HOLMAN'S AGUE AND LIVER PAD

Is marvelous in its prompt and radical cure for every species of Liver and stomach difficulties. It contains only harmless vegetable compounds, and is worn EXACTLY WHERE NEEDED, over the vitals, the Liver and Stomach. It removes torpidity of the Liver, and arouses the Stomach from its dormant state, arresting fermentation, torpor and pain, by giving it the natural quantity of bile and gastric juice. It also vitalizes the entire system with nature's true tonic. It arrests all deteriorated and poisonous fluids in the stomach, and thus prevents their entering the system by way of circulation. It absorbs from the body every particle of BLOOD POISON, whether bilious, malarial, or medicinal, and leaves the wearer in perfect health. Sent by mail, free of charge, on receipt of $2. Address HOLMAN LIVER PAD COMPANY, No. 68 Maiden Lane, P. O. Box 2112, New York, or 246 W. Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio. All live druggists keep them.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

Is the safest and the best, is instantaneous in its action, and it produces the most natural shades of black or brown, does not stain the skin, and is easily applied. It is a standard preparation, and a favorite upon every well-appointed toilet for lady or gentleman. For sale by all druggists and hairdressers. JOSEPH CHRISTADORO, Proprietor, P. O. CHANCERY SALE OF THE MAGNIFICENT MANSION AND GROUNDS AT THE SOUTH EAST CORNER OF WASHINGTON AND STODDART STREETS, GEORGETOWN, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, THE FORMER RESIDENCE OF GOVERNOR HENRY D. COOKE.

By virtue of a decree of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, passed on the 19th day of December, 1876, in a cause therein pending, wherein Edwin M. Lewis, trustee of Jay Cooke and Company, bankrupts, are complainants and Henry D. Cooke and others are defendants, the same being Equity Cause No. 4,629, and by virtue of a supplemental decree, dated the 10th day of May, 1877, passed in the same cause, I will sell as trustee, at public auction, in front of the premises, on SATURDAY, the 12th day of May, 1877, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, the real estate in Georgetown, District of Columbia, contained within the following metes and bounds:

Commencing on the southeast corner of Washington and Stoddart streets; running thence southerly along the east side of Washington street one hundred and three and nine-tenths feet; thence easterly at right angles to Washington street one hundred and twenty feet; thence northerly and parallel with Washington street one hundred and three and nine-tenths feet; thence easterly thirty feet; thence northerly and parallel with Washington street one hundred and ninety-two feet to the south line of Stoddart street westwardly one hundred and fifty feet to the place of beginning, together with the mansion, buildings and improvements thereon.

The mansion is a large Italian villa, with imposing bay-cupolas and oriels on a I sides, surmounted by a high belvedere or observatory. It contains about twenty-three rooms, all artistically frescoed, on the main floor are a library with richly carved book-cases, a music or ball-room, two parlors, a large dining-room, butler's pantry, and store room, all connected by a fine hall. The house contains all the modern improvements, including hot and cold water throughout, furnaces, gas and costly chandeliers.

The grounds are enclosed by an iron railing with granite base, and are ornamented by shade and fruit trees, a stone fountain and stone and gravel walks. There is a large press-brick stable on the premises, complete in all its appointments.

The cars on the Metropolitan railway run within one square of the property. The neighborhood is the best in Georgetown.

The person who has charge of the house will permit any one calling there to inspect it.

The terms of sale prescribed by the decree and supplementary order are: One-third of the purchase money in cash, the residue in three equal payments at one, two and three years from day of sale, the deferred payments to be secured by the notes of the purchaser, bearing six per cent. interest, with surety or sureties to be approved by the trustee; (or all cash at purchaser's option.) The trustee will reserve a lien on the property until the whole purchase money is paid.

A deposit of $500 will be required when the property is struck off.

All conveyancing at cost of the purchaser. R. B. WASHINGTON, Trustee, 416 Ninth street, Washington. THOMAS DOWLING, apl9-TStuTh&ds Auctioneer.

J. T. COLDWELL, Auctioneer, No. 916 F street northwest.
