BY NIXON & ADAMS.

OFFICE, No. 75 CAMP STREET.

Daily Crescent, $10.....By the Week, 20 cents.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 13, 1859.

MR. C. H. DERBY, purser of the steamship Philadelphia, has our thanks for late papers, memoranda, etc.

MR. E. J. HALLOWAY, Agent of Adams & Co.'s Express, has our thanks for favors.

DEATH OF DOCTOR TIFFIN.—Dr. Clayton Tiffin, an eminent physician, and for the last fifteen years a resident of this city, breathed his last yesterday morning, in the 70th year of about seventy years. His [illegible] was intellectual, and whilst his family and [illegible] were in a fair way of recovery, he was suddenly taken with a hemorrhage which resulted in death.

Dr. Tiffin was eminent in his profession as long ago as the year 1812, when he was a surgeon in the U. S. Army, during the war then raging. The close of the war left him one of the pioneers in the then Indian country of Illinois, between which State and Missouri he became widely known and esteemed, not only for his professional ability, but for his personal worth as a citizen, a gentleman, and a friend. He was one of those who, in the calm of professional duty, was never found wanting, even when there was no prospect of fee or reward; and many, now prosperous, will sigh upon hearing of the death of the good old doctor, a name long forgotten in the turmoil of years, the remembrance of whose death will recall the days when he was in his prime, and when, as ever since, his hand and head were open as the sun to the needs of the unfortunate. Throughout his long and eventful life his name was the synonym of integrity and humanity.

In St. Louis and in other places, as well as in this city, the announcement of Dr. Tiffin's death will be received with sincere regret. But this regret will be tempered by the consolatory reflection that he passed away peacefully, like an honorable to himself and with [illegible] Almighty, and that in the dread moment of his departure he will face the Great Maker with a pure heart and an unstabbed conscience. He leaves a family and a host of friends to mourn his unexpected demise, and to pay him the tribute due to his worth.

NEW GOOD CHEAP OF HIM.—We say this to the unfortunate and with reference to our learned and good friend Dr. Hale, the eminently successful professor of the science of electro-biology, who is about publishing that city the professional visit which he has been doing it so long. It will be found that his lectures and experimental illustrations are of the most entertaining and instructive character, and we predict and hence for the Doctor as large a measure of success as he enjoyed in this and other cities.

THE ARCHBISHOPS.—The Bucklays were excessively amusing and musical last night, as usual, while Buckley made one of his frequent desperate attempts on the sobriety of the auditory, and accomplished, in complete overthrow by recounting an exceedingly thrilling and even harrowing synopsis of the life and death of one of Sylvanus Cobb's stories in the New York Ledger. It was fearful, and doubtless many, before the end of several of the listeners had fallen, Phillips bethought himself to say "to be continued next week," just as he had arrived at the critical point of the fate of the hero and heroine. We cannot but offer a free bill for to-night, and we recommend it to all who would spend an hour pleasantly.

NEW ORLEANS BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—Notice is published over the signature of Mr. Secretary Sachsle, that the regular annual meeting of the New Orleans Benevolent Association will be held on Monday next, at 8 o'clock P. M., at the hall, No. 108 Old Levee street, when an election for the choice of President and Collector for the ensuing year will be held.

VERY VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND AT PRIVATE SALE.—We call the particular attention of purchasers, and those desirous of investing in valuable lands—the very best investment in the world—to an advertisement of Mr. J. B. Walton, Auctioneer, No. 10 Bank Place, in this issue of our paper. He advertises that he has to offer, at private sale, one of the choicest plantations of land in one of the choicest parishes of the State. It is in the parish of Iberville, not far from the city, is richly and heavily studded with an immense growth of cypress, and the quality of the soil is equal to any in the parish. The terms, which are considered are quite reasonable, may be ascertained at the office of the auctioneer.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.—It is scarcely necessary that we should mention the fact that the immense and popular establishment "Southern Clothing Establishment," of Mr. L. W. Lyons, Nos. 26, 28 and 30 St. Charles street, is fully replete with a vast assortment of all sorts of garments and furnishing goods, for the enterprising character of the house is well known, that to learn the latest styles one only has to visit it, knowing that if the news of the new style has had time to arrive the style itself has had also, and will be found at Lyons'. He deals both wholesale and retail, and half a dozen ordinary stores might be stocked from the goods in his vast establishment without exhausting them. He sells largely, and therefore can afford to sell cheaply, and so he does. Give him a call when you are looking up your fall and winter outfits, and you will be able to suit your fancy and your funds, if they be scanty. See advertisement.

