This is the original panorama [illegible] Dr. Kane's voyages, and has never before [illegible] exhibited in New Orleans, all others with that [illegible] are but, merely imitations of this very [illegible] and truthful work. A CAUSED ADMISSION.

In referring to the Fugitive Slave Law, and the impossibility of its execution in the Northern States, the New York Times, of the 5th inst., makes the following candid admissions:

The hardy with which any attempts are mentioned of this character now seem to meet their most serious obstacle in the fact, that the South is convinced of the all-but impossibility of enforcing the act. Right or wrong, the North will not suffer its operation within its borders. No amount of legal or constitutional law seems likely to shake its determination on this score, and for this reason the very rarity of these attempts makes them all the more mischievous. If they recurred every day people might get used to them and submit, with no matter how bad a grace; but occurring only once a year, or thereabouts, they simply irritate and excite.

In another part of the same article this high Northern authority observes: "Whether that law be constitutional or unconstitutional, moral or immoral, does not affect the question."

The candid and unqualified admissions of the Times cover the main points in controversy between the North and the South. Pursuant to the express warrant of the Constitution of the Confederacy the Fugitive Slave Law was passed by Congress and signed by the President. Its complete constitutionality has never been questioned. The principle it enforces has been fully and unequivocally sustained by the supreme judicial tribunal of the land, which exercises sovereign legal jurisdiction on questions of this character alike in Maine and Louisiana. Yet, in face of this, and of the fact that this is supposed to be a Government of laws, founded upon and flowing out of a common compact, in which all the powers of sovereignty are admirably arranged and subdivided so as to secure the rights of all in the surest possible manner whilst oppressing none, it is openly and boldly proclaimed, in regard to a particular law, that—"Right or wrong, the North will not suffer its operation within its borders;" and that "whether that law be constitutional or unconstitutional, moral or immoral, does not affect the question."

Thus it will be seen that no matter how right, legal, constitutional and moral a national law may be, which enures to the protection of Southern property, the "North will not suffer its operation within its borders." Recent events in Philadelphia and Cincinnati, to say nothing of the record of the past, dark as it is with deeds of disloyalty and bad faith on the part of the North, confirm and strengthen the pronunciamiento oracularly put forth by the New York Times, of which the foregoing extract is the most significant paragraph. The fact is, and it is injudicious, if not positively dangerous, for the Southern people to delude themselves with a contrary belief, our common organic law which was framed for the protection of all is as waste paper or a rope of sand when, in anywise in their behalf it conflicts with the interests, prejudices or caprices, of an overwhelming majority of the Northern people. In other words, it possesses no vitality at all, except when it is construed to enforce and subserve the pecuniary advancement of the North, and is made an instrument to further and give efficiency to the alms, ends, robberies and fanaticisms of the masses there. The laws of Congress enacted in pursuance of the Constitution, the decisions of the Supreme Court, and the power of the Executive department of the Federal Government, have all been tried and found utterly wanting when opposed by the black hordes of Abolition. This may be deemed strong language, but it is just as true as it is strong. No man having a particle of reputation worth preserving will dispute a solitary allegation brought forward. All is truth—melancholy truth—dismal truth.

The laws being inadequate to their own enforcement now, when we have a Congress, a Supreme Court and a President to back them up—and all the vast and various influence of the Government to support them—it is not very likely, we imagine, that they will go into active "operation" in Northern "borders," when all this is changed, as it probably will be in less than two years, and open and avowed enemies to all such laws administer the authority of the executive and legislative branches of the Government at Washington. The Supreme Court may remain true to the laws and Constitution sometime longer. But the grand old Judges will soon die off, or the infirmities of extreme age will compel them to resign, and then the Court may be "re-organized," by regular appointment of men who will not scruple to obey the behests of bigotry, instead of discharging their duties according to the laws they have sworn to support.

AMUSEMENTS LAST EVENING.

THE VARIETIES was completely filled for Mr. Jno. Sefton's benefit, the turnout of ladies being very strong—indeed the odor of perfumes and flowers was quite overpowering in the hot house, for it was a "hot-house." "The Lady of Lyons" was the leading feature of the entertainment, and we have seen Miss Combs play Pauline better than she did last night, when she exaggerated these defects in her reading to which we have heretofore adverted, and which are a loudly audible respiration after sentences, and a tendency to ore rotundo declamation in emotional scenes. She acted admirably. The other characters were also well played. In some portions of Claude Melnotte Mr. Jordan exhibited very marked excellence, and Mr. Mark Smith's Col. Damas was fine, of course.

