FORECLOSURE SALE OF THE LANDS, PROPERTIES and FRANCHISES of the MINNESOTA and PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.

Whereas, the Minnesota and Pacific Railroad Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota, did, on the 31st of July, A. D. 1858, at the City of New-York and State of New-York, execute under its corporate seal, and deliver to Elon Farnsworth, Edward P. Cowles and William H. Welch, in trust for the holders of the first mortgage bonds to be issued by the said Company, a certain indenture and trust deed, whereby the said Minnesota and Pacific Railroad Company granted, transferred, conveyed and assigned unto said Elon Farnsworth, Edward P. Cowles and William H. Welch, as joint tenants, and not as tenants and common, and to their survivors and successors in the trust therein expressed, the entire Railroad of said Company from Stillwater, in the State of Minnesota, via St. Paul, and St. Anthony, via Minneapolis to the town of Breckenridge on the Sioux Wood River, with a branch from St. Anthony via Anoka and St. Cloud and Crow Wing to St. Vincent, near the mouth of the Pembina River, also all the railways, rails, bridges, fences, ties, spikes, culverts, right of way, station-houses, and other buildings, and such lands as are selected or actually in use for depot or station grounds, then held or owned, or which might thereafter be held or owned by said Company for the purpose of constructing, operating and maintaining its said Railroad, or the accommodations of the business thereof, and all the tolls, incomes, rents, issues, profits, and alienable franchises of said Company connected with said Railroad, or relating thereto, all locomotives and stationary engines, tenders, and cars of every kind, machinery, machine shops, tools, implements, and materials connected with or intended for the construction, equipment, operating and conducting of said Railroad and branch then owned or thereafter to be acquired by said Company, all of which were in said deed declared to be appurtenances and fixtures of said road, for the purpose of securing the payment of the first mortgage bonds of said Company from time to time to be issued to the aggregate amount of twenty-three millions of dollars, but not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars for each mile of road; said first mortgage bonds to be payable to the holders thereof on the first day of August, A. D. 1888, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable in the city of New-York, semi-annually, on the first days of February and August in each year; and whereas, six hundred of said first mortgage bonds, in denominations of one thousand dollars each, were delivered to and are held by the State of Minnesota as security for the payment of the principal and interest of an equal amount of the bonds of the State of Minnesota issued and delivered to said Company, payable at the same time, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of December and June in each and every year;

And whereas, the said Minnesota and Pacific Railroad Company, on the twenty-seventh day of November, A. D. 1858, executed under their corporate seal and delivered to said Elon Farnsworth, Edward P. Cowles, and William H. Welch, in trust for said mortgage bondholders, a supplement to said trust deed, wherein it was recited that whereas, a portion of the bonds of said company were to be delivered to the State of Minnesota, and whereas, the said trustees were authorized and empowered by said trust deed, in case of default in the payment of the principal or interest of said first mortgage bonds therein mentioned, to make sale of all or any of the property therein conveyed, in the manner therein specified; and whereas, in and by said supplement the said trustees, their survivors or successors, in the trust thereby created, were authorized and directed in case of a default in the payment of the interest or principal part of said first mortgage bonds upon the demand and request of the Governor of the State of Minnesota, as the agent of said State, to foreclose such trust deed and take possession of all and singular the premises conveyed and transferred by said trust deed, and upon such demand and request to sell such premises and property, or so much thereof as the said Governor might direct, pursuant to the terms and provisions of said trust deed, by giving public notice of such sale by advertisement in one daily newspaper printed and published in the City of New-York, and in one daily newspaper printed and published in the City of St. Paul, for six weeks successively, and in case of failure or refusal of said trustees, or the survivor or survivors of them, to comply with the demand and request of the said Governor to make such foreclosure and sale as aforesaid, then the Governor of said State was thereby authorised and empowered to make, or cause to be made, such foreclosure and sale as aforesaid, and in case of such foreclosure and sale by the Governor, he was thereby authorized and empowered for and in the name of the said Minnesota and Pacific Railroad Company, to make or cause to be made, good and sufficient deeds of conveyance or other necessary instruments of transfer of the roads, lands, franchises, and other property of said Company; and whereas, the interest on the said bonds of said State issued to said Companies became payable on the first day of December, A. D. 1859, and the said Company having made default in the payment thereof, the Governor of said State did on the fifth of December aforesaid, as required by law, demand and request each of said trustees, in writing, to foreclose said trust deed and to sell the property and franchises therein conveyed, pursuant to the terms of said trust deed; and whereas, said Minnesota and Pacific Railroad Company have made default in the payment of the interest accruing upon such first mortgage bonds held by said State, and becoming payable on the first day of August, A. D. 1859, and whereas, the sum of twenty one thousand dollars is still due to said State and unpaid thereon, and whereas, said trustees have utterly neglected and still do neglect, to proceed to the foreclosure of said trust deed and the sale of the property and franchises therein conveyed;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the power vested in me, in and by said trust deed and the supplement thereto, and by virtue of the power conferred upon me by law, I, as Governor and Agent of the State of Minnesota, will sell, or cause to be sold, at PUBLIC AUCTION, at the Capitol, in the city of St. Paul, in the State of Minnesota, on the 23d day of June next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, all the properties, rights, privileges and franchises hereinbefore enumerated, and described and conveyed in and by said trust deed.

Dated at the Executive Office in St. Paul, the 24th day of April, A. D. 1860. ALEX. RAMSEY, Governor.