A CARD.—Parents and merchants who wish to give a business or their sons or clerks will see that Dolbear's Commercial College is removed and reopened in the spacious edifice, "The Story Building," corner of Camp and Common streets. Ladies and gentlemen should not fail to give it a call. A quarter of a century of success should be sufficient testimony. See advertisement.

BOOTS, SHOES, BROGANS AND CLOTHING.—The attention of buyers is called to the large sale of boots, shoes, brogans and clothing, to take place this day at 10 o'clock, at the auction room of R. Roger & Co., No. 28 Old Levee street. Terms at sale.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF FRENCH SHIRTS, HATS, ETC. The particular attention of buyers is called to the large sale of French shirts, carpet bags and hats, to take place this day at 10 o'clock, at R. Roger & Co.'s auction room, No. 28 Old Levee street. Terms at sale.

DOLBEAR COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—Removed to the new and spacious edifice known as the "Story Building," corner Camp and Common streets. Citizens and strangers are invited to visit the College.

A HAPSBURG FOR MEXICO.

The Washington States vouches for the reliability of information which it publishes, and which is to the effect that Austria and France are in negotiation with the object of adjusting matters between themselves so that they can properly combine upon a plan for placing the late Grand Duke of Tuscany, Ferdinand IV, upon a throne to be established in Mexico, the foundations of which the church party are now busily laying. The Emperor wants the territory of the Arch Duchy of Tuscany to form part of the new Kingdom of Etruria, which he is carving out for Prince Napoleon, and this disposition of Arch Duke Ferdinand's heritage of course turns him out of house and home, much to the delight of the people, but much to the disquietude of Austria. If Austria will consent, though, to the expropriation of the Arch Duke's domains, France is ready to pledge her aid in providing him with a proper settlement in America, placing him on the splendid throne of the Montezumas, for which position, backed by France and Austria, he should be well content to exchange his tinsel and dependent authority in Tuscany.

The States in the most emphatic manner pledges itself to the truth of these statements which it receives through a distinguished gentleman and under circumstances which render them entirely unimpeachable. The negotiating commissioner in Europe of the Mexican Church party is Signor Guttierez Estrada, a person of well-known ability, and he has been for some years endeavoring to form an alliance between some European power and the Mexican hierarchy, with a view to having Mexico created into a monarchy, and Church and State inseparably united. All the royal heads entitled to crowns happened to be supplied with that emblematic adornment until this fortunate contingency of recent occurrence turned Ferdinand IV adrift, leaving to his brother sovereign and relative of Austria the responsibility of providing for him. Austria desired to get him back into his comfortable berth in Tuscany, but the people objected, and Louis Napoleon objected, because he wanted the warm nest for his cousin. At this critically favorable juncture Mr. Plenipotentiary Estrada stepped in with his polite invitation from the hierarchy of Mexico to suffer it to take care of the kingdomless Hapsburg, and provide him a throne worthy of his merits as a tyrant and of his birthright as one of the hereditarily anointed. Signor Estrada was conducted to St. Sauveur, where Napoleon, in imperial retirement, is patching up his health, and presented by Prince Metternich, the Austrian Embassador to France. Should the arrangement be carried out, Miramon will not be in the way of the immediate succession of this new North American Emperor, for he is but the tool of the church and is prepared to vacate his post of Director at once to make way for the founding of imperial authority. He is privy to all the negotiations which have his deposing for their object, and, we presume, thinks he will fare better as prime minister to an Emperor, than as President of an impoverished faction waging one side of a civil war.

