New Orleans Daily Crescent.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS.

JAMES O. NIXON. WILLIAM H. ADAMS

BY NIXON & ADAMS.

OFFICE, No. 70 CAMP STREET.

TERMS:

The Crescent will be regularly served to subscribers in the city at an early hour every morning, (Sundays excepted,) for $10 a year, in advance; half-yearly and quarterly at the same rates, or 20 cents a week, payable to the carriers.

Advertisements, per square—first insertion, in all cases $1; for every subsequent insertion, 50 cents.

Advertisements on the second page are charged $1 for every insertion.

Advertisements published at intervals, will be charged $1 per square for every insertion.

Advertisements not marked, will be published one month, or longer, and charged accordingly; no advertisement or subscription will be stopped until all arrearages are paid, at the option of the proprietors.

A Liberal Discount will be made to regular advertisers.

THE DAILY CRESCENT

has a circulation which renders it a desirable medium for advertisers. As a Family Paper it circulates largely, reaching many hundreds of homes at an early hour, and being read before the approach of business hours, consequently articles for family use may be advantageously published in its columns.

THE WEEKLY CRESCENT

is published every Monday morning at $3 year, invariably in advance. Having an extensive circulation throughout Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama, Texas, and other States, it presents a favorable mode to advertisers of making their wares and commodities known. Advertisements inserted for $1 per square, each insertion.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1858.

☞ We are under obligations to Redding & Co.'s Express for late Texas papers.

☞ The regular weekly circular of the coffee market, issued by Messrs. Lonsdale, Son & Co., will be found in another column. There is a great decrease in the stock from last year at this time.

☞ The Weekly Crescent is unusually interesting this week, and can be had in wrappers for mailing, either at the office counter, or at the bookstores of J C. Morgan & Co., Exchange Place.

☞ The Double-Sheet Crescent will appear as usual on Monday morning. The edition of this paper is not exceeded by any in the South.

Benefit of M'lle Lamoreaux.—M'lle Louise Lamoreaux, the brilliant premiere danseuse of the Ronzani troupe, at the Varieties, is to take her first and only benefit in this city to-morrow night. She is to appear as Margaret in "Faust," a character in which she has afforded the most unbounded delight to the patrons of the Varieties during the last week; and it will be the last representation of "Faust," any one of the five acts of which is alone worth the price of admission. Signor di Carlo is to perform a solo on the violin during one of the intermissions, and the entertainment will, in every respect, be worthy a benefit night. Seats and private boxes may be secured to-day, and the matter may be well worth attending to to-day.

The Amphitheater.—The splendid romantic spectacle of "Cinderella" is to be enacted by the Marsh Children at the Amphitheater at noon to-day, for the benefit of universal ladydom and child-dom—or at least as many of that large and interesting class of the population as can conveniently squeeze into the Amphitheater. The same beautiful piece is to be repeated at night, with the farce of "My Neighbor's Wife" and an Irish song by Master Stewart. Next week, it should not be forgotten, will be the last of the Marshes.

Orleans Theater.—Several fine vaudevilles and a drama are to be given here to-morrow night, for the benefit of Charity Hospital. Mr. Lamothe's benefit takes place on Monday night; "The Huguenots" being the opera selected.

Varieties Theater.—The Ronzani Ballet troupe appear again to-night in their magnificent spectacle of "Faust." The piece is a whole Iliad of the "poetry of motion," the like of which has never before been offered to the New Orleans public. It has been performed to good houses during the week, and will doubtless draw another good house to-night.

The Panorama of Italy.—Waugh's Panorama of Italy is to be exhibited at noon to-day and at night. It shows as well by day as by night, and ladies and others who have not yet seen it, and cannot leave home at night, will be highly entertained and gratified if they go to the noon exhibition. The explanations of the lecturer, and the music introduced in the pauses, cause the exhibition to pass off like a charm. The panorama should be seen by everybody.

Jackson Railroad.—The recent law of our Legislature giving the Governor of the State the right of voting the stock of the State, has caused some little discussion on the street; and as there appears to be a difference in opinion prevailing on the subject, we would suggest to stockholders the propriety of withholding their proxies when solicited, until the subject is more fully understood.

American Meeting To-Night.—A meeting of Club No. 2 of the American Party is to be held this evening at No. 9 New Basin. As officers are to be elected under the new constitution, and other important business transacted, a full and punctual attendance is desired.

