Office, No. 27 Camp street.

MONDAY, 1st day of February, at 12 o'clock M., at Banks' Arcade, New Orleans, will be sold at public auction—

THE ARDOYNE PLANTATION, on the Bayou Black, parish of Terrebonne, in the District of Thibodaux, bounded by the highest bidder, to effect a partition between the proprietors.

The property consists of over 2250 Acres of Land, inferior to none in Louisiana, bounded on the Bayou Black, and nearly all susceptible of cultivation, about 700 acres of which are in cultivation; upwards of 80 Slaves, all family negroes; over 50 Mules; a stock of Cattle and Hogs; Cotton Gin and Screw, and all the usual implements of husbandry, complete, and nearly all new; the Mechanics' Tools, with which the plantation is abundantly supplied; Corn and Hay, supposed to be sufficient for the ensuing season's consumption.

The Machinery in the Sugar-House is of the most valuable kind and works well. The quality of the sugar usually made is inferior to that made on the Bayou Black, and is generally made up of any other plantation in proportion to the number of hands. The growing crop is expected to be about 600 hhds.

The terms of sale are one-fourth cash, (the purchaser to assume the mortgage debt due to the Bank of Louisiana,) and the balance to be payable in equal annual instalments, divided into three payments, the entire purchase money, at one, two and three years from the date of sale, bearing interest at eight per cent. per annum from date until paid, and secured by mortgage and privileges on the property sold; possession to be given from the terms of sale shall have been complied with; but the use of the hands, teams, etc., will be reserved for the purpose of preparing for planting and removing the sugar, molasses and cane, the growing crop may still be on the plantation at the time of the sale.
