PATRIOTS, AROUSE! SAVE THE UNION! The coming Fourth of July will dawn upon one of the bitterest sectional strifes that ever cursed a country, if the American people do not resolutely spurn all political excitement and return to that true and noble patriotism which cannot fail to be revived by ARTHUR M. GRAINGER'S great National Romance of "GOLDEN FEATHER, Or, THE BUCCANEER OF KING'S BRIDGE." A warlike reminiscence of the Rivers and the Bay of New-York during the War of 1812-15. This superb story is commenced in THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY MERCURY for July 7 (now ready), and should be read by every American who takes pride in the glorious victories of his country in times past. LOVE and GLORY are its great topics, and the near approach of Our Nation's Birthday gives it a special interest for all classes of readers. A brilliant and patriotic story like this, of the days when North, South, East, and West stood shoulder to shoulder and faced the common enemy together, will have far more influence in soothing party strife, than either speeches or diplomacy. Read THE MERCURY and find out the rest. All the news dealers sell it.