Cheap Millinery and Fancy Goods.—Madame S. G. Fabio, at her well known establishment, corner of Chartres and Hospital streets, is now offering a splendid and very complete assortment of spring millinery and fancy goods for the ladies at very cheap prices; at New York prices, cheaper than which the ladies of this community cannot desire. Madame F. is largely patronized by the down-town ladies, and by not a few of the up-town ladies. Her establishment is really worth visiting; and those ladies in the upper part of the city who not like to walk as far as Hospital street, can be deposited there in a few minutes by the Chartres street omnibuses. We call the attention of all our lady readers to Madame F.'s advertisement, in this morning's Crescent.

Dolbear's Commercial College, No. 106 Canal Street.—By reference to the advertisement of this institution, it will be seen that its spring classes are now open. All those who wish to be prepared for fall business should begin immediately. See advertisement.

French Jaconets and Madras Handkerchiefs, etc.—The particular attention of city and country buyers is called to the unreserved sale of foreign and American dry goods by Vincent & Co., at their auction rooms, No. 25 Customhouse street.

☞ We are requested to call the attention of capitalists to Messrs. Palfrey & Co.'s sales to-day, at Banks' Arcade. In addition to their regular sale of stocks, etc., they will sell desirable residences. See their advertisement.

School Books and Stationery.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of merchants, teachers, parents, and all others who wish to buy school-books, to the stock now offering by Mr. T. L. White, at No. 105 Canal street. Mr. W. is provided not only with all the standard books used in common schools, but with all the standard works used in medical and law colleges and afterwards kept in libraries by practitioners; together with books in every department of literature—history, poetry, fiction, theology, and general miscellany—as well as juvenile books of all descriptions, stationery, etc.—everything that can be looked for, in a complete bookstore. All are sold low and upon the most favorable terms. See Mr. White's advertisement in another column.

Carolina Seed Rice.—This article is to be had of Mr. J. G. Logan, No. 39 Poydras street. See advertisement.

Balloon Ascension.—Mrs. Marble will make a grand balloon ascension to-morrow, from the corner of Annunciation and Robin streets. Prior to the ascension, Mrs. M. will give a narrative of her adventures while a captive among the Indians, and the Infant Drummer will entertain those assembled with his performances. Purchasers of tickets will be entitled to a chance in gifts to be distributed. See advertisement.

☞ We call public attention to the sales to be made this day at the City Hotel, Common street, by the Sheriff, of real estate and slaves. Sales to begin at 12 o'clock M. See advertisements.

Fine Carpetings at Cost.—Messrs. J. D. Dameron & Co., No. 124 Canal street, are offering extraordinary inducements to housekeepers and others who may stand in need of carpetings. They have a magnificent stock, including all the late styles, and in order to reduce this stock they offer it at cost prices for cash. We call attention to their advertisement on the subject.

The Virginia for Ocean Springs.—This elegant and swift packet, under command of Capt. Cozens, leaves for Ocean Springs and all intermediate coast landings, this afternoon, from the Jefferson Railroad wharf; taking all who arrive by the 2:30 train of cars on that road, and stopping at the Milneburg wharf for all who go down in the 4 o'clock Pontchartrain cars. Fare, two dollars, and luxurious living on the way, or four dollars for the excursion, including dinner on Sunday. Mr. E. Toby, No. 27 Camp street, is the agent.

Sales of J. A. Beard & Co. To-Day.—A valuable list of real estate is to be auctioned off at noon to-day, at Banks' Arcade, by Messrs. J. A. Beard & Co. Three fine houses and lots on Lafayette street, and a house and lot on Nayades street, are to be sold on liberal terms, part cash and part credit, and a fine parcel or tract of land at Gentilly, on the Pontchartrain Railroad, is to be sold for cash. Full particulars will be seen advertised in the proper column.

A SAD CONDITION OF THINGS.

The condition of political and social affairs at the Federal metropolis must be sad, indeed, if we are to take the written publications of the man who did more than any other ten men in the Union to nominate and elect James Buchanan to the Presidency of the United States. The worst days of the worst era of French absolutism seem to have been revived in republican America, and spies and informers are deemed indispensable to the successful progress of the aims and ends of the Administration.

