As a thoroughly organized Private High School, which is one of the oldest and best sustained in the city, having Junior, Middle and Senior Departments, two hundred pupils, (from seven years old and upward), and twelve Professors, the completeness of its instruction in preparing students for College or business, the beauty and healthfulness of its location, the accessibility of its central position from every part of New York and the neighboring cities, and the large, well ventilated, light, and well contrived rooms, filling three stories of a building erected by the Proprietors expressly for its accommodation, are generally known.
Its numerous classes of every grade in Latin, Greek, Mathematics, modern Languages, Commercial Studies, Drawing and Painting, with all the English branches, offer unusual advantages to those to whom "time is money," and who cannot afford to waste this precious article on worthless instruction among promiscuous masses. Two years of TIME saved to the pupil in his course of study, with quickened mental and moral preceptions, desirable companionship, and high character to begin the world with, will pay a thousand times over for the mere cost of his tuition in the most expensive private establishments.

ROCKLAND FEMALE INSTITUTE, AT NYACK ON THE HUDSON.
This is an Incorporated Academic and Collegiate Institution, for the EDUCATION of YOUNG LADIES, under the supervision of the Regents of the University of the State of New-York. It is complete in all its appointments, full of a healthy life and vigor in all its departments, and keeps pace, it is believed, with the advancing spirit, the enlightment and the wants of the age.
It has a regular graduating course of study intended to embrace all the branches essential to a substantial and finished education. Especial attention is also given to the fine Arts and to those polite accomplishments which fit women to adorn society and the home circle. The Musical Department is believed to be second to that of no seminary in the State. The French and German languages are taught by native teachers, who reside at the Seminary, and make them, as far as practicable, the medium of conversation.
Much care is given to the moral bearing of pupils, and to the cultivation of refinement of manners.
The location of the Institute, possessing the opposite qualities of easy accessibility, and quiet seclusion; the beauty of the surrounding scenery, with the historical interests and literary associations of the region; the remarkable healthfulness of the climate; the spaciousness, style and convenience of the buildings; the extent of the grounds, and the facilities afforded for pleasant and health-giving recreation, give to it externally many unusual attractions, while in the management of its internal affairs, it is the study of its officers to make it combine, in the greatest possible extent, all the advantages of a good School with those of a good Home.
The FALL TERM will commence on the 18th day of SEPTEMBER. Circulars giving full particulars, may be obtained by addressing Rev. L. D. MANSFIELD, A. M., CHAS. F. MANSFIELD, A. M., } Principals
