[illegible] Proceedings of the Board of Assistants on inside page.

A Crowd at the Varieties.—For this evening the Varieties offer the first benefit of the season at the Varieties. It is that of Mr. George Jordan, the leading man of the Company, one of the most industrious and popular of that star stock. Besides being a good actor, he is a very clever and agreeable gentleman, and in addition to all these commendations, he offers as a bill for the entertainment of those who intend to benefit him and themselves by visiting the Varieties, Ft comprises Morton's standard comedy of "Secrets Worth Knowing," in which several of the best players of the Company appear; dancing by the Minor Gale and Jackson, and a new farce. Of course the house will be crowded—indeed, there was a rush for tickets when the box office was opened for this entertainment on Wednesday morning.

Masonic Ball.—On the evening of Friday, February 25th, a dress ball will be given at Odd Fellows' Hall, by Royal Kosciuskos Lodge No. 44, for the benefit of the widows and orphans pertaining to it. It will doubtless be an exceedingly pleasant affair, for the entertainment to all that is necessary to insure that it will be so.

Dr. Hale's Entertainments.—Dr. Hale will give his last ladies' matinee to-day at Odd Fellows' Hall, commencing at half-past 11 o'clock, when all of the lady admirers of the Doctor's science will doubtless be on hand to see the last of him in an electro-biographical scene.

To-morrow Dr. Hale will deliver his last children's lecture, at Odd Fellows' Hall, commencing at twelve o'clock, when astonishing and amusing experiments will follow an instructive lecture, adapted to the comprehension of the young ideas in attendance.

Gymnastic.—On Sunday night M. Jolly, second baron of comic opera, will have a benefit, when "La Bergere des Alpes," a five act drama, will be presented for the first time. A one act vaudeville, "Le Cigre aux Marie," will also be performed for the first time.

On Monday night Clappisson's new opera "La Fanchonnette," will be produced by the strength of the company, M'lle Angela Cordier taking the principal role. New costumes from Paris and new scenery by M. Deville, the scenic artist, will aid the success of the representation.

Miss Eloise Burnon.—This lady who has achieved such professional success in this city and elsewhere, advertises that her fourth and last Dramatic, Poetical and Masonic Readings, will be given in the Masonic Hall on the evening of Saturday, February 12th.

The Hutchinsons'.—These renowned acrobats and classical gymnasts are in the city. They are to give their first exhibition, at Concert Hall, Poydras street, on Monday evening. Particulars of their intended doings will be found advertised under an amusement head. The Hutchinson brothers have a high European reputation, and have performed with signal success in the Northern cities.

Jordan's.—It is perhaps needless to call attention to the fact that Jordan's great porcelain bazaar is still open at 97 Camp street, and that the rush upon the establishment still continues, and is bound to continue until the whole stock of elegant goods passes into the hands of citizens, for magnificent, costly, and exceedingly useful prize lots of chinaware are so continually being drawn by fortunate choosers of numbers that people are stimulated to keep trying their fortune, even though for a number of times they may be unfortunate as only to get their money's worth, one dollar worth, for everybody who does not get a set of China worth from $20 to $100 considers himself or herself unfortunate. Everybody who goes into the speculation wants to make more money than the proprietor, and most do get ahead of him; but he keeps in good humor nevertheless, for he has the goods and has made up his mind to let them go in this way—and go they must, he cares not to whom, for somebody has got to get the big prizes for their investments of $2 50 for a cup and saucer. One person has just as good a chance as another in trying their luck by selecting an envelope which entitles them to the great or small prize which the number upon the card within may award to them. It is a straight up and down transaction.

Cock Fight Broken Up.—On the night of the 26th ult. the police visited "Tammany Hall," in Portland street, Boston, and broke up a cock fight in progress between parties of New York and Boston, for five hundred dollars a side. Eight of the principals to the match were arrested, and about two hundred spectators scattered in haste.

Liquors, Tobacco and Cigars.—Messrs. Converse & Co., 74 Gravier street, have in store and for sale a very extensive and various stock of brandies, wines, whiskies, tobacco and cigars, to which they invite the attention of country merchants, their terms of sale being favorable to purchasers. Country merchants would find their interests advanced by accepting this invitation and inspecting the stock of this house, which commands facilities of purchase which enables it to offer facilities of sale.

Sugar Making Machinery.—Mr. E. P. LaVillebeuve, commission merchant 12, Union street, has the sole Agency for the sale of the manufactures of the celebrated Blanchard Works, at Paterson, which turn out approved sugar making machinery of all descriptions. Mr LaVillebeuve is enabled to give accommodating terms in contracting to supply machinery. We refer sugar planters to statements of prices of certain articles made, in advertisement in this paper.