The publications we allude to are from the pen of Col. John W. Forney, editor of the Philadelphia Press, by all odds the most powerful Democratic journal published in the Keystone State. One word here as to the political status of Col. Forney, and his relations to President Buchanan, in order that there may be no misunderstanding in the premises. For many years Col. F. has been a leading Democrat. No man was trusted higher and farther than he was by the magnates of his own party; and very few of those magnates possessed a tithe of his talents or general knowledge. For four years he was clerk of the House of Representatives—a station which is always much sought for, and which is, besides, very important. In 1856 he engaged actively in nominating and electing Mr. Buchanan, and was eminently successful. To show his gratitude to his friend for services rendered, Mr. Buchanan, the President elect, used every exertion in his power to secure his election to the United States Senate. He even went so far as to write a warm and unqualified letter in his behalf to a member of the Legislature. But, owing to fraud, bribery and corruption, Col. Forney, although regularly nominated by the Democratic Legislative caucus, was defeated and Mr. Simon Cameron, the present Senator, was elected. The President was deeply chagrined at the result, and to make amends to his friend for the outrage practiced upon him, offered him the most lucrative office in his gift—the Consulship to Liverpool. This offer Col. Forney declined, and returned to his first love, the newspaper business.

Thus much by way of explanation. Now, although twelve months have hardly elapsed, the confidential relations that existed between the President and Col. Forney seem to have been dissolved. And why? Forney sustains Gov. Walker and opposes the adoption of the Lecompton Constitution, while the President opposes the former and favors the latter. But, we will observe, en passant, let it not be forgotten that this very same President retained Gov. Walker in office, allowed him to do just as he pleased, until all the mischief was accomplished, and then vouchsafed him an honorable resignation! He never dismissed him.

Now for the publications of Col. Forney alluded to at the commencement of this article. In his own paper—the Philadelphia Press—of a late date, we find a letter from Washington over his own sign manual, from which we take some extracts and call the attention of the public to their significance. We quote:

I can hardly believe my senses, that this is the city of Washington, and that James Buchanan is President. What is the aspect? One wide reign of terror. A test is erected here, like some horrid instrument of torture, upon which Democrats are tried and executed for their opinions. The work of decapitation has ceased against life-time foes, and is now waged upon old and cherished friends. Men are removed and calumniated not for being opposed to Democratic principles, but for being too much in favor of them. The humblest clerk, with his little family, who struggles along on his thousand dollars a year, must hide his sentiments or leave his place. For the bold and upright Democrat, who dares to think aloud, there is short shrift. If he has an office, he must be ready for the ominous cartel of dismissal on the instant. If he is an independent citizen, he is excluded from the department and from the White House like a common leper. An army of spies are on the alert, hunting for victims. Woe to the unguarded gentleman who, in the presence of one of these eager caves-droppers, may let fall a free opinion! It is at once caught up and carried, with no lack of exaggeration, to the ear of power.

Awfully severe, but not more so than the following:

If there is on this round globe a race more despised in civilized society than any other, it is the race of informers. The noblest invective of the noblest of Irish orators has made them immortally infamous. These mercenaries now hold high service in Washington. I could name several of them from our own State, but I forbear for the honor of Pennsylvania. They glory in their shameless trade. Broken in fortune, reckless of their own fame, laughing at conscience in others and rejecting it for themselves, they swarm here anxious to earn their guilty wages. The most of these creatures, happily, are the men who have pursued and persecuted the President with the same venom which they now display towards those who differ from his Kansas policy.

With these quotations we will close this article We think they are sufficient for one day, at all events. They disclose a most mortifying and humiliating state of affairs, and are calculated to make outsiders despair of the Republic. However, as it is purely a Democratic quarrel, we will have nothing more to say on the subject at this time.

St. Charles Theater—Complimentary Benefit to Miss Avonia Jones.—The fact that Miss Avonia Jones is to take her farewell of us to-night, and that a number of our citizens have determined to give her a grand complimentary testimonial on the occasion, we are sure will cause a rush at the box-office of the St. Charles to-day, and a jam in the theater at night.

