[illegible] MORNING, DECEMBER 24, 1857.

[illegible] of advertisements is very great [illegible] the morning—so great, indeed, [illegible] to throw ourselves upon the [illegible] for the time being. But, [illegible] make amends for the shortness [illegible] to-morrow's Double-Sheet Crescent. We now publish three mammoth double-sheets each week, but if our business continues to increase as it has of late, nothing less than a double-sheet every day will enable us to do justice to our readers and advertisers. Well, we don't care. We'll publish a sheet if it becomes necessary. The [illegible] of our establishment are equal to any emergency and equally wise.

CHRISTMAS AND CHRISTMAS PUZZLE.—As to-morrow is Christmas, we shall publish two poems suitable to the occasion, and both wholly and absolutely [illegible] which will render that [illegible] interesting and secure [illegible] The first will be Milton's Hymn on the Nativity of our Saviour, universally acknowledged to be the most sweet production that ever emanated from the human mind. It is a great, glorious, grand and sublime strain, and will train with emotions [illegible] and sublimity in language. The "Kriss Kringle—Postscript," by "Thist Bricks," will be a great, and needs neither eulogy nor comment.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—This institution is now open to the public, and will receive subscriptions daily at five dollars per annum. Apply at the Library, corner of Canal street and Exchange Alley, at any time during the day, from half-past 7 A. M. to 10 P. M.

COPARTNERSHIP CHANGES.—Mr. Geo. W. Squires, of the firm of Cammack, Squires & West, having sold his interest to the other partners, the latter are to continue the business of the house under the name and style of Cammack & West. Mr. Squires goes into the sugar-brokerage business, alone and for his own account.

The firm of McDowell, Mills & Co. is dissolved by mutual consent, and the business is hereafter to be continued by Messrs. Robert, William and David G. Mills, under the name and style of Robert Mills & Co.

The firm of Watt, Noble & Mobley is dissolved by mutual consent, and hereafter the business of the house is to be conducted by Messrs. James M. Watt and E. P. Noble, under the name and style of Watt & Noble.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.—The report of the Board of Directors "to the Stockholders of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company" appears elsewhere. We it the attention of our readers is directed. It is calculated to dispel doubts that existed in the minds of many regarding the progress and prospects of this great enterprise, and gives assurance of ultimate success—that is, that the charter will be saved. Hereafter we shall probably have something more to say concerning this report, and the mighty work of internal improvement to which it refers.

NOTICE TO PARENTS.—To-morrow is Christmas, and in the morning your children will want to walk around and look at the shops and shop-windows, and wind up the walk with a visit to the Amphitheater, where the Great Circus Company are to do up "Jack the Giant Killer," and a host of other delightful things. So it would be a good idea to wash the children over night, and have their clothes ready early in the morning.

PRESENTATION BOOKS AT WHITE'S.—To-morrow will be Christmas; consequently, to-day only is left to those who intend making presents to go around and select them. If it be anything in the literary line that any reader of this may think of getting, we would advise him not to omit T. L. White's, No. 105 Canal street, in his rounds. That establishment fairly glitters with one of the largest and best assorted stocks of annuals and illustrated books for holiday gifts ever brought to this city. Many of them are the gems of literature, done up in gems of the printer's, engraver's and binder's joint arts. The list is a large one, and we could not begin to enumerate even a portion of it; but we advise all to go and look at the books for themselves. They will be politely waited upon, and charged reasonably for what they may choose to buy. See Mr. W.'s card.

RARE AND BEAUTIFUL HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Mr. F. F. Guion, the importer of European curious and fancy goods for ladies and gentlemen, is out with his Christmas display, at No. 20 St. Charles street—and it is really a display worth going a long way to see—a world's fair in miniature. Most of the articles are of the most magnificent description, such as pearl models of the great cathedrals; Bohemian glass toilet sets and enamelled all kinds of fancy boxes and cases for every thing; splendid jewelry of the latest styles; silver and plated ware; all kinds of optical instruments; parlor novelty stationery; mechanical toys; fans, gloves, opera glasses, portemonnaies, bonquet holders, card cases, port-folios, guns, pistols, prayer books, bibles, bridal presents, perfumery; and the choicest and most beautiful cutlery, fire-arms, and hunting and fishing implements generally—everything the first of its kind. This is merely a sketch of Mr. Guion's stock, and a very meager sketch at that. He has on hand several specialities, to which he calls particular attention, to-wit: His famous silver-steel razors, made to his own order, and warranted to have no superior; his genuine meerschaum pipes, made under his own supervision in Vienna; and a large stock of fine linen and cotton shirts, of the latest stylish patterns. Mr. Guion, in fact, wants to all his points; for what he has not had made specially to his order, he has selected personally in the best manufactories in the different capitals of Europe; and he sells everything at the most reasonable price, for cash or city acceptance. We advise all who are on the look-out for beautiful and appropriate holiday gifts, no to miss seeing Mr. Guion's collection. For full particulars look over the advertisement in another column.