For Memphis.—The U. S. Mail passenger packet Bulfinch, Capt. Wm. Wray, leaves this evening, at 5 o'clock, for Memphis, connecting there with the railroad for the Eastern cities, and also with packets for Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Nashville. Agent for through tickets, J. H. Fright, under the St. Charles Hotel.

Great Sale of Two Hundred Lots of Clothing, Winter Goods, etc.—We call the attention of the trade to the sale of clothing, white shirts, etc., to take place this day at 10 o'clock, A. M., at Blake & Lemmon's auction rooms, No. 17 Chartres street. Terms at sale.

Situations.—Young men who expect to fill good situations, must be qualified to fill such situations. Dolhonde's Commercial College, 106 Canal street, has special apartments and professors for each branch, so as to save the time and money of the students. See advertisement.

Vaccine Matter.—A fresh supply of vaccine matter has been received and is for sale in certain drug stores, which are designated in advertisement.

TALK ON 'CHANGE.

There was nothing of an important character turned up yesterday. There were thousands of people out. Carondelet street and environs were quiet. Though the fine weather brought out every body, there was no inclination to operate largely. Cotton, sugar and molasses are active. The grand depot of the gimlet rangers presents an animating scene at this time; in fine, the whole landing in front of the city for seven miles presents almost lively feature. So it is active and lively at the New Canal and Basin, and business at the Old Basin Carondelet does not lag behind. At the Jackson Railroad there is about as much business doing as can well be attended to, though the receipts of cotton have fallen off largely during the past ten days. The talk is, that the bulk of the cotton is in from the plantations bordering on the road, though the roads to the different forwarding depots are represented to be in a bad condition, interrupting free hauling. At the Carrollton Railroad depot there is a heavy business going forward. A line of steamers now leave every day of the week (excepting Sunday) the lake end of this road, running through to Mobile and Montgomery, Ala. We learn there is as much freight offering as these boats can carry. Some of these boats also have good accommodations for passengers. The through or direct business with the Alabama river is increasing largely. One or two good low-pressure steamers are now wanted to render the communication complete. The Mobilians are, however, opposed and averse to these through lines, being under the impression that it interferes with the local trade of Mobile and dependencies.

On Poydras, Tchoupitoulas, New Levee and Fulton streets, the fine weather of the past two days has created a favorable impress; the streets are drying up fast, and business appears to be active, very active. All fears of any obstruction in the upper rivers from ice or low water are abandoned. Our Western dealers, merchants and traders are in the best humor, being well provided with all the required means and facilities to conduct a mighty business. We can only say to our Western customers, one and all, send forward your produce, come with it—in fact, come one, come all, and see the Crescent City.

Well, we must have some talk about cotton, even if there are seventy thousand bales detained at the mouth of the river. We learn that the ship Pacific, for New York, one of the detained vessels, has got to sea. We hope to hear of other vessels following.

General Wright's circular of the 24th ult. for the last steamer is before us. Want of room has prevented us from alluding to it before. An extract from it, favoring very strongly the sellers' and factors' side, will be found under our financial head. The General, having dropped all figures below 3,700,000 bales, speaks as follows of crop:

This subject seems to lose interest in the more exciting question of price; the talk is, that 3,700,000 bales will not do more than supply the incessant demands for the present year, and that unless the next crop proves a large one, some of this must be kept over. Having adopted as a general thing the large estimates of crop, and feeling the weight in the large stocks everywhere on hand, the fact that prices advanced in the absence of a general demand for England, that so far, under this severe test, there exists great confidence in the article.

The General says: "Unless the next crop (1859, we suppose,) proves a large one, some of this must be kept over." Well, General, how are we to arrive at any conclusion about the next crop till the seed is in the ground, generated, come up and in bloom, before we can ascertain how much of the present crop must be kept over? We entertain fears of the ruinous or great losses which will occur on shipments, and the weak holders in Europe will suffer immense slaughtering. Cotton could have been held better on this side.

There were no regular mails yesterday. The Tehuantepec steamer will be due on Sunday next, and the Asia from Liverpool may be heard from to-day or to-morrow.

RECENT PUBLICATION.

The Ladies' Manual of Fancy Work. By Mrs. Fulton. New York: Dick & Fitzgerald. For sale in New Orleans by Messrs. J. C. Morgan & Co., Exchange and Commercial Places.