AT THE AMPHITHEATRE "The Forty Thieves" was a pretext which afforded various scenic excitements, and was well done by the Marshes, and worthy a better house than witnessed and heard it.

AT THE ST. CHARLES a considerable crowd assembled to witness the comicalities of the Ravels and everybody was sufficiently well entertained, as is always the fortune of those who patronize the troupe.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

THE ORLEANS.—For the benefit of Mr. John H. Lamothe "Lucia de Lammermoor" will be performed; also, the third act of "Robert le Diable," and the Misses A. and H. Gale and Jackson, of the Varieties, will appear.

THE VARIETIES.—Shakspeare's elegant comedy "Much Ado About Nothing," with the great cast by which it was produced in the beginning of the season, and the farce "Forty Winks," constitute a most attractive bill.

THE ST. CHARLES.—First night of the pantomime entitled "Kim-Ka," in which Gabriel and François Ravel both appear, and third night of "Asphodel," with tight-rope dancing, as usual.

THE AMPHITHEATRE.—The Marsh Juveniles will play "The Serious Family," concluding the entertainment with "The Toodleses"—Timothy Toodles, Master Marsh.

CONCERT HALL.—First night of the exhibition in New Orleans of the original grand panorama illustrative of Dr. Kane's Arctic Voyages.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—Third night of the delightful ladies' entertainment for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, Fourth District.

OPERATIO.—A famous entertainment is announced for to-night, the occasion of the benefit of Mr. J. H. Lamothe, the very popular agent of the Orleans. The performance will commence with the third act of "Robert Le Diable," sung by Messrs. Lonault, Taste, Debrinay, and M'lle Lafranque, and in which Miss H. Gale, of the Varieties, will sustain the part of Helena. After this very attractive bit of entertainment will come Donizetti's grand opera "Lucia di Lammermoor," the characters distributed to the strength of the company and bringing out M'lle Angele Cordier in the role of the unfortunate Lucia. Messrs. Delagrave, Benuce, Debrinay, Metzler and Jolly—the first named artist in the role of Edgardo, in which he is very strong, and M. Beance, the baritone, as [illegible]. In the second act the Misses A. and H. Gale, Jackson, whom professional courtesy will transfer from their up-town scene of frequent triumphs that they may transport the habitues of the down-town Orleans, will proceed to do so by introducing a grand pas de trois, novel and fascinating. It seems to us that a crowded house and a happy beneficiary must be the consequence of the announcement of such a bill as this, but nous verrons. Persons who would secure the seats they may have bespoken must call at the office before 12 o'clock to-day to secure them, as otherwise they will be resold.

NEW LUSITANOS BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—Notice is elsewhere published that the regular quarterly meeting of the New Lusitanos Benevolent Association will be held at their hall, No. 265 Old Levee street, on Monday evening next, when important business will come up.

☞Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge—Prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh. During a practice of more than twenty years, Dr. M'Lane has attended innumerable patients afflicted with every form of worm disease, and was induced to apply all the energies of his mind to the discovery of a vermifuge, or worm destroyer, certain in its effects; the result of his labors is the American Worm Specific, now before the public, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, which is perfectly safe, and may be given alike to children of the most tender age, or to the aged adult; it purges mildly and subdues fever, and destroys worms with invariable success. It is easy of administration, and as it does not contain mercury in any form whatever, no restrictions are necessary with regard to drinking cold water, nor is it capable of doing the least injury to the tenderest infant. An incredible number of worms have been expelled by this great vermifuge.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS. Sold by SCOVIL & MEAD, 111 and 113 Chartres street, New Orleans, Wholesale Agents for the South.

☞Dr. J. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, for the cure of Fever and Ague, is, beyond all controversy, the safest and best remedy that could be used by the afflicted, for all disease of the above nature. The most violent attacks of this dreadful disease have often been prevented by the use of this relicable remedy. The "Bitters" have been used by the proprietor in an extensive practice, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, for a number of years, and its wonderful curative powers are well known both to the press and the public. Those who desire a thorough renovation of their entire system, should not fail to use the "Bitters."