BIBLES AND PRAYER BOOKS.—A splendid assortment of these books, of all the different sizes and in every possible style of binding, is to be seen at Mr. Steel's, No. 60 Camp street. Some of them are really gorgeous, inside and out, and are particularly appropriate for holiday gifts. See the advertisement.

PRESENTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Rich and valuable presents may be found at Franklin Roberts', No. 20 Camp street, under the City Hotel. Those wanting presents for the holidays can not serve their own interest better than to call and carefully examine the extensive and varied stock now opening by Mr. Roberts. It comprises a valuable and almost endless variety of watches, bracelets, guard chains, breastpins, rings, jewelry, also, silver and plated ware of every description and at moderate prices.

This branch of Mr. Roberts' establishment is presided over by Mr. O. B. Jennings, late of New York, then whom a more prudent, capable, experienced and courtly gentleman can hardly be found.

Mr. Roberts' stock of fancy goods will also compare favorably with any other in the city. Silver card cases, porte-monnaies, fancy work-boxes, and, indeed, articles both useful and ornamental, to suit the tastes of all, may be obtained in endless profusion at this well-known and popular establishment.

FRENCH AND GERMAN MIRRORS.—Mr. Laurent Hite, No. 67 Chartres street—who is the only glass maker in New Orleans—has at present in store a magnificent stock of French plate glasses, for show windows, with mirrors, in frames of different styles, and a splendid assortment of lithographic and engraved picture-frames, oil paintings, etc. Mr. H. is in constant communion with Paris, and promptly executes all orders entrusted to him. The fact that he offers every thing at a reduction of 20 per cent upon the ordinary prices, should make him popular with all who want any thing in his line. Read his advertisement.

☞ W. C. Jewett, 73 Camp street, sells to-day at half-past 10 o'clock, molasses, whisky, tobacco, cigars and candles.

☞ It is astonishing with what eagerness frail humanity clings to life; and it is no less remarkable the numerous remedies prescribed for its prolongation. In Pulmonary affections and Consumption the names of would-be remedies are legion; yet, amongst the vast list there is but one remedy that may be at all times and in every stage of the disease—from the early cold and slight cough to, I may say, the very passage to the narrow house—implicitly relied on, and that is WOODMAN'S CHERRY EXPECTORANT. It cures, without fail, every disease of the Lungs and Digestive organs. d21 6t&1tW

To the Stockholders of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

The Board of Directors have been investigating all the affairs of the Company, with a view to making a report. After the organization of the Company at this place, in April last, grave unsettled claims existed against the Company, and the Executive Committee in New York, who knew more of those claims than the Directory here, were entrusted with the duty of settling them. Reports of frauds in these settlements, and of the transfer of large blocks of stock, and charges that the Executive Committee in New York were issuing stock in large quantities at one dollar a share on which four dollars a share was represented to have been paid, were widely circulated, greatly to the injury of the operations and prospects of the company. In order to satisfy the stockholders and quiet the charges were serious, the Executive Committee demanded an investigation of those rumors, which, after a full investigation of a committee, there was an unanimous report of opinion that no frauds had been consummated, and that no stock had been sold and issued either by the Executive Committee in New York or the company at New Orleans contrary to policy and they report was concurred in by the Board of Directors. It is yet deemed necessary at this time to present a full and detailed account of everything connected with the transactions of the company. All these particulars will be laid before the stockholders in the yearly report which will be submitted to them in due time. The company is now believed to be in a better condition than at any time since its organization in New Orleans in April last.