Miss Jones is eminently entitled to all the favor that can be shown her. She has performed here two weeks, and in all that time we have not met the first individual, who has seen her, who has not acknowledged the great and unusual force of her acting for a novice, and the brightness of her promise for the future, as evidenced in her present acting. Carrying with her, as she does at all times, the modest dignity of the lady with all the charm of her youthful freshness and beauty, she inspires respect as well as admiration, and thus ennobles and elevates her calling, —not only imparting a refining influence to any play in which she may appear, but winning a better feeling for the other players who may be called upon to assist her in her flowery path. It is the public susceptibility to this peculiar charm of Avonia Jones, which has elevated her to the rank of a great favorite before becoming a great actress. And whilst, beneath the charm described, the lovers of the drama may discern, in an actress or actor, growing histrionic abilities, certain indications of future power, they may be pardoned for exhibiting more warmth of admiration than cold criticism would warrant. The complimentary benefit to Miss Jones to-night will be a demonstration of this kind of admiration; and we shall be the last to take any exception to it, however enthusiastic it may be.

"Adrienne the Actress" is the play in which Miss Jones takes her leave of us to-night, she, of course, appearing as Adrienne, and Mr. Charles Pope is to support her as Maurice. Afterward, Ben DeBar, Vining Bowers and Mrs. Farren are to appear in the funny burlesque of "Mrs. Norma."

We must not omit stating, that a full and fashionable house last night witnessed Miss Jones as Lucy, in "The Bride of Lammermoor," with Mr. Pope as Edgar. The play was beautifully given, and the passion scenes of the last act, thrillingly. There was the usual unanimous applause during the progress of the piece, and the usual calling out and scattering of flowers at the close.

A Brutal Husband.—A fellow was arrested in New York a few days ago for severely biting his wife in a fit of drunkenness, and attempting to put his little child on a hot stove. The wife refused to make a complaint against him.

Lola Montez on Intrigue.—In a recent lecture Lola Montez said that in this country a cobbler might place his shanty beside the mansion of the millionaire in Fifth avenue, and if the millionaire was not careful the cobbler would make love to his wife, and if he did it was no matter, for at any rate the millionaire was sure to make love to the cobbler's wife.

Great Haul of Rockfish.—The Norfolk Herald states that at Willoughby Point, near that city, a man a few days ago caught 64 rockfish of enormous size, several weighing 100 pounds. They were all taken within a small bag. This lot of fish sold for eight cents per pound.

Earthquake in Northern Mississippi.—The Holly Springs Herald states that the shock of an earthquake was very distinctly felt at that place on the night of the 17th.

Drowned.—Capt. Jordan, of the ship Wm. Stetson, reports that on the 16th of February, when in lat. 44 deg. 57 min., lon. 14 deg. 48 min., John Gelpin, seaman, fell overboard from the main-yard and was drowned.

For St. Louis.—The fine regular packet Crescent City, Capt. Young, leaves for St. Louis on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, carrying the New Orleans and Cairo U. S. mail. Her agents are Messrs. Bell, Buchanan & Co.

Talk on 'Change.

The talk yesterday was exciting in some respects; with fine weather, there was no interruption to large gatherings on the street. Carondelet street was particularly lively, commencing early in the day, with brisk movements in cotton, which were, between 10 and 11 o'clock, brought up by the character of the intelligence received by the Niagara from Liverpool, which arrived at Halifax yesterday morning. The buyers or Bears began to smile, and were as jovial as any tea party that could be raised; though those who happen to have some thousands of bales of the staple on the way to Liverpool, regarded the advices with some little trembling. Factors, or many of them, did not seem to realize the accounts. They did take many by surprise. A decline in a week of ⅛ to ¼d., and sales only to the extent of 21,000 bales for the week, was not anticipated. In all probability the market may recede to 7d., and there abide for a spell. It must not be overlooked that the exports from the United States for the last seven weeks have been heavy, reaching nearly one hundred thousand bales per week. What effect this large quantity will have, together with the "Bearish" accounts which have attended the correspondence from this side for the same time, remains to be divulged. In the meantime the receipts at this port are beginning to decline rapidly. Next week and the week after will enable the whole tale to be unfolded. The political advices by this arrival are not of much importance. The financial accounts are unchanged. We intimated some days since that parties predicted a rapid decline by the steamers of the 13th and 20th inst. We have accounts by one, and the other (the Africa) will be due next week at New York.

The Northern mail failed yesterday. The Arabia's mails, of the 6th inst. from Liverpool, are due to-day. There were also received yesterday the Western mails, late as due.

