WILL PUBLISH NEXT WEEK
A NEW NOVEL,
by the author of the "Heir of Redclyffe," entitled
HOPES AND FEARS;
OR SCENES IN THE LIFE OF A SPINSTER.
The many admirers of the writings of Miss Yonge will be glad to hear that a new work will be issued from her pen.
Extract from a Review of the "Heir of Redclyffe" and "Heartsease" in the North American Review:
"The first of her writings which made a sensation here was the 'Heir,' and what a sensation it was! Referring to the remains of the tear-washed covers of the copies allowed, we find it belonged to the 'Eighth Thousand.' How many have been issued since by the publishers to supply the demand for new, and the places of drained, dissolved, or swept away old copies, we do not attempt to conjecture. Not individuals merely, but households—consisting in great part of tender-hearted young damsels—were plunged into mourning. With a tolerable acquaintance with fictitious heroes, (not to speak of real ones) from Sir Charles Grandison down to the nursery idol, Carlton, we have little hesitation in pronouncing Sir Guy Morville or Redclyffe, Baronet, the most admirable we ever met with in story or out. The glorious, joyous boy, the brilliant, ardent child of genius and fortune, crowned with the beauty of his early holiness, and overshadowed with the darkness of his hereditary gloom, and the soft and touching sadness of his early death. What a caution is there! what a vision!"
Booksellers should send their orders in without delay, so that they may be supplied with a sufficient number of copies for the demand.

ADDRESS
THAYER & ELDRIDGE,
Publishers,
Nos. 114 and 116 Washington-st.,
BOSTON.

WORKS by JAMES REDPATH.
"The man whose words are bullets."—Wendell Phillips.

ECHOES OF HARPER'S FERRY.

This volume is a collection of the greatest Speeches, Sermons, Lectures, Letters, Poems, and other Utterances of the leading minds of America and Europe, called forth by John Brown's Invasion of Virginia. They are all given—mostly for the first time—unabridged; and they have all been corrected by their authors for this edition, or reprinted with their permission from duly authorized copies. That this volume is justly entitled to the claim of being the first collection of worthy specimens of American Eloquence, the following brief summary of its contents will show: It contains Speeches and Sermons—by Wendell Phillips, (two), Ralph Waldo Emerson, (two), Edward Everett, Henry D. Thoreau, Dr. Cheever, (two), the Hon. Charles O'Conor, Henry Ward Beecher, Theodore Tilton, Col. Phillips, the Rev. Gilbert Haven, James Freeman Clarke, Miles Henry Newhall, M. D., Conway (of Cincinnati), and Edwin M. Wheelock; Letters—by Theodore Parker, (two), Victor Hugo, (two), Mrs. Mason of Virginia, and Lydia Maria Child; Poems and other Contributions—by William Allingham, John G. Whittier, William Lloyd Garrison, Judge Tilden, F. B. Sanborn, the Hon. A. G. Riddle, Richard Realf, C. K. Whipple, the Rev. Mr. Belcher, the Rev. Mr. Furness, the Rev. Mr. Sears, Edna Dean Proctor, L. M. Alcott, Wm. D. Howels, Elizur Wright, &c., &c., &c. Also all the Letters sent to John Brown when in prison at Charlestown by Northern men and women, and his own relatives; "one of the most tenderly-pathetic and remarkable collections of letters in all Literature." Also the Services at Concord, or "Litany for a Martyr," composed by Emerson, Thoreau, Alcott, Sanborn, &c.: "unsurpassed in beauty even by the Book of Common Prayer." With an Appendix, containing the widely-celebrated Essays of Henry C. Carey on the Value of the Union to the North.

Appended to the various contributions are the autographs of the authors.

Edited by JAMES REDPATH.

1 volume, 514 pages, handsomely bound in muslin. Price $1 25.

Sample copies mailed to any address on receipt of the retail price, postage paid. For circular of terms address the publishers.

THE PUBLIC LIFE OF CAPTAIN JOHN BROWN.
By JAMES REDPATH.
With an Autobiography of his Childhood and Youth.
With a Steel Portrait and Illustrations. Pp. 403.