All these little arrangements, which we are told in a great many more words than we have used are indubitably in progress, may seem to the negotiators to be very nice and very easily to be carried out, but it is likely that difficulty may be encountered from a source which no apprehension appears to be entertained of by the autocrats who sit down before a map of the world and apportion off the face of the planet to their royal relatives. It may be that strong popular sentiment will compel Buchanan's Administration to enter a protest against a Hapsburg being saddled on to America, and, indeed, it is very probable that Old Buck already has his orders to such effect from Great Britain, which will never consent to France or Austria taking Mexico in charge. Encouraged by England, the Administration will show its teeth so grimly that the allied Empires will think twice before they attempt the dangerous game.

☞ The Opposition State Executive Committee meets DAILY, at their room, No. 2, in building corner of St. Charles and Commercial Alley. All communications addressed to JAS. M. MUSSELMAN, Corresponding Secretary, will be promptly attended to. se28 2pif H. M. SUMMERS, Chairman.

☞ For Congress—We are authorized to announce LAWRENCE D. NICHOLLS, of the parish of Ascension, as the opposition candidate to represent the Second Congressional District. se23 2ptmo7

☞ For Congress—First Representative District—CHARLES SIENVENU is the nominee of the State Rights Democratic Party, as candidate for Congress for the First Representative District. se22 2pts

☞ We are authorized to announce Henry DAMRON as a candidate for Constable of the Seventh Justices Court, Fourth District—election November 7th, 1859—and oblige MANY FRIENDS. se20 2ptmo7

☞ Have you a beast of hair, or whiskers, or moustaches, of an unbecoming color? Do you wish to change for a handsome deep brown, or a perfect and natural black, without injury to the fibres; and to keep your hair of the tinge you desire, without trouble or inconvenience? If so, then you must use Cristadoro's Excelsior Dye, which is the only harmless, certain, instantaneous and truly natural Hair Dye in the world. Should you doubt these statements, try the article, and if it fails, denounce it.

Sold everywhere, and applied by all Hair Dressers. o8 2p1mAW CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, N. Y.

☞ During the summer that has just passed away, thousands of sufferers from dysentery and diarrhea have been relieved by the use of Hostetter's Bitters, a medicine which is evidently destined to maintain a permanent place in the public estimation. Bilious diarrhea is one of the diseases which baffles the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowels never seems to reach the source of the evil. The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a rush of vigor to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the Bitters, which never fails to conquer the most stubborn cases. It is only fair to say, that during the season just closed, this medicine has achieved more cures than any other ever presented to the public, and during the fall, which that terrible scourge, the fever and ague, is so prevalent, the Bitters will gain fresh fame.

Sold in New Orleans, wholesale and retail, by J. WRIGHT & CO., 21 and 151 Chartres street, sole agents for the Southern States, and to whom all orders should be addressed, and by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. o10 2p6LW ☞ Worth Reading and Thinking about—BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN—Designed for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family, having superseded the so-called "Gins," "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," etc., is now endorsed by all the prominent physicians, chemists and connoisseurs as possessing all those intrinsic medicinal qualities (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an OLD and PURE GIN. Put up in Quart Bottles, and sold by all Druggists, Grocers, etc.

A. M. BININGER & CO., (Established 1778)—Sole Importers, No. 326 Broadway, N. Y.

☞ For Sale by O. O. WOODMAN, B. JOURDAN, G. N. MORISON, E. B. WHERLOCK & CO., E. GUILLOT, New Orleans. jy23 2ply

☞ Has Arrived—Dr. James has returned from his Northern tour and resumed the practice of his specialty.

He treats exclusively all diseases of the skin, blood and nervous and general debility, etc.

