VALUABLE PLANTATION AND SLAVES AT AUCTION. BY PALFREY & CO.....C. L. C. DEPUY, Auctioneer,
Office, No. 57 Camp street.

MONDAY, 1st day of February, at 12 o'clock M., at Banks' Arcade, New Orleans, will be sold at public auction—

The ARDOYNE PLANTATION, on the Bayou Black, parish of Terrebonne, La., with Slaves and Stock of every kind, to the highest bidder, to effect a partition between the proprietors.

The property consists of over 2200 acres of land, inferior to none in Louisiana, heavily timbered, and nearly all susceptible of cultivation, about 700 acres of which are in cultivation; upwards of 80 hands, all family raised; over 50 Mules; a stock of Cattle and Hogs; Circular Saw Mill; Farming Utensils; Mechanics' Tools, (with which the plantation is abundantly supplied;) Corn and Hay, supposed to be sufficient for the next season's consumption.

The Machinery in the Sugar House is of the most reliable kind and works well. The quality of the sugar usually made is inferior to none made in the State, and in quantity equal to that of any other plantation in proportion to the number of hands. The growing crop is expected to be 600 hhds.

J. J. HANNA will be on the plantation during the rolling season, and will take pleasure in showing it to any person desirous of examining it.

The terms of sale are one-fourth cash, (the purchaser to assume the mortgage debt due to the Bank of Louisiana,) and the balance to be payable in equal annual instalments, divided into coupons to suit the vendors, if required, at one, two and three years from the date of sale, bearing interest at eight per cent. per annum from date until paid, and secured by mortgage and privilege on the property sold; possession to be given when the terms of sale shall have been complied with; but the use of the lands, teams, etc., will be reserved for the purpose of preparing for market, and removing from the plantation, whatever of the growing crop may still be on the plantation at the time of the sale.

A more particular description will be given before the day of sale.

For further particulars, apply to the auctioneers, or to ☞ The second purse will receive the entrance money, five per cent., on the amount of its purse. Should no horse be entered, the entrance money will go with the purse. Entries for the race of the first day must be made at the judges' stand, on the Course, before 4 o'clock P. M. of the day previous to the race. Entries for the subsequent races must be made at the judges' stand, on the Course, fifteen minutes after the termination of the races of the day. Each entry must recite the name, age, sex, color and blood of the horse to be entered, and must describe the colors in which he is to be ridden. The word "dancy," when applied to colors in an entry, will not be considered sufficiently definite. The entrance money, five (5) per cent. on the amount of the purse to be run for, must be enclosed in the entry, which must be sealed and put in the entry box, kept for that purpose, at the judges' stand.

The Jockey Club, by a rule lately adopted, has ordered that jockies shall be dressed in caps and jackets of silk, velvet or satin; in breeches of corduroy, cassimere or linen; and long, fair top boots. The Club has also ordered that hereafter in all races for purses, and in sweepstakes and handicaps and closed, the following weights shall be carried, unless other weights are specified in the articles:

Two years old	84 lbs.
Three years old	90 lbs.
Four