This volume has been the most successful of the season, having already reached its Fortieth Thousand, and the demand still continuing very large. It has also been republished in England and widely noticed by the British press. The Autobiography (of which no reprint will be permitted) has been universally pronounced to be one of the most remarkable compositions of the kind in the English language. In addition to being the authentic biography of John Brown, and containing a complete collection of his celebrated prison letters—which can nowhere else be found—this volume has also the only correct and connected history of Kansas—from its opening for settlement till the close of the struggle for Freedom there—to be found in American literature, whether periodical or standard. It treats therefore, of topics which must be largely discussed in political life for many years. A handsome percentage, on every copy sold, is secured by contract to the family of Capt. Brown. Price ONE DOLLAR. Copies mailed to any address, post paid, on receipt of the retail price.

AGENTS WANTED.

SOUTHERN NOTES FOR NATIONAL CIRCULATION.

This is a volume of facts of recent Southern life, as narrated by the Southern and Metropolitan press. It is not too much to say that, next to Charles Sumner's Speech, it is the most unanswerable and exhaustive impeachment of the Slave Power that has hitherto been published. Although treating of different topics, it extends, completes, and strengthens the argument of the Senator. It is a history of the Southern States for six months subsequent to John Brown's Invasion of Virginia. No one who has read Sumner's Speech should fail to procure this pamphlet. The diversity of its contents may be judged from the titles of its Chapters: Key Notes, Free Speech South, Free Press South, Law of the Suspected, Southern Gospel Freedom, Southern Hospitality, Post-Office South, Our Adopted Fellow-Citizens South, Persecutions of Southern Citizens, The Shivering Chivalry, Sports of Heathen Gentlemen, &c., &c., &c. As a manual for Anti-Slavery and Republican orators and editors it is invaluable.

A handsome pamphlet of 128 pages.
PRICE 25 CENTS.
Copies mailed to any address on receipt of price. Agents wanted.

THE INDEPENDENT FOR THIS WEEK IS OUT.
CIRCULATION OVER 40,000 COPIES
The best thing in this week's number is the news of the Presidential Election, but there are many other good things beside. Among these is a prompt article on the result by
HORACE GREELEY, Entitled:
THE ELECTION OF LINCOLN.
HENRY WARD BEECHER'S SERMON,
From the text, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches," is published in full, with his own revision.
REV. STEPHEN H. TYNG, D. D., contributes an instructive religious article, entitled
"THE SUBSTANCE WASTED."
Dr. Tyng is a regular contributor to the INDEPENDENT.
"THE QUAKER MEETING," is the subject of an admirable sketch by
REV. THEODORE L. CUYLER.
"RECOLLECTIONS OF MENDELSSHON,"
BY BAYARD TAYLOR.
A stirring Poem on the Presidential Election, entitled
"THE NATION'S BIRTHDAY,"
BY
EDNA DEAN PROCTOR.
The INDEPENDENT is now rapidly increasing in circulation every day, and its conductors stand pledged to give it increasing excellence in proportion to its increasing patronage.
The price of subscription is $2 a year when sent by mail out of the City. To subscribers who receive it by carriers in New-York and Brooklyn, the price is $2 50. But the publisher makes the following EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENT TO SUBSCRIBE.
If any person will send the names of three new subscribers to the INDEPENDENT, accompanied with the money (that is, Six dollars for the three subscribers,) he will be presented for his trouble with a handsome copy of
WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY,
Pictorial Edition, containing 1,500 engraved illustrations. To persons living in the country the Dictionary will be promptly forwarded by express. When it is considered that the price of the Dictionary is of itself $6 50 at the bookstores, it will be seen that three copies of the INDEPENDENT for one year, and a Dictionary besides, and all only for Six Dollars, make about as good an investment for so small a sum of money as the market anywhere affords.
Please order a specimen copy of the paper, which will be sent gratuitously to any address.
All letters should be addressed to

THE BOBBIN BOY!
THE GOVERNOR.
LET YOUR BOYS READ THIS BOOK.
It is the true life of a poor boy who started at the very foot of the ladder, only a Bobbin Boy in the factory, with no natural advantages, no schooling except a few years of very early childhood. Yet by a strong will and firm principle, with constant application in the few spare hours he gained from those usually devoted to sleep and his meals, he has acquired not only an education, but a power of oratory not often surpassed—that makes THE MAN the choice of the people their Governor.
It is a book full of interesting incidents that forms every boy's life—he had his troubles, his faults, as all boys have.
Charlie Stone, his playmate and intimate friend, is now one of the most popular agents of one of the most celebrated mills in the country. He also started in life as a poor Bobbin Boy.
The book is written in the Rev. Mr. WM. M. THAYER'S most attractive style, and illustrated by Billings. It is a large book for the