Sold in New Orleans, wholesale and retail, by J. WRIGHT & CO., 21 and 181 Chartres street, sole agents for the Southern States, and to whom all orders should be addressed, and by druggists everywhere. all 2p6t&W

☞A new Sewing Machine, superior to all others, has been invented, and is now ready to be introduced to the public by the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company. It has been examined by competent judges, and is pronounced to be superior to anything ever invented; in fact, it is the wonder and admiration of every one. Nothing can be more simple, and a child eight years of age can work it with ease. It sews faster than any other machine, and is bound to supersede all others. There is none of the trouble of keeping it in working order that there is in machines of other makers. It does not require the operator to have several pages of printed instructions in order to work it, as is the case with the Wheeler & Wilson machines. There is no leather pad, which is so very troublesome, as in the Wheeler & Wilson machine. It does not require the thread all to be rewound into a complicated little spooler, as is required by the Singer and Wheeler & Wilson machines, as it sews from the original spools just as they are purchased from the stores. The reputation of the machines formerly made by the Grover & Baker Company, is well-known all over the world. Hundreds of the first families in New Orleans, and throughout the South, bear testimony to the superior qualities of the Grover & Baker machines.

In order to place these useful machines into every family, the manufacturers have introduced a perfect machine, suitable for family sewing, at the low price of Fifty Dollars.

All of the leading patterns of the Grover & Baker machines can be purchased at the Southern depot of the Company, No. 11 Camp street, where purchasers will receive all required information. fe2 2p3m&W

Chewing Tobacco.

AN IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

In putting up

FINE CUT CHEWING TOBACCO,

Has been adopted by Messrs. E. GOODWIN & BRO., of New York City.

TOBACCO of the very BEST QUALITY is selected, neatly wrapped in TIN FOIL, and PATENT PRESSED.

The great advantages of this over other brands consist in the size of the package, rendering it more convenient to carry in the pocket, and by being PRESSED SOLID it keeps MOIST and FRESH, and improves in quality as it is used; while in other brands, as soon as the package is opened the quality rapidly DETERIORATES—the tobacco growing dry—and littering the pocket, to the great annoyance of the consumer. The Dressing which the Fine Cut Tobacco undergoes in the process of manufacture, frees it from all grit or impurities so objectionable in the use of Plug Tobacco. Chewers will do well to give the Patent Pressed a trial, and judge for themselves.

For sale by Wholesale Merchants, who receive it direct from the Manufacturers.

A Card.

We would call the attention of the public to the fact, as per card below of the Hon. James Boggs, Foreman of Fire Company No. 10, that the "Wood House," covered with our Roofing, remained uninjured by the flames in the fire of the 20th ult., while the adjoining roof and the awning of the Wood House itself both took fire from excessive heat.

SOUTHERN FIRE-PROOF ROOFING COMPANY,
57 St. Charles street, N. O.

The undersigned, Foreman of Fire Company No. 10, being called upon, takes pleasure in stating that on the occasion of the fire at the corner of Gravier and Tchoupitoulas streets, on the morning of the 19th ult., the roof of the Wood House withstood the flames, and that the adjoining premises, similarly situated, took fire and required the utmost exertions of the firemen to save the property. He gives this as his humble testimony in favor of the Southern Fire-Proof Roofing Company, knowing that the roof which took fire was not fit to stand the test of what is claimed for it.

GOLD PLATES!

We have the privilege of referring to several well-known citizens in the city and country, wearing sets of our Masticators, who, from their own personal experience, will substantiate the following statements:

They have each expended from three to fifteen hundred dollars with the most skillful dentists for teeth they could not use, and which were never worn with comfort. On the contrary the Plates made by us adhere AT ONCE FIRMLY, do not drop in talking, eat easy, and feel natural. Metallic plates have no sharp edges to wound the muscles and cause galvanic irritation. They are also far more durable, one-half lighter, and the material resisting acids, they are perfectly sweet and clean. The plate covering the roof of the mouth is almost entirely dispensed with, which is a great advantage to public speakers.

☞Full sets, with gums, $150; without, $100—single Masticators.

☞We extract Teeth without pain.

CELEBRATED

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE

Pronounced by Connoisseurs

—To be—

THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE,

AND APPLICABLE TO EVERY VARIETY OF DISH.

Extract of a letter from a Medical gentleman at Madras, to his brother at Worcester, under date of May, 1851:

"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome Sauce that is made."