Can be found at his old established Dispensary, 82 Custom house street, New Orleans, La.

☞ The Great English Remedy—Sir James CLARKE'S CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS—Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This well known medicine is no imposition but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and, although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

To Married Ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

These Pills have never been known to fail, where the directions on the second page of the pamphlet are well observed.

For full particulars get a pamphlet, free, of the agent.

N. B.—$1 and 5 postage stamps, enclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over fifty pills, by return of mail.

General Agent for the United States JOB MOSES, Rochester N.Y. J. WRIGHT & CO., New Orleans, Wholesale Agents, and sold by all respectable Druggists. fe8 2ply&W

☞ Spring Beds—$5 to $6 50 for the best Spring Bed in existence, (Tower's Patent) at No. 878 Broadway, New York. Examine it, or address the ELLIPTIC BED SPRING COMPANY, for their descriptive circular. Special inducements to the trade and local agencies. jy23 2p4Wly

☞ Startling Discoveries have been made within the past few years, by eminent French and German chemists, concerning the great difference in the quantity and quality of iron in the blood, and it has been found that previous last cases of female debility, loss of healthy complexion—chlorosis, fluor albus, etc—impurities of the blood and general prostration were occasioned by the diminished quantity of iron in the blood. The most eminent physicians of Paris, London, Vienna, and recently of New York, have adopted Dr. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE PILLS and Aperient and Stomachic preparation of Iron, by hydrogen, and are now prescribing them with most extraordinary success. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow their use. As a grand stomachic and general restorative it has no superior and no substitute.

For sale by all Druggists. Price, 50 cents per box, containing 50 pills. Sent free by mail on receipt of price. Principal office, 130 Broadway, N. Y. R. R. LOUKE & CO., General Agents. Wholesale and retail in New Orleans, by J. WRIGHT & CO., 21 and 151 Chartres street. se7 2p3mAW

The very liberal patronage of which I have been the honored recipient, at the Sugar Planters' hand, for my has stimulated me to further efforts to expand the area of my business.

The extent, dimensions, and perfectibility of the machinery employed at my Works, the quantity and quality of the materials on hand, the economy and facility of labor which I have lately introduced there—the determination I have taken this year to devote all my time, attention and energy to their interior management, all combined, place me in the position of being able to supply ANY QUANTITY of Bi-Sulphite of Lime that may be required for the consumption of the State, and of

—OF—

THIS INVALUABLE CHEMICAL AGENT,

ONE DOLLAR PER BARREL!

I shall, therefore, from this date to the end of the session, sell my Bi-Sulphite of Lime, of 3 to 10 degrees Beaume, at

FIVE DOLLARS PER BARREL,

FREE OF DRAYAGE.

All orders addressed to me, or to my agents here, Messrs. AUGUSTIN & THIBAUT, No. 7 Front Levee street, will receive prompt attention, and I would respectfully invite old and new customers to send in their orders early.

The Best Thing to Do.

When, from youthful indiscretion, the constitution becomes broken down, then no time must be lost to seek to repair the damage done. There is one never-failing thing to do, and by which the flower of youth may be spared—it is at once to take Wright's Rejuvenating Elixir.

This all powerful medicine goes to the very foundation of the constitution and builds it up perfectly new. Let those whose whole lives are a torture to them, from early decay, rivetting, at once seek the sovereign balm—Wright's Rejuvenating Elixir.

Remember it cures imbecility, disappointment of the dreams of generative, the pleasures, debility, and nervous afflictions of all kinds, dyspepsia, etc.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S

PURE COGNAC BRANDY IN BOTTLES.

I am now supplying the trade with pure Cognac Brandy, in bottles, both for medical and private use. The immense success that has crowned my efforts to place a pure Gin within the reach of all, under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, and to drive out of the market the pernicious compounds sold as Gin throughout the country, led many leading druggists, apothecaries and medical men, for some
