MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW-YORK, Nov. 24, 1860.

Proclamation.—In accordance with custom and the proclamation of the Governor of the State, it becomes my duty, as Mayor, to recommend to the people of this city the observance of THURSDAY, the 29th inst., as a day of "Thanksgiving and Prayer."

While in my judgment the country, either in its political, commercial or financial aspect presents no features for which we should be thankful, we are yet called upon by every consideration of self-preservation to offer up to the Father of all mercies devout and fervent prayer, for His interposition and protection from the impending evils which threaten our institutions and the National interests of the people.

Therefore, acknowledging our dependence on Almighty God, and deeply sensible of our own unworthiness, let the day set apart as Thanksgiving be observed by the people of this city as one of humiliation and supplication—not omitting in our prayers the expression of hope that those who have, in violation of the Federal compact, unpatriotically and unwisely inflicted these injuries upon us, may be the only sufferers by their own wickedness and folly.

[L. S.] Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid. FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.

A BRILLIANT WORK.
The extraordinary career of Garibaldi is filling the civilized world with interest in the man. Yet no complete and reliable record of his life has yet been produced. To meet this want an arrangement was made with a well-known writer and editor to prepare the required work. It will be ready SATURDAY, Dec. 3, and the publishers have no hesitancy in saying it is one of the most brilliant books ever produced in this country. Its pages are all alive with the spirit of Garibaldi's wonderful experiences; while, in the authenticity and completeness of its narrative, it may truthfully be pronounced the only correct Biography of the man.

This charming Book is the first of a new series to be issued by BEADLE'S DIME PUBLISHING HOUSE, which will comprise Biographies of some of the most eminent men of modern times—Statesmen, Commodores, Generals, Writers, &c. This Life of Garibaldi is the avant courier of the series, every book of which will possess its beauty of narrative, its accuracy, and unexceptionable text.

FROM THE DAILY WORLD OF SATURDAY LAST.

"We now announce that on and after Monday next the price of The World will be two cents per copy."

In connection with the failure of this last attempt to establish a penny daily in this city in opposition to THE SUN, the publisher of that paper presents the following selections from a list of some seventy journals which have failed in a similar effort since the establishment of THE SUN in 1833.

As an item from the unwritten history of journalism it will be found interesting, while it may, at the same time, furnish a useful hint to those whose taste for the expensive luxury of opposition to established institutions is likely to develop itself in future.
