Read! Read! Read! "Ye afflicted read!" the following certificate of a cure of over twenty years' standing:

H. T. Helmbold—Dear Sir: I have been troubled with an affliction of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried Physicians to vain, and at last concluded to give your Genuine Preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. It affended me immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I have obtained more relief from its effects and feel much better than I have for twenty years previous. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and curative powers, and shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine. I am truly yours, M. McCORMICK.

Commercial Restaurant.

The undersigned, the legitimate successors of MESSONNIER as Proprietors of the long established and highly popular Restaurant, the COMMERCIAL, between Chartres and Royal streets, on Carondelet street, would respectfully inform their old friends and the public that their establishment has undergone a thorough renovation, inside and out, both to retain their old and well satisfied customers, and to meet the expectations of new ones; and they are able to assure both that their WINES and COOKERY cannot be excelled by any other house, while their charges will be as heretofore, reasonable and satisfactory. They have established their reputation as Restaurateurs, and they are determined to maintain their high character.

The Question Settled.

WHAT SEWING MACHINES

RECEIVED THE FIRST PREMIUMS

—At the—

Late New Jersey State Fair, 1859,

—And at the Fair of the—

American Institute of New York, 1859?

First, with regard to the First Premium awarded at the late New Jersey State Fair:

There are already two parties who have claimed the honor of that award, and consequently there must be a mistake somewhere. Each party may be partially right, and yet both equally wrong.

The facts of the case, if we have been rightly informed, are as follows:

One of the parties did receive a premium for his machine, as being superior in the execution of heavy work, and the other on its merits to do light work only. And so each party unquestionably received a premium. But

THERE WAS ANOTHER SEWING MACHINE

exhibited at that Fair, any notice of which appears to be carefully ignored by the parties in dispute. It certainly would appear desirable if a Sewing Machine could be invented which would combine the merits of the two machines alluded to above. Just such a machine was exhibited at

THE LATE NEW JERSEY STATE FAIR.

—To the—

FINKLE SEWING MACHINE,

Manufactured by FINKLE & LYON, of New York, was AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM!

—For—

COMBINING IN ONE MACHINE

—The ability to—

DO ALL KINDS OF WORK—HEAVY, MEDIUM AND LIGHT,

Thereby pronouncing it THE BEST MACHINE for Family use, and for general manufacturing purposes.

And now with regard to the FAIR OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE, of New York, just closed:

In the Scientific American, of November 19, may be found an Official List of the higher premiums awarded at the above Fair, as communicated to that paper by W. B. Leonard, Esq., the Corresponding Secretary of the American Institute. It will there be seen that Messrs. Finkle & Lyon received for Shuttle or Lock Stitch Sewing Machines, for Family use and Light Manufacturing purposes. Also, ANOTHER SILVER MEDAL, for heavy and general manufacturing purposes.

The Highest Premium,

A LARGE SILVER MEDAL,

But we do not care so much for the awards of premiums at Fairs, for we know full well that in many instances there are influences brought to bear upon the minds of committees which reduced little to the credit of persons receiving the awards. We therefore prefer the verdict of a careful and thorough examination of the relative merits of different machines, and in offering for such examination the

we do so with the fullest confidence that they will be pronounced superior to any other Sewing Machines in the market.

Prices from $55 to $125.

N. B.—Should the Finkle Machine not give perfect satisfaction, after a full and fair trial, it may be returned, and the money will be cheerfully refunded.
