VALUABLE PLANTATION AND SLAVES AT AUCTION.

BY PALFREY & CO., C. L. C. DEPUY, Auctioneer,
Office, No. 27 Camp street.

MONDAY, 1st day of February, at 12 o'clock M., at Banks' Arcade, New Orleans, will be sold at public auction—

The ARBOYNE PLANTATION, on the Bayou Black, parish of Terrebonne, La., with Steam Sugar Mill, in good order, to the highest bidder, without a partition between the proprietors.

The property consists of over 2250 Acres of Land, interior to none in the country, of which about 500 are in the most perfect state of cultivation, about 700 acres of which are in cultivation; upwards of 80 Slaves, all family negroes; over 50 Mules; a stock of Cattle and Horses; Steam Sugar Mill; Steam Gin; Gin House; Cabins; Tools, every which the plantation is abundantly supplied; Corn and Fodder, in abundance, supposed to be sufficient for the next season's consumption.

The Machinery in the Sugar-House is of the most valuable kind and works well. The quality of the sugar usually made is inferior to none made in the State, and the quantity equal to that of any other plantation in proportion to the number of hands. The property can be seen on application to about 200 hands.

J. J. HANNA will be on the plantation during the rolling season, and will take pleasure in showing it to any person desirous of examining it.

The terms of sale are one-fourth cash, (the purchaser to assume the mortgage debt due to the Bank of Louisiana,) and the balance to be payable in equal annual instalments, divided into coupons to suit the vendors, if required, at one, two and three years from the date of sale, bearing interest at eight per cent. per annum from date until paid, and secured by mortgage and privilege on the property sold; possession to be given on the terms of sale shall have been complied with; but the use of the lands, teams, etc., will be reserved for the purpose of preparing for market, and removing from the plantation, whenever the growing crop may still be on the plantation at the time of the sale.

A more particular description will be given before the day of sale.

For further particulars, apply to the auctioneers, or to
