New Publications.

A POLITICAL TEXT-BOOK FOR 1860,

1 Vol. Cloth.

Compiled by HORACE GREELEY and JOHN F. CLEVELAND, is now in press and will be issued on 1st August. It is intended to embody every important proposition, vote, document or passage, calculated to shed light on the pending Presidential struggle, and to be specially useful as a book of reference to all speakers, writers and others actively engaged in the canvass. Among its contents are the following:

A SKETCH OF ALL THE NATIONAL NOMINATING CONVENTIONS held in the United States since the first, in 1830, including the Party Platform adopted by each Convention.

A HISTORY OF THE STRUGGLE FOR SLAVERY EXTENSION OR RESTRICTION IN THE UNITED STATES from the Declaration of Independence to the Expulsion of Kansas from the Union in 1860, mainly from the Journals of Congress, and showing the vote by Yeas and Nays on the most important divisions of either House.

A HISTORY OF CONGRESSIONAL ACTION ON THE QUESTION OF GRANTING FREE HOMESTEADS TO ACTUAL SETTLERS ON THE PUBLIC LANDS, with the Yeas and Nays on all important questions.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.—Extracts from President Monroe's Message of 1823, in regard to the rights of Foreign Governments on this Continent.

POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY.—Mr. Douglas's Essay (originally published in Harper's Magazine) on the Dividing Line between Federal and Local Authority.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT.—Mr. Seward's Speech delivered at Rochester in 1858.

MUDSILLS.—Extract from Senator Hammond's Speech, in which he describes Northern Mechanics as the Mudsills of Society.

THE RESOLUTIONS recently passed by U. S. Senate on the powers and duties of Congress in regard to Slavery in the Territories.

A PROPOSED SEDITION LAW.—Extracts from Mr. Douglas's Speech in favor of a law to punish Seditious Publications.

POPULAR OR SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.—Extracts from Senator Benjamin's Speech against Squatter Sovereignty and in review of Mr. Douglas's theories on the subject of Slavery in the Territories—also Mr. Breckinridge's speech at Frankfort, Ky., on the powers and duties of Congress in regard to the Territories.

PRINCIPLES OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—Abraham Lincoln's Speech at Springfield, Ill., June 17, 1858, on receiving the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator.

"UNFRIENDLY LEGISLATION."—Questions and answers, Mr. Douglas's questions to Mr. Lincoln on Slavery, and Mr. Lincoln replies. Also, Mr. Lincoln's questions to Douglas, with Douglas's replies.

LETTERS OF DISTINGUISHED STATESMEN.—Gen. Cass's letter to A. P. Nicholson of Tennessee, in which he announces the theory of Squatter Sovereignty. Martin Van Buren's letter of 1848 on the Power of Congress over Slavery in the Territories. Greene C. Bronson's letter (1848) declaring Slavery to exist only by the force of local law. Daniel S. Dickinson on the same subject. Edward Bates to the Missouri Delegates to the Republican Convention; also, his letter sustaining the nomination of Mr. Lincoln.

POWERS OF THE SUPREME COURT.—Extracts from the Writings and Speeches of the Fathers of the Republic, and particularly of the Jeffersonian Republican party on the powers and duties of the Supreme Court of the United States.

ELECTION RETURNS.—The returns of each State by Counties for President since and including 1824; also, the vote of each State by Counties at the last General Election preceding the Presidential Election of 1860.

RESOLUTIONS, &c.—Resolutions of Party State Conventions and of State Legislatures on the subject of Slavery, and such extracts from the speeches and writings of prominent Statesmen and Politicians who are recognized as leaders of their respective parties, as will give a clear idea of the issues involved in the coming Political Campaign, and the positions taken by the various parties to the contest.

Price $1 per copy, post-paid; $66 per hundred. Cash orders solicited. Address THE TRIBUNE,

OUR SLAVE STATES.

Now Ready:

A JOURNEY IN THE BACK COUNTRY.

By Frederick Law Olmsted,

Author of "A Journey in the Seaboard Slave States," "A Journey in Texas," "Walks and Talks of an American Farmer in England," etc.

492 pp. 12mo. Cloth. Price $1 25.

This volume completes the series of "Our Slave States," in which the object of the author has been to describe what was most interesting, amusing, and instructive to him during a journey of fourteen months through these States, undertaken for the purpose of studying the characteristics of the country and people. A keen and impartial observer, and a very graceful and attractive writer, he is acknowledged to have presented in the previous volumes of this series the most intelligent and interesting account of the region they represent that has yet been given to the public. The present volume, embracing the interior Slave States, completes the account.

The series now includes

A JOURNEY IN THE SEA-BOARD SLAVE STATES. 724 pp., price $1 25.

A JOURNEY THROUGH TEXAS. 516 pp., price $1 25.

A JOURNEY IN THE BACK COUNTRY. 492 pp., price $1 25.