Balloon Ascension at Poydras Market To-Morrow.—M. Morat's big gas-balloon is to "cleave the upper deep" to-morrow afternoon, from the lot at (or near) the corner of Poydras and Baronne streets. Elevated seats will be prepared for the ladies, and every facility offered to the Poydras marketers, and all the town besides, to witness the grand and sublime spectacle of a man suspended between heaven and earth without being hung, and flying up to the empyrean without wings. The balloon is to be inflated with gas, and therefore those who witness the ascent will not fear to see the descent. The gates will open at 2, and the ascension take place at 4 o'clock. See advertisement, elsewhere.

The Cahawba.—The steamship Cahawba, Capt. J. D. Bulloch, sailed at 8 o'clock this morning for New York, via Havana, with the following passengers:

For New York—Mrs J M Eddie, Mrs Blake, Mrs Allen, two Misses Allen, B A Vickel, D H Rice, J H Graves, Col J Allen and nephew, Jas King, F Newhall, L H Hawley, J Quintana. For Havana—Mr Crapper, lady and svt, J O Velasco, Mr Peirce, Mr Henderson, Mr Berkley, J P Grisipa, J R Hamet, Dr A C Young, W C Gautier, G Seaman, F Marin, Mr McWhan.

MARRIED:

In Natchez, on Saturday evening, the 20th inst., at Trinity Church, by the Rev. Dr. Reighley, Col. J. W. McDONALD, formerly editor of the Natchez Free Trader, and Miss SARAH M., eldest daughter of Gen. Douglas H. Cooper, of Wilkinson county.

The terrestrial Aldenna is attained, says the Natchez Free Trader, and our friend Mc. has gone the way of all righteous and sensible men. Heaven, in the dawn of beauteous spring, smiles approbation; the winged choir of nature utter notes of glad rejoicings, and the opening flowers blush with modest sweetness in haste to crown the happy union. May it last as a long, cloudless summer's day, and its close be like the golden beauty and grandeur of the setting sun in autumn, with zephyr breezes sighing forth lament.

Correspondence.

New Orleans, March 24, 1858.

Miss Avonia Jones:

The undersigned appreciating your histrionic talent, estimable worth and social qualities, would tender you a Complimentary Benefit, to take place at such time as you may propose.

With our best wishes for your continued progress and success in the great art of which you are so apt and devoted a representative, we remain

Yours, most respectfully,

New Orleans, La., March 26, 1858.

Gentlemen: With sincere pleasure I have received your kind letter, offering me a Complimentary Benefit. Although unworthy of so marked a testimonial of your appreciation, I nevertheless accept it, trusting that at some future time I may fulfill your expectations. If it meets with your approval, I will fix upon Saturday, March 27th, as the evening most fitted to accept the compliment you offer, it being my last appearance in New Orleans for the present season.

With gratitude, I remain yours,

AVONIA JONES.

☞ The best Sewing Machine now in market is WEED'S PATENT, which is so simple that a mere child can operate it, and experience in the use of Sewing Machines demonstrates that this Machine is less liable to get out of order than any other Sewing Machine now before the public.

The Rev. Robert G. Williams, of Woodbury, Conn., says: "After an examination of every other kind of Sewing Machines, I was fully convinced yours is the best, and an almost constant use of it for some time has more than realized my expectations, for I know there is no other machine that will, with so little trouble, perform so much and so many different kinds of work."

A planter says: "I used to employ three or four hands in making clothes for the rest, but since I purchased your Weed's Patent Sewing Machine, one hand does the sewing for the whole plantation, while my wife uses it for making nearly all the clothes of the family. I feel confident the machine pays for itself every three months."

GOINS' KAPERLAPEUM. Office, No. 14 Exchange Place.

The proprietor and sole manufacturer presents this preparation to the public as a remedy of great value for a variety of very troublesome and dangerous diseases, after twenty-five years' experience in its efficacy.

He can safely recommend it is all Cutaneous Diseases of the Skin, for Baldness, Dandruff in the Hair, Disorganization of the Digestive Organs, Chills and Fever; Bilious, Chagres and Intermittent Fever; Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, Female Complaints, etc., etc. And in proof that he does so upon good grounds, he would respectfully call the attention of the public to the following certificates from persons living in this city:

New Orleans, January 29, 1858.

N. B. Goins—Dear Sir: On my return from Aspinwall in July last, I had a severe attack of Chagres fever, and after trying every imaginable remedy without effect, I was induced to try your "Kaperlapeum," or Fever and Ague Tonic, and am happy to say that, although it is over two months since I took the first dose, I have not been troubled with a chill since, and I have every reason to believe that your medicine has had the effect of entirely removing the disease from my system. It therefore affords me pleasure to recommend it as a most valuable medicine. Respectfully yours, L. A. CLARK, 74 Dryades street, New Orleans, La.

