Having purchased from the New-York Belting and Packing Company the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT to Chas GOODYEAR'S invention of VULCANIZED RUBBER for Billiard Cushions, we hereby notify the manufacturers and purchasers of Billiard Tables that we will fill orders for Billiard Tables made with Vulcanized Caoutchouc or India Rubber Cushions and for the ordinary Caoutchouc Cushions, with a license to apply them to Billiard Tables. Hereafter every billiard cushion of Vulcanized Rubber will bear imbedded in each cushion stamp the name of CHARLES GOODYEAR the Patentee, and the date of the Patent, and parties purchasing these cushions of us will be required to attach to every table in a conspicuous place a metallic plate (which we will furnish) bearing the words—"Charles Goodyear's Patent. Granted June 15, 1858. Extended June 15, 1858." All parties manufacturing Billiard Tables with the ordinary Vulcanized-Rubber Cushions after this date or parties using or vending the same without the above stamp will infringe our right, and will be prosecuted accordingly. PHELAN'S PATENT COMBINATION CUSHIONS can only be obtained on Tables manufactured by PHELAN & COLLENDER.

NEW LAW BOOK.

LITTLE, BROWN & Co., No. 110 WASHINGTON-ST., BOSTON,

Publish this day:

TREATISE ON THE AMERICAN LAW OF REAL PROPERTY. By EMORY WASHBURN, LL. D., University Professor of Law in Harvard University. Vol. I. 8vo. Price $5 50.

This work is divided into three books, the first embracing the nature and quantity of estates in corporeal hereditaments with their qualities and characteristics, which will be found in the volume now published. The remaining volume will embrace the second and third books, the second treating of incorporeal hereditaments, their nature and characteristics, and the third presenting, in outline, the titles by which real property may be acquired and held and the rules of its transfer on and transfer. It is divided into chapters, each intended to embrace a separate and distinct subject, with a subdivision in some cases into sections with such a reference in the notes to the American statutes as to give the reader a tolerably full idea of the coincidences or diversity of the rules of the several States, upon the subjects therein treated of.

It aims to provide a safe and convenient book of reference to the lawyer, while it furnishes an elementary treatise for the use of the student.

2D EDITION OF MORRIS'S POETICAL WORKS. In 1 vol. blue and Gold. Price 50 cents.

A new, complete, cheap, and beautiful edition, uniform with the recent editions of the other popular poets of Europe and America.

THE SONGS AND BALLADS OF GEORGE P. MORRIS are so well known that they have become household words in almost every palace and cottage, so that nothing need be said regarding their merits by the publisher in issuing the present edition, beyond what has been said by others.

The frequent and increasing calls for these Poems, in a tasteful and cheaper form, authorizes the belief that their circulation will be greatly extended by their presentation in this unique and popular style. A number of recent pieces have been added to this collection, making it more complete than any that has preceded it.

Copies sent by mail on receipt of 50 cents. C. SCRIBNER, No. 124 Grand-st., N. Y.

A GREAT CAMPAIGN BOOK ON THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

"BLACK DIAMONDS."

BY A VIRGINIAN.

A circular of a partial edition of the book has been indorsed by the leading Democratic Members of Congress, which assures, in no inconsiderable degree, its merit and conservatism to the reading public.

CIRCULAR.

The writer has printed, at his own expense, a small collection of letters in defense of the institution and system of negro Slavery in the South. He submits a copy. He hopes that Members of Congress, friendly to him or his subject, will assist him by subscribing for copies. E. A. POLLARD.
