Dec	45⅞	46⅛	45⅞	46⅛

Ausley's Daily Cotton Letter.

New York, Nov. 18.—As compared with this day last week our market in the intervening time has suffered a loss of sixty points on rather active trading due principally to increased crop estimates, liquidation on the part of trades taking profits and the coming ginners report to be issued next week. The technical condition of the market at this time should be made to the rather large reaction and the elimination of the too easily scared leaders who are too quick to run to cover.

There has been no inerruption in the gathering of the crops by weather conditions for the past week.

The cotton goods division of the dry goods trade has been strong and buyers are still anxious to secure supplies at practically the asking price by sellers. Receipts to date, 4,436,794 aginst 5,145,128 last year. Spinners taking 601,454 against 645,652. World's visible supply of American 3,487,257 against 3,103,895. Price of middling cotton in New York, 11.15 against 10 cents, exports to date 2,013,151 against 2,607,618.

Should the ginners' report exceed eight million bales and suggest a crop of about 11,000,000 there is in our opinion no apparent reason for a serious decline from this level. With the recent decline in mind we are rather favorable to the long side of the market, regardless of the ginners' report on even larger proportions than above stated.
