A GOOD ARGUMENT.

In a recent anti-slavery article the London Times uses an argument which retorts upon its own propositions with telling effect, and really is so transparent that one can scarcely help being of the opinion that the "thunderer's" usually keen wits were wool gathering when it committed so fatal an error. In judging strenuously against the institution as the brutal source of political and social evils, the Times arraigns it as an agency which keeps up the price of labor, free labor—remarking that "at this moment labor is dearer in Louisiana than in the Northern States of the Union, high as the rate stands in those parts." By this argument and the undeniable proof which it cites in confirmation, the Times annihilates the most cherished, specious and generally popular of the stereotyped sophisms advanced in denunciation of slavery, viz: that the employment of slaves takes the bread from white men's mouths, that the low rates of slave labor make it impossible for white labor to compete with it, and that thus slaveholders are enriched while non-slaveholders are impoverished, and the general prosperity of the country injured by the discouragement thus opposed to the growth and consequence of the industrial classes of society. The Times really must have come to the conclusion that the masses of England are not worth pleasing, and so is seeking to commend itself to the aristocratic class.

It has obligingly proved what upholders of the institution have always advocated and maintained by the facts which it has now instanced, that so far from slave labor exercising a ruinous competition with white labor, the effect is just the contrary, and white labor is better remunerated in the slaveholding than in the free States. It has always been so and always will, for the walks of slave and white labor are diverse and the two interests never clash, each traveling in their appointed channel with the utmost harmony. Cheaply and successfully the peculiar agriculture of the South is carried on by slave labor, and wherever white labor demands employ it receives it at remunerative rates, no matter what the department in which it is in requisition. "At this moment labor is dearer in Louisiana than in the Northern States of the Union, high as the rate stands in those parts." "I thank thee, Jew," etc.

A French Balloon Ascension.—Madame Poitevin, widow of the well-known aeronaut, recently made a balloon ascension at Rouen, (France,) accompanied in the car by her assistant in the costume of Sancho Panza, while below was suspended a donkey, mounted by a new Dulcina del Toboso, whose white toilet was visible when the balloon itself could hardly be perceived. The descent was effected in safety at Franqueville.

Passing the Rubicon.—A belle at a down-east husking frolic, on being asked by a young farmer if he might kiss her, answered: "Not till you have complied with the rules, and passed the ruby-corn."

☞Chills and Fever! Chills and Fever!! Chills and Fever!!—One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which has received the highest encomiums from the press and the people, is Dr. J. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS. Who would endure the fearful sufferings from this terrible disease, when it can be so easily cured? Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fevers and ivy chills alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families linger out a painful existence under this deadly blight, and do nothing but gulp down quinine, until it becomes as common as their daily meals; and yet they are not relieved. None but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony.

Sold in New Orleans, wholesale and retail, by J. WRIGHT & CO., 21 and 151 Chartres street, sole agents for the Southern States, and to whom all orders should be addressed, and by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. se27 2p6t&W

☞Worth Reading and Thinking about—BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN—Designed for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family, having superseded the so-called "Gins," "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," etc., is now endorsed by all the prominent physicians, chemists and connoisseurs as possessing all those intrinsic medicinal qualities (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an OLD and PURE GIN. Put up in Quart Bottles, and sold by all Druggists, Grocers, etc.

☞For Sale by O. O. WOODMAN, B. JOURDAN, G. H. MORISON, E. B. WHEELOCK & CO., R. GUILLOT, New Orleans. jy23 2ply

☞Startling Discoveries have been made within the past few years, by eminent French and German chemists, concerning the great difference in the quantity and quality of iron in the blood, and it has been found that prevalent cases of female debility, loss of healthy complexion—chlorosis, flour albus, etc—impurities of the blood and general prostration were occasioned by the diminished quantity of iron in the blood. The most eminent physicians of Paris, London, Vienna, and recently of New York, have adopted Dr. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE PILLS and Aperient and Stomachic preparation of Iron, by hydrogen, and are now prescribing them with most extraordinary success. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow their use. As a grand stomachic and general restorative it has no superior and no substitute.

For sale by all Druggists. Price, 50 cents per box, containing 50 pills. Sent free by mail on receipt of price. Principal office, 359 Broadway, N. Y. R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents. Wholesale and retail in New Orleans, by J. WRIGHT CO., 21 and 151 Chartres street. se7 2p&wAW

The Weekly Southern Clarion,

Published at Magnolia, Columbia county, Arkansas, by Messrs. TURNER & O'BRYAN, and edited by GEO. MEEK TURNER, is most respectfully offered to the business men of New Orleans as one of the best mediums in this section of country through which to advertise.

GEO. MEEK TURNER was raised in North Louisiana and Eastern Texas, and has, in those two sections, perhaps, a more extensive acquaintance than any other man south of Marsh and Dixon's line. The circulation of the "Clarion" in North Louisiana and Eastern Texas is already large, and is increasing daily. It has a general circulation in South Arkansas second to no country paper published in the State. Our paper being established upon a firm basis, and our prices for advertising being extremely low, we most respectfully solicit a liberal share of patronage, promising, at the same time, to use our utmost endeavors to forward the interests of our patrons.

All letters relating to the editorial or business department of the paper, must be addressed to Getting out of Town.

Many people think that when they get individually out of town, there is no one in town. Yet, foolish people, when nine-tenths of such are gone, they would scarcely credit they are not missed. We don't say numerically, but we mean intrinsically. This is the rub. Now, their departure is something like the departure of rats after using

Dr. Wilson's Rat Exterminator.

The only difference is in the means employed to banish animals. The rats step out and cannot return from the silent bourne. The people same; return if they are not blown up in steamboats, or that a rail car does not quarrel with a mountain.

Our business, however, is with rats, and we don't hesitate to state that when

is spread on bread and toasted on, the rats blow up without any steam whatever, and tenements become cleared at once.
