At a Meeting of the Board of Officers of the 69th Regiment, N. Y. S. M., held at the Regimental armory, on the 13th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were reported by the Committee on Resolutions, and unanimously adopted:
Whereas, Captains James Kelley and Patrick Kelley, late of this regiment, have tendered to us their resignation as officers, and in doing so have informed us of their appointment as Captains in the 13th Infantry, regular service; and whereas, while we regret to be deprived of their distinguished and valued association, we are gladdened at the appreciation of their soldiery, patriotism and general merit, of which the President of the United States has given evidence by such appointment; therefore Resolved, That their resignations be accepted, in accordance with their request.
Resolved, That we hereby express our regret at being separated from them, but sincerely hope and confidently trust their future career will be as honorable and distinguished as their conduct and bearing in the 69th have been meritorious and gentlemanly.
Resolved, That we congratulate Captains James and Patrick Kelley on the honor done them by the Government, and the Government on having secured the services of gentlemen as officers so worthy of the trust and honors conferred to them.

Third Edition.
The Littlejohn Libel Suit.—Dewitt C. Littlejohn against Horace Greeley—damages laid at $75,000—tried at the late October Circuit before Judge Bacon, and fully reported in THE TRIBUNE by J. G. Crosby—is published in a neat, cheap pamphlet of 16 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the truth of the evidence collected in the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAAC T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of the character and of the grounds of our client, and of the New-York association of men, its engineers, and their instruments. The charge of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wants to see whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by a better political and general adversary, who knows that he is not to be unseated, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The cross-examination of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. E. SEDGWICK, Sherman, presents some noteworthy aspects. As political libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the litigation of such is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find the pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

"NOT ENOUGH POOR TUNES IN IT TO SERVE AS LAND-MARKS."
We have already received a large number of letters, mostly from music teachers and leaders of choirs, giving their opinions as to
ASAPH: Or, THE CHOIR BOOK,
The new collection of Sacred and Secular Music.
By LOWRIE and WILLIAM MASON.
The testimony is all on one side, and, as no principle of selection occurs to us, we will take the letters as they come, giving a short extract from each of as many as we can afford space for.
The Singing School Department is the best of any I have yet seen; and as to the anthems, motets, &c., original and otherwise, they are far ahead of the latter-day clap-trap.—[J. A. J., Montour Co., Pa.
We prefer it to any music book we have seen since "Carmina Sacra."—[E. S., Tioga Co., N. Y.
I think it the most perfect music-book I have ever seen—that it surpasses all other books for choir service.—[R. P. L., Orange, Vt.
The best book ever published. I have introduced it into my schools.—[T. M., Rock Co., Wis.
To my mind much superior to anything of the kind since Carmina Sacra and Carmina Laudis.—[L. W., Brooklyn, N. Y.
I think, unequivocally, that ASAPH, in its variety and fresh newness, will please all who sing.—[J. C. W., Troy, N. Y.
I have spent many pleasant and profitable hours over its pages, so rich with new and choice music.—[Rev. E. H. H., Lincoln, Vt.
The rich harmony and natural flowing melody are inspiring and awaken immediate interest, and must become popular in all places where introduced.—[J. B., Jasper Co., Mich.
It is excels in one point more than others, it is in the simplicity and thoroughness of its elementary department.—[W. G., Longswamp, Pa.
It sparkles with choice gems.—[A. S. R., Cincinnati, Ohio.
It has cheered me, and I love it.—[A. B., Chautauqua Co., N. Y.
This book I can say is the best of all books for choirs, singing-schools, musical societies and conventions, that I have examined.—[H. M. D., Greenfield, Ohio.
I believe it the best book of the kind extant.—[N. S. B., Methuen, Mass.
One of my best singers said, while we were singing from it, that "there were not enough poor tunes in it so far to serve as land-marks."—[N. S. H., Cass Co., Mich.
Not only is there the greatest variety, but the quality is of the highest order in every department. It has more than met my fullest expectations.—[J. A. M., Andover, Mass.
The best work I have ever seen so used.—[J. G. L., La Porte City, Ind.
It is decidedly superior to any singing-book yet published. It is really a feast of good things.—[R. P. B., West Cambridge, Mass.
I value it above all the music-books I have.—[D. H. W., Johnstown, Pa.
The best collection, both in point of style and variety, which I have seen.—[S. E. P., Campello, Mass.
I consider it decidedly the best choir-book published.—[J. R. E., Springfield, Ill.
