Military Notices.

OFFICE OF THE SANITARY COMMISSION, Treasury Building, WASHINGTON, Sept. 26, 1861.

Major-General McClellan has informed the Sanitary Commission that he has determined to immediately establish entirely new accommodations for the care and treatment of fifteen thousand sick and wounded men at Washington. Equally large hospital provision will be needed for the armies of the Ohio and Missis-ippi.

The experience of the Commission has so well acquainted it with the earnest wish of the women of the North to be allowed to work in the National cause, that it is deemed unnecessary to do more than offer to receive their contributions, and to indicate convenient arrangements for the end in view.

It is therefore suggested that societies be at once formed in every neighborhood where they are not already established, and that existing societies of suitable organization, as Dorcas Societies, Sewing Societies, Reading Clubs, and Sociables, devote themselves, for a time, to this holy purpose; that energetic and respectable committees be appointed, to call from house to house, and in towns, from store to store, to obtain contributions in materials suitable to be made up, or money for the purchase of such materials; that collections be made in churches, and schools, and factories, and shops, for the same purpose; that contribution-boxes be placed at post-offices, railroad offices, public houses and other suitable places, labeled "FOR OUR SICK AND WOUNDED;" and that all loyal women meet at such convenient time and places as may be agreed upon in each neighborhood or social circle, to work upon the materials which shall by these means be procured.

DESCRIPTION OF ARTICLES MOST WANTED.

Blankets for single beds.
Quilts of cheap material, about seven feet long by fifty inches wide.
Knit Woolen Socks.
Dressing Gowns or Wrappers, Woolen or Canton Flannel Undershirts and Drawers.
Long, loose fitted Gowns, of Canton Flannel.
Small Hair and Feather Pillows and Cushions, for Wounded Limbs.
Slippers.

Every woman in the country can, at the least, knit a pair of woolen stockings, or if not, can purchase them. In each town let there be concert on this subject, taking care that three or four sizes are provided. Fix upon a place for receiving, and a date when the package shall be transmitted, and send it as soon as possible to the most convenient of the depots of the Commission.

Delicacies for the sick can be advantageously distributed by the Commission. Jellies should be carefully prepared to avoid fermentation, and most securely packed. Many articles of clothing have been injured, in packages here before sent the Commission, by the breaking of jars and bottles. Over every vessel containing jelly strew white sugar to the depth of half an inch, and paste stout paper (not brandied) over the mouth. Jellies sent in stone bottles arrive in the best condition, and there is no difficulty in removing the contents for use. Every bottle, &c., containing jelly should be labeled.

All articles should be closely packed in wooden boxes, or in very strongly wrapped bales, and clearly directed. Arrangements for free transportation should be made, or freight paid in advance. (The Express Companies sometimes convey goods for this purpose at a partial reduction on the usual rates.) Packages may be directed and sent, as is most economical, from any point to any of the addresses below. (For the U. S. Sanitary Commission.)

Receiving Depots will also be established in Philadelphia, Penn., and Quincy, Ill.

Acknowledgments will be made to all those who forward parcels, and a final report to the Secretary of War will be published, recording the names of all contributors, so far as they shall be known to the Commission.

Special Notices.

The Littlejohn Libel Suit.—Dewitt C. Littlejohn against Horace Greeley—damages laid at $25,000—tried at the late Oswego Circuit before Judge Bacon, and fully reported for THE TRIBUNE by J. L. Crosby—is published in a neat, compact pamphlet of 56 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our disastrous war. The New-York legislation of 1860, its engineers, and their instruments. The rulings of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wants to see whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by a bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is not to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The cross-examination of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. B. SEDGWICK, likewise, presents some noteworthy aspects. As political libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the legislation of 1860 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

Republican Central Club.—To SIMEON DRAPER, esq., President.—Dear Sir: I hereby resign the office of Secretary of the Club which I have held since its organization in November last. The time has now arrived, I believe, for every man to cordially unite in the defense of our beloved country. Let all past political differences be forgotten in this hour of trial, and join hands to sustain the Federal Government, and aid it in crushing the Southern Rebels and Pirates. I have, therefore, given up party for the present, and am engaged in the People's Union movement in our city, and in my own (7th) Ward. Trusting that my resignation may be accepted, I remain, yours truly,

My Husband, Mr. O. C. Olsen, was injured on the New-Jersey Railroad, between Newark and Jersey City, on the 27th day of July last, about 6 o'clock p. m., of which injuries he died. Any person that may have been upon the train, who will give me information as to the cause or manner of his injury, will confer a great favor on me. I reside in Boston, but am now stopping in Brooklyn, for the purpose of ascertaining if possible in what manner my husband was injured. Any word left at the office of Nathaniel C. Sluight, counselor-at-law, No. 19 Montgomery-st., Jersey City, N. J., will reach me. AMANDA OLSEN.

Morton's Celebrated Gold Pens.—Improvements made in the machinery for manufacturing Gold Pens, and secured to the subscriber by Letters Patent, have enabled him to overcome the many imperfections hitherto unavoidable in their production, and also to bring the cost within the reach of all. The writing public should know the following facts: Constant writing for six months is done cheaper with Gold Pens than with steel, therefore, it is economy to use Gold Pens. The Gold Pen remains unchanged by years of continued use, while the Steel Pen is ever changing by corrosion and wear; therefore, perfect uniformity of writing is obtained only by the use of the Gold Pen. The Gold Pen is always ready and reliable, while the Steel Pen must be often condemned and a new one selected; therefore, in the use of the Gold Pen there is great saving of time. Gold is capable of receiving any degree of elasticity, so that the Gold Pen is exactly adapted to the hand of the writer; therefore, the nerves of the hand and arm are not injured, as is known to be the case by the use of Steel Pens. He is now selling Gold Pens at prices varying from 25 cents to $1, according to size, the average wear of every one of which will far outlast a gross of the best Steel Pens. Sold by all dealers in the fine throughout the country. Wholesale and retail at the store, No. 25 Maiden-lane, where all orders, inclosing cash or post stamps, will receive prompt attention, and a Pen or Pens corresponding in value, and selected according to description, will immediately be sent by mail or otherwise, as directed. Address

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.
NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to ameliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to expose and commend to day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, than was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meekness and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism, and spoliation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fullness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to "make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.

