chain for a lady, the celebrated singing bird—worth $600—and a whole Alladdin's cave of the richest and most dazzling jewelry and fancy goods. Go and look at the goods, and you will be sure to take a chance, or several.

MARRIED:

On Thursday, the 17th inst., by the Rev. Father Moyeshan, Miss MARY MAHALA ESSKEW, of Jefferson City, to Mr. L. JOLISSAINT, of this city.

☞ West Baton Rouge Sugar Planter please copy.

DIED:

On Friday, the 18th inst., JOHN CONNELL, aged 43 years, a native of New Brunswick, N. J., and for many years a resident of this city.

His funeral will take place from his late residence, No. 78 St. Peter street, between Lafayette and Gironde streets, this afternoon, at 3½ o'clock.

I. O. O. F.—The officers and members of Commercial Lodge No. 12, and the Order generally, are respectfully requested to meet at their Lodge Hall, Camp street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, punctually, for the purpose of paying the last tribute of respect to our late Brother, John Connell.

☞ Facts cannot be questioned when the people of any country bear testimony to none, as in the case of Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Not only have we the individual evidence of the land, but almost every paper in the Union is commenting upon the great benefit derived from the use of these celebrated Bitters; besides various diplomas awarded them, among which is one from the Ohio Mechanics' Institute, at their thirteenth annual exhibition at Cincinnati, where the committee was composed chiefly of physicians in the city. These are weighty facts that cannot help but convince the most credulous that it is at least worthy of trial. For Dyspepsia in any form these Bitters are a certain cure when used as per directions on the bottle. For sale by all druggists and dealers generally. d14 2p6dtW

☞ During hot weather, when the system is enervated and the dangers of epidemic diseases consisting their ravages, like the plague in London and the yellow fever in our own hemisphere, Woodman's Cherry Expectorant strengthens the whole body, and enables it to throw off successfully the first appearance of disease, and fortifies the lungs against every inroad. It is the only remedy for general weakness, pulmonary affections, and galloping consumption. d14 2p6d1tW

☞ Sewell T. Taylor, No. 17 Royal street, is now ready to fill orders for the coming Holidays. The Store is stocked with choice Brandies, Wines, Cordials, etc. See advertisement. d11 2p1m

Hear the Testimony —OF THE—
HON. THOMAS C. PORTER,
Ex-Collector of Customs.

NEW ORLEANS, December 16, 1857.
Messrs. SIMMONS & Co.—Gentlemen: It affords me pleasure to inform you that the Spectacles purchased about one year since, have fully proved all that is said concerning their advantages. When I bought them my eyes were very weak and sore, but I am now happy to inform you that, by the use of your IMPROVED BRAZILIAN PEBBLE SPECTACLES, they are fully recovered, and I am now able to read or write with ease and comfort, both by day or candle-light, without any of those unpleasant feelings caused by the use of other glasses. I can, therefore, cheerfully recommend them to my friends and the public. Yours, respectfully,
THOMAS C. PORTER.

☞ The above celebrated SPECTACLES can be obtained at Messrs. D. KERNAGHAN & CO.'S, 65 Canal street, who are the only authorized agents for this State, and from them only can the genuine Brazilian Pebble Spectacles be purchased, who would advise the public against unprincipled dealers, who try to palm off their worthless wares, representing them to be of Messrs. S. & Co.'s manufacture.

Mr. SIMMONS can now be consulted from 8 A. M. until 5 P. M. d1