The editress of this book is of most extensive information in the matters of which it treats, being, under the nomme de plume of "Aiguillette," authoress of the "Manual of the Wardrobe," "The Court Partial," "Maternal Counsels," etc.; also, editress of "The London Review," "London and Paris Gazette of Fashion," director of "The Work-table" of Frank Leslie's Magazine, Illustrated Magazine of Art, Lady's Companion, Lady's Newspaper, Belle Assemblee, Home Circle, Domestic Magazine, Illustrated London Magazine and Family Friend. The fact of the authoress having held all these positions is endorsement of the excellence of this work, which is a complete lexicon of fancy needle-work, giving a list of material and hints for their selection, advice on making up and trimming, a catalogue of articles suitable for wedding, birthday, and New Year's gifts, and a glossary of French and German terms used in needle-work, not to be found in any dictionary. The book is illustrated with over three hundred engravings of stitches, patterns, etc., some of them being colored, and very large and handsome. We don't know how the ladies got along without this book, or such a book, and few of them will be without it now that they have an opportunity of securing it.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

The Varieties.—For the benefit of Mr. George Jordan, "Secrets Worth Knowing" will be performed by Messrs. Mark Smith, Davenport, Jordan, Owens, Briggs, Plankett, Sefton, and Miss Susan Denin, Mrs. Bopos, and Mrs. Sefton. A Pas de Trois by Misses A. and H. Gale and Jackson will follow, and the new farce, "Living too Fast," by Messrs. Jordan, Briggs, Morris, and Miss Susan Denin.

The St. Charles.—The Ravel troupe will bring out their inimitable pantomime "Robert Macaire," with François Ravel as Jacques Strop, and H. E. Wells as Robert Macaire. There will be feats on the tight rope, and the pantomime, "Simon's Mishaps," in which François Ravel will perform.

The Amphitheatre.—To-night horse Hiram, the celebrated trained animal which knows how to do more strange things than a proper horse ought, a horse of Southern extraction and Northern instruction, and supposed to be a confirmed abolitionist, in favor of the abolition of equine subjection to man, and the establishment of the order of affairs which Gulliver, the Yehoo traveler, found in the land of the Houyhnhms, will make his first appearance to-night, all the force of the Company likewise appearing.

Armory Hall.—The Christy Minstrels offer a bill which includes many of their best things, if degrees of comparison are allowable where their repertoire contains, as it seems, nothing but what is excellent in the Ethiopian minstrel line.

Odd Fellows' Hall.—Prof. O. S. Fowler will deliver a lecture for gentlemen only, commencing at 7½ o'clock.

Farm for Rent.—One of the most desirable farms on the line of the Jackson Railroad, is offered for rent by advertisement in this paper, to which we refer those interested.

☞ Interesting to Planters.—Planters who design purchasing a Corn and Flour Mill, or who look at improvements in machinery, will do well to call on Mr. HUBBS, at 15 CAMP STREET, and see COLEMAN'S FARM MILL in operation. This mill grinds corn and cob for feed—separating the nutritive from the scaly, indigestible part; grinds the best family meal—sifting while grinding; grinds wheat and bolts it at the same time—making superfine flour; and grinds all kinds of grain with equal facility. It is simple in construction, of great durability, and one can be run by one, two, three or four horses, or by wind, steam or water power, and is double the capacity of any mill not costing more than double its price.

☞ It would hardly do for any one now-a-days to have the temerity to question the excellence of Dr. J. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters for all diseases of the stomach. In cases of Dyspepsia, Bodily Weakness, Costiveness, Dysentery and general derangement of the digestive organs, their many virtues have long since been made plainly apparent. They purge from the system the morbid humors which retard their natural functions, and which bring paleness to the cheek, and suffering to the brow. They banish those clogs upon pleasure, restore the system to high health, and necessarily prove a valuable adjunct to the digestive organs. A trial is all that is needed to establish them in the confidence of the skeptic.

For sale by druggists and dealers generally everywhere.

DIED.

On Thursday, the 3d inst., at 3½ o'clock P. M., after a short and painful sickness, MARY EMILY, aged 5 months and 15 days, youngest daughter of Wallace Scott and his wife Nathalie Hall.

Her funeral will take place from the residence of her father, No. 176 St. Louis street, between Robertson and Villere streets, this day, at 11 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully requested to attend without further notice.