Remember that he is the most extraordinary creature in the whole animal kingdom—that it is declared in Sacred History (Job, ch. xl.) that "upon the earth there is not his like." It is conceded by every biblical student who sees him, and hundreds have visited him here, and many of the clergy are so interested to him that their visits have been repeated numerous times, that he is "THE GREAT BEHEMOTH OF THE SCRIPTURES" which is so glowingly described in the book of Job.
Who, then, can fail to pay him a visit? Remember that his days here are numbered, and after leaving here
HE WILL NEVER AGAIN BE SEEN IN NEW-YORK.
Hence the importance of embracing this opportunity. He is accompanied by a native Arab keeper, who is also a great attraction to persons who are interested in that oriental race of men.
☞ Besides, may also be seen: The BEAUTIFUL AQUARIA, with its myriads of living fish, and to which have just been added many new specimens, beside a LIVING SEAL, SEA LION, MAMMOTH BEAR SAMSON, THE WHAT IS IT? or, MAN MONKEY, HAPPY FAMILY, &c., beside
TWO SUPERB DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES
EVERY DAY, at 3 and 7½ o'clock, p. m., at each of which is produced the elegant drama,
FAINT HEART NEVER WON A FAIR LADY,
and the laughable and inimitable farce,
THE HAUNTED CHAMBER,
which has never failed to convulse the house with laughter.
During the entertainment, will also appear
MISS TODDT, THE WONDERFUL VIOLINIST,
And MISS DAWRON, in a Patriotic Song.
And, notwithstanding all these novelties and attractions, the price of admission is only 25 cents; children under ten years, 15 cents; while it would cost ten times that amount to see the same things at other establishments.

WINTER GARDEN.
FOURTH AND LAST WEEK
Of the brilliant and beautiful Comedienne,
MRS. JOHN WOOD,
who will appear on
MONDAY, Sept. 30,
in two characters—as
ANNE BRACEGIRDLE,
in the petite Comedy of
THE ACTRESS BY DAYLIGHT,
written expressly for Mrs. Wood. Scene—London. Period—1690.
Also as
CINDERELLA,
in the burlesque of that title, with
NEW SONG AND DANCE.
To crown this closing week of the performances of this, perhaps the most popular and attractive actress who has ever appeared on the New-York stage, the management has pleasure in announcing an engagement with the celebrated Spanish Dancers,
SENORINA ISABELLA CUBAS,
AND
SENOR JUAN XIMENES,
who have appeared with the most unbounded success at the Royal Opera Houses of Madrid, St. Petersburgh, Constantinople, and Vienna, and the Lyceum Theater, London. Speaking of her appearance in London, The Times says: In appearance the Donna Isabel Cubas embodies the idea we have been accustomed to attach to those magnificent Andalusian beauties who have maddened the brains of both Moors and Christians, and have been the theme of some of the most charming compositions of the Spanish muse. Her costumes (for the audience were delighted with two sets of national characteristic dances) were at once simple and costly, and distinguished by the most exquisite taste. Her dancing emphatically belongs to the grandiose school, if we may use the expression, and has nothing in common with that petite elegance which rendered Perea Nena so great a favorite some seasons since; but the energy and activity which we were of course prepared to witness in Spanish dancing is by Donna Isabel subdued by a most exquisite elegance and refinement, which produced so decided an effect upon her audience as to leave us no hesitation in declaring her debut "a transcendent success."
The performances will embrace:
1. A new Medley Overture by Koppitz.
2. The petite comedy of "An Actress by Daylight," in which Mrs. John Wood, Mrs. G. Skerrett, Messrs. A. H. Davenport, and Baker will appear.
3. "The Nightingale Polka" (by desire), by Koppitz and Lothain.
4. A divertisement, entitled "Flor de Seville," in which Senora Isabella Cubas and Don Ximenes will appear, with a full corps de ballet.
5. The musical burlesque of "Cinderella," in which Mrs. Wood will sing her celebrated comic songs:
While they're here, if they interfere,
Wou't we give them a warmer.
And
Whack, row de dow,
Where was you, General Patterson?
Nightly received with
UNBOUNDED APPLAUSE.
In the ball scene, Senora Isabel Cubas and Senor Ximenes will dance "La Gillamilla y el Curro."
SPECIAL NOTICE.—Doors open at 6½; commence at 7½ precisely.

WALLACK'S.
Doors open at 7 o'clock, to commence at 8 o'clock.
ESPECIAL ATTENTION is directed to the announcement that the performances in future will terminate before 11 o'clock.
THE EXTRAORDINARY FACILITIES OF EGRESS were fully evidenced by the fact that the departure of the vast assemblage from the fall of the curtain to the exit of the last auditor, only occupied TWO MINUTES AND A HALF!
NOTICE.—It is respectfully intimated that there will be no free list or complimentary admissions, except only the usual privileges of the press.
