Card.
NEW-YORK, Jan. 25, 1862.
REV. M. D. CONWAY—Dear Sir: Understanding that you are to be in this neighborhood for a few days, and that you have a very carefully prepared statement of facts and arguments respecting Slavery as involved in the present war, we are sure that we speak not for ourselves only, but for many others, when we express a strong desire that your lecture may be heard in New-York.
As one born and nurtured in Virginia in close intercourse up to manhood with slaves and slave-owners, and therefore fully acquainted with Southern Society—as one who has lived in the city of Washington and has frequently come thence laden with the results of fresh observation—as one who, resident for some years in the State of Ohio, has enjoyed large opportunities of studying appreciatingly the sentiments of Northern and Western men, we are persuaded that your thoughts on the vital question now before the country must be more than usually fresh, valuable, and interesting, while we have full confidence that the author of "The Rejected Stone" cannot fail to present his thoughts in a manner to engage the earnest attention of all who are come to hear him.
Hoping that it may be in your power to respond to our request, and begging you to name an evening for the delivery of your lecture, we remain,
Very faithfully, yours,
GEORGE B. CHEEVER, THOMAS J. HALL,
LEWIS FRANCIS, O. B. FROTHINGHAM,
DEXTER FAIRBANK, H. A. HARTT, M. D.

HORACE GREELEY.
The Rev. Mr. CONWAY has replied affirmatively to the above appeal, and the address will be given in the Church of the Puritans, Chrystie-st., on THURSDAY EVENING, Jan. 30, at 7½ o'clock. The Rev. Mr. CONWAY is peculiarly fitted to interest and instruct the masses of the people, as well as those of more intelligence, and if those who desire an enlightened and liberal and practical presentation of this important subject, a more desirable opportunity will not soon be offered.

"The Nation's Golden Hour."
Such is the title of a Lecture to be delivered by the

He has spoken to delight audiences in all the principal cities and towns in Ohio, and audiences of New-York, who have heard his lecture in private, have felt it to be a duty to their fellow-citizens and to their impoverished country to provide for its public delivery here.