☞ A new Sewing Machine, superior to all others, has been invented, and is now ready to be introduced to the public by the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company. It has been examined by competent judges, and is pronounced to be superior to anything ever invented; in fact, it is the wonder and admiration of every one. Nothing can be more simple, and a child eight years of age can work it with ease. It sews faster than any other machine, and is bound to supersede all others. There is none of the trouble of keeping it in working order that there is in machines of other makers. It does not require the operator to have several pages of printed instructions in order to work it, as is the case with the Wheeler & Wilson machine. There is no leather pad, which is so very troublesome, as in the Wheeler & Wilson machine. It does not require the thread all to be rewound into a complicated little spooler, as is required by the Slout and Wheeler & Wilson machines, as it sews from the original spools just as they are purchased from the stores. The reputation of the machines formerly made by the Grover & Baker Company, is well-known all over the world. Hundreds of the first families in New Orleans, and throughout the South, bear testimony to the superior qualities of the Grover & Baker machines.

In order to place these useful machines into every family, the manufacturers have introduced a perfect machine, suitable for family sewing, at the low price of Fifty Dollars.

All of the leading patterns of the Grover & Baker machines can be purchased at the Southern depot of the Company, No. 11 Camp street, where purchasers will receive all required information.

☞ Weed's Patent Sewing Machine.—We have been often asked which is the best Sewing Machine in use, and to satisfy ourselves have spent some time in examining them all, and now give our opinion to our readers for their benefit.

We purchased one of the above named Machines, and have tried it on every kind of work required in a family, and it gives the best satisfaction, doing its work very rapidly, neatly, and stronger than the usual hand work. It is much harder to rip work done on this Machine than that done in the ordinary way. It is neat and tasty, being very nicely finished, and to all appearance simple, beyond the possibility of getting out of repair by ordinary use. It is very strong and durable, and we are well assured one of them will not wear out in years of constant use. It has already saved tailors' and dressmakers' bills enough in our family to pay its cost, and we think it a very profitable investment, to say nothing of its convenience and the hours of needle work that it saves a mother. We most emphatically pronounce this the best Sewing Machine in use, and the greatest labor-saving invention of the day.

Messrs. WHITNEY & LYON, who are the proprietors of these Machines, have a sales-room at 345 Broadway, New York.

☞ Five Hundred Dollars Reward.—The undersigned having received letters from several merchants of New Orleans, informing him that several unprincipled persons are engaged in bottling and selling a mixed and poisonous liquor under his trade mark—"Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps," put up in bottles with labels, wrappers, and fac-similes of his autograph, or a close imitation thereof, and believing that many others in different cities in the West are engaged in the same felonious business, in defiance of the perils and penalties attached thereto, and to put a stop to the pirating of his trade mark, he now offers a reward of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS for such evidence as will lead to the detection and conviction of any person or parties implicated in the crime.

The reward will be paid to any person that may have been innocently employed in the manufacture of such counterfeits, either as a wrapper, labeler, printer, engraver or bottle maker, upon their legal conviction of the guilty employer. And such persons are hereby cautioned against engaging or continuing in such criminal employment after the present notice. They are also hereby informed that all orders for bottles or moulds, engraved blocks or printers' work, to be used in the preparation of such counterfeits, are felonious, even though they bear the name of the undersigned, unless the articles so ordered are to be delivered at his principal depot, 22 Beaver street, New York. And all persons thus engaged in aiding and abetting the manufacture or sale of such counterfeits, after the present notice will be held amenable to the law.

All communications to be addressed to me, to the care of Messrs. BUNNELL & BAILIEFF, New Orleans.

Special Notice to Planters
IN REFERENCE TO McCOMBS' IRON TIE.

If there are now, or shall be hereafter, in the city any Planters who have been charged extra on cotton bound with "McCombs' Iron Tie," the present season, we would respectfully request them to call at our office, No. 72 Poydras street, or advise us where they may be seen. And others who may have been prevented from using Iron Bands because of threatened difficulty therewith, would do well to examine into the matter while on the spot where these difficulties are SAID TO ORIGINATE—in doing which we do not think it presumptuous to ask a hearing, as we are preparing to furnish a large amount of Iron for the next crop, at a reduction in price, and are prepared to show the absurdity of objections hitherto urged, so far as they pertain to the McComb Tie.

Saving Time.

Next to the saving of money, the saving of time is indispensable. Whenever work is to be performed it is of great use to economise our time. In a new country, also, every moment is of importance, and whatever occurs by which our time is wasted should be avoided. If one of our servants or negroes only gets his hand chopped with an ax, which renders him unfit for work it matters very much indeed whether he is helpless for a day or for a month, and any process by which a cure could be effected in a day in place of thirty days, would be something worth knowing. Then, in the case in question, if the wound was only left to itself, it might never heal, but on the other hand, if you at once apply DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, then an immediate cessation of pain ensues, and inflammation ceases. The wound assumes a fine, healthy appearance, and in place of being laid up for perhaps a month, a day will suffice to make all things right again. Now to save your time, which is saving money, keep DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR always on hand.
