D., No. 19 West 26th-st., in order to join the obsequies of their lamented associate and instructor, Prof. CHARLES W. HACKLEY. CHAS. KING, President Columbia College.

Columbia College, President's Room, Friday, Jan. 11, 1861.—At a special meeting of the Faculty of the College the death of Prof. HACKLEY having been notified by the President to the Board, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the death of the Rev. CHARLES WILLIAM HACKLEY, S. T. D., Professor of Astronomy in this College, we have lost a friend and brother Professor, with whom long associated in the exercise of the academic duties of instruction and government, we have ever found the courtesy of the gentleman, the accomplishments of the scholar, and the gentle sentiments of the Christian.

Resolved, That in the sudden removal of one of our number from the scene of his earthly labors we read the lesson of a higher wisdom than human science can give—the lesson of daily preparation for the second we must render of time and talents committed to our charge.

Resolved, That in the fact of this being the first removal by death among the acting officers of the College since the death of President Harris in 1849—the long period of thirty-one years—we realize a merciful overruling Providence calling us who remain to a deeper sense of thankfulness for life preserved and a more earnest devotion to the duties to which we are here called, and for which life itself is given.

Resolved, That as a body we attend the funeral and wear the usual mark of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolutions, together with the expression of the deep sympathy of his brother Professors, be officially remitted to the family of Prof. Hackley.

A true copy from the records of the Board.

CHAS. KING, LL. D., President of Columbia College.

OFFICE OF CLERK OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, Jan. 11, 1861.

At a meeting of the Board, held Jan. 11, 1861, the following message was received from the Mayor, laid on the table, and directed to be printed in the Daily News, Transcript, and Tribune:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, New-York, Jan. 11, 1861.

To the Honorable the Board of Supervisors.

GENTLEMEN: I return herewith to your honorable body a resolution authorizing the Board of Police to pay out of any moneys in their possession not necessary to pay the salaries of Policemen for 1860, the bills incurred "for the cleansing of tenement houses," without my approval.

Although the conferring of judicial functions on a body not elected by the people, would seem to be contrary to the provisions of the State Constitution, and the arming of the Police with the power of making domiciliary visits is repugnant to the principles of the common law and the feelings of the public, yet I place my principal objection to the resolution in question on another ground.

I have already had occasion to consult the legal adviser of your honorable body on this subject, and I am advised by him that, under the sections of the Police Act, relative to "the cleansing of Tenement Houses," no lien can be created upon the premises thus cleansed. The expense of cleansing falling thus exclusively upon the public, I have no alternative but to return the resolution for reconsideration.

THE ILLUSTRATED HORSE DOCTOR.

D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 443 and 445 Broadway,

NOW READY:

THE ILLUSTRATED HORSE DOCTOR;

BEING AN ACCURATE AND DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE VARIOUS DISEASES TO WHICH THE EQUINE RACE ARE SUBJECTED; TOGETHER WITH THE LATEST MODE OF TREATMENT, AND ALL THE REQUISITE PRESCRIPTIONS. WRITTEN IN PLAIN ENGLISH.

By EDWARD MAYHEW, M. R. C. V. S., Author of "The Horse's Mouth," "Dogs: Their Management," Editor of "Blain's Veterinary Art," etc., etc.

ILLUSTRATED WITH MORE THAN 400 PICTORIAL REPRESENTATIONS.

1 vol., 8vo., Cloth, $7 50; Sheep, $8.

A very slight expenditure of humanity would save the equine race from a long list of ills which now are consequent upon mortal ignorance or upon human brutality. It is painful to reflect how many of those affections spoken of as equine disorders might be cheaply eradicated by the more reasonable treatment of the animal which man proverbially extremes to be his most hazardous property.

Cruelty is a very extravagant indulgence. In the writer's conviction humanity toward animals should be more commonly practiced, if not from any higher motive, because it is certainly the truest economy. To make this fact plain is the intention of the present publication. To prove that horses are gifted with something beyond the mere sensation which is common to all moving things is the object of the present work. To convince the public, by appealing to the eye and to the understanding through the means of engravings and of letter-press, that the equine race inherit higher feelings than the vast majority of mankind are prepared to admit, is the purpose of the book now in the hands of the reader. To demonstrate how closely nature has associated man and horse in their liabilities and in their diseases—to induce men, by informing their sympathies, to treat more tenderly the livid life which is disposed to serve and is also willing to love them, is the highest reward the author of the following pages can picture to himself.—[Extract from Preface.

This book will be sent, postage paid, to any address within 3,000 miles on receipt of the price.

THE TRIBUNE for 1861.

PROSPECTUS.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is now in its XXth Volume. During the past year, THE TRIBUNE has been obliged to devote quite a large proportion of its space to Politics, but we shall henceforth be able to limit our space devoted to Political discussion, and devote most of our columns to subjects of less intense, but more abiding, interest. Among these, we mean to pay especial attention to

I.—EDUCATION.

The whole subject of Education, both Popular and General, will be discussed in our columns throughout the year 1861, and we hope to enlist in that discussion some of the profoundest thinkers and the ablest instructors in our country. It is at once our hope and our resolve that the cause of Education shall receive an impetus from the exertions of THE TRIBUNE in its behalf during the year 1861.

II.—AGRICULTURE.

We have been compelled to restrict our elucidations of this great interest throughout 1860, and shall endeavor to atone therefor in 1861. Whatever discovery, deduction, demonstration is calculated to render the reward of labor devoted to cultivation more ample or more certain, shall receive prompt and full attention.

III.—MANUFACTURES, &c.

We hail every invention or enterprise whereby American Capital and Labor are attracted to and advantageously employed in any department of Manufacturing or Mechanical Industry as a real contribution to the Public Weal, inasmuch as more ample, steadier, more convenient, more remunerating markets to the Farmer, with fuller employment and better wages to the Laborer. The Progress of Mining, Iron-making, Steel-making, Cloth-weaving, &c., &c., in our country, and the world, shall be watched and reported by us with an earnest and active sympathy.

IV.—FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

We employ the best correspondents in London, Paris, Turin, Berlin, and other European capitals, to transmit us early and accurate advices of the great changes there silently but certainly preparing. In spite of the pressure of Domestic Politics, our news from the Old World is now varied and ample; but we shall have to render it more perfect during the eventful year just before us.

V.—HOME NEWS.

We employ regular paid correspondents in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain Gold Region, and wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the editorial letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, as our means are steadily enlarged through the generous cooperation of our many well-wishers, we solicit and shall labor to deserve a continuance of public favor.

SHALL WHITE MEN RULE AMERICA?

Ready on Monday:

NEGROES AND NEGRO "SLAVERY." THE FIRST AN INFERIOR RACE—THE LATTER ITS NORMAL CONDITION.

By J. H. VAN EVRIE, M. D.

1 vol., 12mo.; price, $1.

The author of this publication has devoted several years to the great and agitating question of so-called negro slavery, especially to that portion of the general subject embracing the specific character of the negro, and his natural relation to the white man. The results of his investigations are now laid before the public.

The author has presented the arguments bearing on the subject in a popular form, and has avoided, as far as possible the use of scientific terms. In order to make it acceptable to all classes. The time has now arrived when the misconceptions concerning the negro character and the social institutions of the South must be exploded. The confederacy is now crumbling into pieces from the doctrine that an "irrepressible conflict" exists between the Northern and Southern systems of society, when, in reality, they are entirely harmonious in theory, and would be so in practice, if the truth were only revealed concerning the negro.

The work will be sent by mail, postage free, on receipt of price.
