It Pays! It Pays! It Pays!
WHAT PAYS?
It pays to go a little out of the way from the fashionable streets to purchase Plated Ware for family use, such as ICE PITCHERS, TEA SETS, URNS, FORKS, SPOONS. An experience of thirty years in one place, viz: Nos. 4 and 6 BURLING SLIP, enables me to say to my numerous patrons (and they know it), that when they purchase of me, "IT PAYS." Mean well for their trouble. Goods sold wholesale and retail, by LUCIUS HART, Nos. 4 and 6 BURLING SLIP.

Important to Invalids.—Persons afflicted with Chronic Diseases, Nervous Derangements, Female Weaknesses, Dyspepsia, etc., will, by sending their addresses to the INTERNAL MEDICAL AND HEALTH INSTITUTE, No. 67 West 31st-st., receive a circular giving them invaluable information relating to the cause and cure of such diseases.

Second Edition.
The Littlejohn Libel Suit.—Dewitt C. Littlejohn against Horace Greeley—damages laid at $25,000—tried at the late Oswego Circuit before Judge Bacon, and fully reported for THE TRIBUNE by J. L. Crosby—is published in a neat, compact pamphlet of 56 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our disesteem of the New-York legislation of 1860, its engineers, and their instruments. The rulings of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wants to see whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by a bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is not to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The cross-examination of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. B. SEDGWICK likewise, presents some noteworthy aspects. As political libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the legislation of 1860 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things invited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, than was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meekness and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism, and spoliation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit the attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agriculture, Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fullness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to "make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.
