VALUABLE PLANTATION AND SLAVES AT AUCTION. BY PALFREY & CO., C. L. C. DEBUY, Auctioneer, Office, No. 27 Camp street.

☞ MONDAY, 1st day of February, at 12 o'clock M., at Banks' Arcade, New Orleans, will be sold at public auction—

THE ARDOYNE PLANTATION, on the Bayou Black, parish of Terrebonne, La., with Slaves and Stock of every kind, to the highest bidder, to effect a partition between the parties entitled.

The property consists of over 2220 acres of land, inferior to none in Louisiana, heavily timbered, and nearly all susceptible of cultivation, about 700 acres of which are in fine state of cultivation, about 40 of finally improved, over 50 Mules; a stock of Cattle and Hogs; Cheniere Saw Mill; Farming Utensils; Mechanics' Tools, etc., with the plantation implements, including improved Corn and Hay, supposed to be sufficient for the next season's consumption.

The Machinery on the Sugar-House is of the most valuable kind and works well. The quality of the sugar usually made is inferior to none made in the State, and in quantity equal to that of any other plantation of the same number of hands. The growing crop is expected to be about one bhd.

J. J. HANNA will be on the plantation during the rolling season, and will take pleasure in showing it to any person desirous of examining it.

The terms of sale are one fourth cash, (the purchaser to assume a mortgage due to the Bank of Louisiana,) one fourth balance to be payable in equal annual instalments, divided into coupons to suit the vendors, if required, at one, two and three years from the date of sale, bearing interest at eight per cent. per annum from date until paid, and secured by mortgage and privilege on the property sold; possession to be given when the cash and sale shall have been completed; but the crop, all the bands, teams, etc., will be reserved for the purpose of preparing for market, and removing from the plantation, whatever of the crop they may still be on the plantation at the time of the sale.

A more particular description will be given before the day of sale.

For further particulars, apply to the auctioneers, or to