Published by MASON BROTHERS,
Nos. 5 and 7 Mercer st., New-York.

Now Ready:

SLAVERY IN HISTORY.

By COUNT GUROWSKI.

1 vol. 12mo. Cloth. Price $1.

The work treats of Slavery as a distinctive social disease, in all times and nations; beginning with Slavery among the ancient Egyptians down to the Russians. This work is the result of extensive research, and will be found of great interest to the masses and invaluable to Republican speakers and writers.

Single copies sent to any address, postpaid, on receipt of price.
Address A. S. BURDICK, Publisher,
No. 145 Nassau-st., New-York.

NOTICE to ADVERTISERS.—The only Daily Paper published at the Canadian Seat of Government is THE QUEBEC MORNING CHRONICLE. It is taken in almost every family in Quebec, and circulates largely in Eastern Canada and New-Brunswick. Twenty thousand strangers are expected on the visit of the Prince. Advertisers will find THE CHRONICLE an excellent medium. Daily Chronicle, $6 per annum, in advance; Weekly Chronicle, $2, do. Terms for Advertising made known on application.

WALT. WHITMAN'S LEAVES OF GRASS, the first American Poem, 1 vol., 456 pages, magnificently printed, beautifully bound, published by THAYER & ELDRIDGE, Boston, and for sale in New-York by D. W. EVANS & Co., No. 677 Broadway.

[Two new Books by Capt. Mayne Reid:]

THE WOOD RANGERS:
OR,
THE TRAPPERS OF SONORA.
BY CAPT. MAYNE REID,
Author of "The Scalp Hunter," "Rifle Rangers," etc.
Price $1 25.

WILD LIFE;
OR,
ADVENTURES ON THE FRONTIER.
By CAPT. MAYNE REID.
Author of "The White Chief," "War Trail," etc.
Price $1 25.

Each of the above books contains nearly 500 pages, handsomely embellished with original designs, engraved in the highest style of the art. by N. Orr, esq.

In presenting to the American public two new volumes of these half-civilized, half-hunter, half-military adventures, which the author relates in a style so peculiarly his own it is scarcely necessary to urge any argument in their favor. Mayne Reid is so well known and appreciated, that his books have the entree to every circle—the public library, the bachelor's sanctum, the hunter's cabin, and the lady's boudoir—all classes welcoming that off-hand, dashing style with which the author carries his readers along with him, through all sorts of perils.

The attention of the public is called to the new and handsome editions just issued of Capt. MAYNE REID'S former Works, of which the following are the titles:

THE RIFLE RANGERS; Or, ADVENTURES IN SOUTHERN MEXICO.
THE SCALP HUNTERS; Or, ADVENTURES AMONG THE TRAPPERS.
THE WAR TRAIL; Or, THE HUNT OF THE WILD HORSE.
THE WHITE CHIEF: A LEGEND OF NORTH MEXICO.
THE QUADROON; Or, A LOVER'S ADVENTURES IN LOUISIANA.
THE HUNTERS' FEAST.
OSCEOLA THE SEMINOLE.
THE RANGERS AND REGULATORS OF THE TANAHA.

This uniform series is complete in Eight handsome Volumes, beautifully illustrated. Price $1 25 per volume.

BOOKS FOR SUMMER READING.
A New Novel, by the Author of "Wildflower."

ONE-AND-TWENTY.

By the Author of "Wildflower," "House of Elmore," &c.
Octavo, paper covers. Price 50 cents.

The following are a few opinions from the English papers:

"The talented author of 'Wildflower' has thrown all her power into this work, which is by far the best of the many excellent ones that have issued from her pen, and, we think, will take rank as the most brilliant novel of the day. The characters are drawn with a most masterly hand, evincing a thorough knowledge of the main springs of human action, and a deep insight into the controlling passions which prompt us to good or to evil. The designing and wicked spendthrift, who proved so false to his manhood, and who, like the loathsome spider wove his web with such subtle skill around the innocent object of his passion finds himself foiled at last, and reaps a terrible harvest."

"A novel of rare power and ability."—[Observer.

"Among the new novels, one of the best is 'One-and-Twenty.'"—[Examiner.

"It is a long while since we have met with so original a tale or one so true to nature; true in the lessons which it teaches, as well as in the picture which it draws; and we need not say how much higher and rarer is the former gift."—[John Bull.

A WINSOME SCOTTISH STORY.

JESSIE CAMERON.

By the LADY RACHEL BUTLER.
Octavo, paper covers. Twenty-five Cents.

The following are selected from the English press:

"A book which, when taken in hand, will not be willingly laid down by any novel-reader till he has ended it."—[Athenæum.

"Written with much feeling."—[Examiner.

"A delightful story, distinguished for the elegance of its style, and the pathos and sentiment with which it abounds. It is entitled to take a high place in the literature of fiction."—[Post.
