Wheat Shows Sharp Upturn

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Evidence of sharp competition between millers and exporters led to a sharp upturn in the wheat market today. Prices at the finish, although unsettled, were 10¾ to 4¾c net higher, with March $1.42 to $1.42¼ and May $1.27¾ to $1.28. Corn gained ½ to ¾c, oats ¼ to ¾c and provisions 10 to 70c.

On the advance, wheat for May delivery touched the highest price this season. In connection with the upturn in values, particular interest was attached to news that Minneapolis mills were buying hard winter wheat in Nebraska, where of late most of the export shipments of wheat have been obtained. Gossip that Texas mills were after wheat in Kansas and that flour demand showed improvement were additional bullish factors.

Market News

SUGAR.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The local market for raw sugar was somewhat unsettled today. Offerings were consistently quite liberal, although prices were steadily held at 4¾c for Cubas cost and freight, equal to 5.53 for centrifugal. The only sales reported were 12,000 bags of Cubas, prompt shipment, and 5,000 bags of Porto Rico, due next week, all at the equivalent of 5.52 for centrifugal.

No new changes occurred in refined sugar, which is listed at 7.75 to 7.90 for fine granulated.

House forecast were a shade lower under scattered liquidation by commission houses although trading was light. Closing prices were unchanged to 3 points net lower, January, 4.65; March, 4.75; May, 4.84; July, 4.95.

COTTONSEED OIL.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Heavy buying orders in May, attributed to the west, along with the bullish showing in cotton and other commodity markets started several covering of cottonseed oil, with a consequent upturn in prices. Active months closed 14 to 18 points higher. Sales 21,400 barrels. Prime crude, 8.25@8.75; prime summer yellow spot, 10.25@10.50; March, 10.15; May, 10.32; July, 10.38.

COTTON GOODS.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Cotton goods markets were active in the gray goods division with prices higher. Yarns also moved up briskly, but lower prices were made on some staple hosiery lines and further reductions in low and light weight grey goods were reported. Wool goods were quiet, silks improved slowly.

STOMACH O. K.

Indigestion, Acidity, Sourness and Gases ended with "Pape's Diapepsin"

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or a disordered stomach. A few tablets of Pape's Diapepsin neutralize acidity and give relief at once.

When your meals sour lie and ferment uncomfortably, when you belch gases, acids or raise sour undigested food. When you feel limp of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache from acidity, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin and the stomach distress is gone.

The cost is so little. The benefits so great. You, too, will be a Diapepsin enthusiast afterwards.

Cotton Market Closes Steady

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—There was a further reaction in cotton early today, but the market became very firm later, owing to continued strength of January and heavy covering by March shorts. The final tone was barely steady but showed net advances of 20 to 40 points.

Additional January notices were reported, amounting to about 2,000 bales, and evidently brought out some scattered liquidation. This promoted selling of later months. Reports of an easier turn in sterling exchange increased the disposition to take profits at these figures, and closing prices were several points off from the best.

There were early rumors of an outlet spot basis in the southwest, but they were not confirmed and the afternoon advance was continued by reports of a better business in Manchester and firmer domestic goods markets. With reference to waves one room an official announcement was made during the afternoon that the New York cotton exchange had licensed additional space, sufficient to accommodate 25,000 bales now in transit for New York.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—A broad trading market was seen in cotton today, with wide fluctuations both below and above the level of yesterday's close. Price changes were rapid after the middle of the session and at all times the market was swayed easily. The general covering movement among shorts carried prices to their highest levels late in the day, where the more active months stood at net gains of 4 points, but in the last few minutes of the session another break occurred on rumors that the French cabinet had fallen and the close showed advances of only 15 to 25 points.

Talk of small American consumption figures for Friday and bearish predictions of large January tenders in New York helped to pull the market down. For awhile the market had a little support, but in the early afternoon the report that no more warehouse space was available for cotton in New York and that in consequence the movement of spots in that direction would be checked, caused a wave of buying. From then on to the close there was a series of prices.

H. AND B. BEER LETTER.

Special To The Caller.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—Pending further developments in the financial and trade situations, liquidation of the January option, in which important developments are expected in New York, appears to be the dominating factor for the present. There is said to be a large speculative short and hedge interest in the current month in the northern market, the level of which position, which is comparatively high notwithstanding report that about 40,000 bales are scheduled to be delivered on contract in that month during the remainder of this week.

Rumor has it that the long interests in January in New York have bought up all the available warehouse space to date, enough to make it difficult or impossible to make delivery of all the cotton expected from the south for delivery on January contracts.

While this is a local matter so far as New York is concerned, future developments probably will have an important bearing on values one way or another.

Meanwhile the financial situation, domestic and international, continues to improve and there is said to be a probability of the federal reserve banks reducing their interest rate in an effort to stimulate business.

In the meantime, Manchester advices are more encouraging, the first sign of a revival in the cotton trade being noted in the decision of the federation of junior spinners to extend short time in the mills spinning Egyptian cotton to a fortnight instead of a month and in the meantime to take bullish action.

JOHN H. BERNS, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who says his wonderful restoration to health since taking Tanlac has astonished all his friends, has gained twenty pounds.

"My friends are all astonished over my wonderful restoration to health since taking Tanlac," said John H. Berns, of 365 East Front St., Cincinnati, Ohio, recently.

"I don't know what it is, but there is something about Tanlac that certainly does the work," he said, "and I firmly believe if it hadn't been for this medicine I wouldn't be here now. It completely restored my health and I have gained twenty pounds besides. I have a splendid appetite now, and can eat anything I want without being troubled in the least afterwards.

"Before taking Tanlac my health was dreadfully rundown. My main trouble was indigestion, and I suffered misery night and day. I never seemed hungry, and the little I ate upset my stomach. I was nervous and couldn't get a good night's sleep. I lost thirty pounds and was going down hill rapidly. It seemed like the more medicine I took the worse I got.

"But since taking Tanlac I am like a brand-new man. I sleep like a top-hand all night and feel just fine all day. In fact, I'm a perfectly well man once more. Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life."

Tanlac is sold in Corpus Christi by the Hurff Drug Store and the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

Get It Out of Your Head

"Get it out of your head that anything but the supply and the world's ability to buy fixes the price of Cotton."—Dr. Bradford Knapp.

THERE IS NOW ENOUGH COTTON IN THE WORLD TO LAST ABOUT TWO YEARS.

If you can want to plant more cotton after having read the following figures then we must confess we have no more to say. IT IS UP TO YOU.

The ten-year average amount of American Cotton on hand unpaid at the beginning of each fiscal year	1,300,000 Bales
At Aug. 1, 1920, beginning present fiscal year, according to Hester, unpaid American cotton	6,048,000 Bales
Probable amount of American cotton unpaid July 31, 1921, now indicated	8,900,000 Bales or 2,900,000 bales larger than any amount ever carried over before.
The greatest consumption of all kinds of cotton ever shown in single year was than	21,000,000 Bales
The greatest consumption American cotton any one year ever known, was than	12,000,000 Bales
Ten-year average consumption American cotton prior to the great war	13,500,000 Bales
Ten-year average consumption of all kinds cotton including American, prior to great war	17,000,000 Bales
Consumption of all kinds of cotton, 1919-1920, U. S. Census figures	19,181,000 Bales
American crop of 13,000,000 this year indicates a world supply of all kinds of cotton including American of	20,000,000 Bales
The world carry-over may reach a total of, or may exceed	12,000,000 Bales
The world during the present fiscal year is not likely to consume more than	12,000,000 Bales