It will be sufficient to advert to the present actual position of the company and its immediate prospects with reference to the amount of money at the credit of "Capital Stock" for stock issued as per statement of the President, April, 1857. The amount then represented was $2,474,750 50

To this may justly be added interest paid in stock on the above amount 88,845 18

Add stock issued in New Orleans 322,783 36

Making in all a total issue of stock as of that date to the amount of $2,936,918 04

But an agreement has been made by which a part of the assets on hand have been sold, to be paid for in the capital stock of the company, and which, when carried out, will reduce the outstanding stock to 2,566,834 96

In addition to which there is an amount of $200,000, which the Board of Directors believe will be cancelled 200,000 00

Thus it leaves the total amount of stock issued $2,366,834 96

Making an actual reduction in stock issued to the amount of 476,083 08

The company have purchased large peoli'ns mines, which will, the Board believe, insure the construction of twenty miles of the road by the 15th of February next. About twelve miles are completed, leaving only eight more to be finished; and as the eight miles are graded, and all the iron is upon the ground, two locomotives, construction cars, chairs, spikes, and everything necessary to complete that distance, the Board have every confidence that the requirements of the charter will be complied with. Five miles in addition to the twenty above mentioned are already graded, and all the iron and other material necessary to lay the track is on the spot. As soon as these additional five miles are completed the company will receive 256,000 acres of land from the State of Texas. The land has already been surveyed, and is reported to be of a superior quality. Messrs. J. T. Grant & Co. are under contract to grade seventy miles of road, and provision has been made for the prosecution of that work to completion. In October last, when the commercial crisis swept over the land, creating embarrassment and failures of some of the strongest houses in all parts of the Union, the company found it impossible to raise means either to pay their existing liabilities or prosecute their work. With a view to saving the charter of the company, and to induce parties to loan money to prosecute the work, at least to the extent of twenty miles, a deed of trust was executed by order of the Directors. The execution of this deed of trust had the effect of inducing parties to come forward and furnish means, whereby the work was uninterrupted in its progress, and the charter preserved. Arrangements have been made by which all the debts embraced in the deed of trust are provided for, and by which the deed of trust will be cancelled.

The Executive Committee of New York having requested that said committee should be abolished, the request has been acceded to, and in future all contracts and engagements must be made here, subject to the action of the Board of Directors.

The transfer office is re-opened in New York, and D. M. Sinclair is appointed Assistant Secretary, and authorized to sign certificates with Edwin Peet, the Vice-President of the company. Stock may be transferred on the books of the company either at the transfer office in New York, or at the office in New Orleans, and new certificates obtained for old ones surrendered. Interim certificates may in all cases be issued at either office, but no holder of certificates of stock can receive his interest without the presentation of the certificates of stock on which said interest has accrued. A full system has also been adopted by the company, by which it is believed its bonds, secured upon its lands and property, will take the highest rank among good securities, either at home or abroad, so as to enable the company to progress without selling more stock than was ordered to be sold last spring. About $250,000 of that amount still remains unsold, and it is not contemplated to issue any other stock.

In conclusion it is proper to state that an instalment of fifty cents a share will fall due on the first Monday of January next on all stock on which $5 50 a share has been paid.

All stock on which instalments are not paid will be liable to sale under the 5th section of the charter, a copy of which is annexed.

Sec. 5. The shares may be disposed of, and books opened for subscriptions thereto in such manner and on such terms as said commissioners shall determine; will lie for the benefit of said company, and any agreement in writing, by which any person shall become a subscriber to the capital stock of said company, may be enforced against him according to its terms; and if any subscriber shall fail to pay any amount due upon shares subscribed by him, according to the terms of his subscription, the directors may call at auction and transfer to the purchaser the shares of such delinquent; and if the proceeds of sale shall not be sufficient to pay the amount due on said subscription, with interest and charges such delinquent shall be held liable to the company for the deficiency; and if the proceeds shall exceed the amount so due, with interest and charges, said delinquent shall be entitled to the surplus.

Instalments may be paid either at the office in New Orleans or at the Transfer office in New York, at the pleasure of the holder of scrip stock.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The report was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The election of Directors is postponed to the first Tuesday in May next, and will then take place at the Company's office in this city.

By order of the Board.

GEO. S. YERGER, President.

GEO. C. LAWRASON, Secretary.

☞ Fraud.—We call attention to the fact of numerous unprincipled efforts that are daily making in our city by vendors of a bitter mixture, using the persuasive argument (in order to effect sales) to dealers in Hostetter's bottles, to purchase from them and sell it in Hostetter's bottles. We hope that such impostures will be held up to public contempt by all respectable persons who sell or use the genuine article. Not only have we the individual evidence of the country, but almost every paper in the Union is commenting upon the superior excellence of, and the great benefits derived from, the use of this celebrated tonic; besides various diplomas awarded, among which is one from the Ohio Mechanics' Institute, at Cincinnati, where the committee—composed chiefly of physicians of the city—awarded Hostetter, Smith & Co., a diploma for the superior virtues of their Bitters, as a tonic and strengthener of the human system. We, therefore, caution all against impositions, and to purchase of none but respectable dealers, whom they know would not deceive them. d21 2p6t&1tW