New Orleans, January 30, 1858.

N. B. Goins—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in stating that, some four months ago, when suffering with Chills and Fever, which had stuck to me for several months, I was induced to try a dose of your "Kaperlapeum" just before a chill was expected, and such was the effect it had upon me that I determined upon giving it a fair trial, and bought a bottle and took it according to directions. The result was, that before I had half finished the bottle, my chills had left me, and have not since returned. I am now in the enjoyment of perfect health, never having experienced any of the effects of quinine or other drug usually put in medicines for such diseases, and do cheerfully recommend the "Kaperlapeum" to all who are afflicted like I was. Your friend, WILLIAM A. GIBSON.

New Orleans, January 30, 1858.

Mr. Goins—Dear Sir: I know not how to inform you of the wonderful change your "Kaperlapeum" has made in me. For eight years and four months I suffered with the falling of the womb, and had several of the most eminent physicians of this city, who finally thought my case hopeless and refused to do anything more for me, when my husband found you on the old steamboat Southern Belle and purchased a bottle of your tonic, so justly celebrated as a hair tonic among the most refined of the city. It really seems to me that it must be of divine origin. I can hardly realize my great change. I never felt better in my life than I do at this moment. That every poor woman afflicted as I was may get your great tonic, is my most fervent prayer. MARY SIMS, 56 Hevia street, New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 15, 1858.

I have used "Goins' Kaperlapeum" for chills and fever, and it has cured me entirely; I believe it will cure when everything else fails. A. W. SMITH, New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 15, 1858.

Mr. Goins: I have been using your "Kaperlapeum" for a fistula that I have suffered with for the last eighteen years, having during that time been operated upon by Dr. Johnson, of St. Louis, without success. I have been induced to try your "Kaperlapeum," and, I must confess, with perfect satisfaction, and from its beneficial results, I anticipate a speedy cure. Doctors Disagree

As to the causes of worms in the stomach and intestines; but there is no dispute as to their eradication by the use of WINER'S CANADIAN VERMIFUGE.

No species of intestinal worms can resist its action, and yet it is harmless as milk. In fact is acts as an emollient upon the surfaces irritated by the disease, and not only cures the disorder but removes all its unpleasant consequences.

Lea & Perrins' WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

The attention of Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Eating Houses, Caterers for Clubs, Mess-rooms, and Private Families, is commended to a trial of Lea & Perrins' famous Worcestershire Sauce. This condiment by its own merits has attained the highest rank as a pleasant, palatable, and wholesome Sauce, applicable to soup, fish, hot and cold meats, game, etc., etc., is extensively used in all quarters of the globe.

The numerous "imitations" on both sides of the Atlantic speak loudly of its merits; and the fact that it received the only Medal awarded to foreign Sauce at the New York Exhibition attests the estimation in which it is held by those selected with special reference to their ability to judge of the quality of similar articles of table use. And being the most popular Sauce in the market, unprincipled parties are offering for sale spurious Sauce by slightly varying the spelling of "LEA & PERRINS," only Proprietors of the Genuine Sauce.

A stock always in store. Also orders received for direct shipment from England.

W. P. COLEMAN, Esq:

Dear Sir—The twenty-four inch Mill which I purchased from you for Mr. T. J. Packwood's plantation, has been attached to the sugar-mill engine, and put in operation last week. I am much pleased with it in every respect, both in regard to its simplicity, durability, and quantity it grinds. I timed the mill when in operation several times, and found to my surprise that the mill was grinding one bushel per minute; I therefore expect the mill to grind regularly thirty bushels per hour with ease. To Sugar Planters I would especially recommend your Mills believing them to be superior to any mill ever manufactured.

Yours, respectfully,

E. Carver Company's PATENT IMPROVED COTTON GINS.

The undersigned, sole manufacturers under E. CARVER'S patents of 1838, 1845 and 1848, have permanently established an Office and Warehouse at No. 70 GRAVIER STREET, and are now prepared to furnish to Planters and Merchants any size of this celebrated GIN.

They deem it unnecessary to detail its advantages over others, as its numberless endorsements by practical authorities, now using it, are sufficient to confirm its high reputation, and to make its adoption still more general.
