Third Edition.

The Littlejohn Libel Suit.—Dewitt C. Littlejohn against Horace Greeley—damages laid at $25,000—tried at the late Oswego Circuit before Judge Bacon, and fully reported for THE TRIBUNE by J. L. Crosby—is published in a neat, compact pamphlet of 56 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our dissatisfaction of the New-York legislation of 1860, its engineers, and their instruments. The rulings of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wants to see whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by a bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is not to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The cross-examination of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. B. SEDGWICK, likewise, presents some noteworthy aspects. As political libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the legislation of 1860 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.
