CHARLES HEIDSIECK CHAMPAGNE—
This celebrated Wine, of the above well-known brand, has been, and will continue to be, received by the undersigned in quantities to meet the increased demand of dealers and consumers. Thoroughly matured, from the strongest evidence that it comes from the closest lineal descendant of the old and first established house of Heidsieck & Co., of Rheims, they have taken hold of it with a determination to bring it and its claims to distinction, before the public, even more generally than heretofore. The superior quality of this article must satisfy any one that its emanation is from a source where great attention, as well as thoroughly experienced, have been brought to bear in its production. Charles Heidsieck has given his whole mind to the perfection of his wine, and to making it worthy of the name. Frequent visits to the United States have enabled him more fully to understand and appreciate the tastes and wishes of consumers; and of his having profited by that information is evidenced by the Champagne now presented for the palate of the connoisseur—a wine unsurpassed for its rich bouquet and general excellence. The varieties of Champagne lead greatly, no doubt, to confuse the purchaser, but the lovers of good and genuine wine must look for "Charles Heidsieck" in full on the label, as well as on the corks and capsules.

STRONG TESTIMONY—STRONG TESTIMONY!
St. Johns, N. B., February 8, 1858.
Messrs. S. A. Fahnestock & Co.
Gentlemen—The following certificate from William Cunningham, keeper of the Almshouse in our city, I think will be letter setting to you, and I therefore inclose it. You may depend upon the correctness of his statement. Yours,
W. O. SMITH.
To W. O. Smith, Esq., Mayor of the city of St. Johns, N. B:
Sir—I yesterday gave a child named James Cunningham, aged three years and four months, a vial of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge. The quantity of worms passed being so great, I requested the mother to count them, which she did, and stated there were twenty-one of them. The day previous the child had vomited four—making in all two hundred and one. Two were nine and a half inches in length, and the others averaging six inches.
WM. CUNNINGHAM,
Keeper of the Almshouse.
St. Johns, N. B., February 1, 1858.
Purchasers should look well to the initials on the wrapper, and see that they are buying B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, and no other. m23 1mwW
