OFFICE OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY,
No. 84 Common street, New Orleans.
☞ I. The stock-books of the Company will be closed on the 15th inst., preparatory to the distribution of certificates for the purchase of the whole stock of the Company remaining unsold by its agents on that day.
2. The propositions before me will be submitted to the Company, and if approved, will be fully confirmed by or before the 1st February next. The terms of the sale are "par," with satisfactory payments, conditioned that the proceeds thereof shall be invested in labor to build the road.
3. All stockholders "cut off" by the sale of the road and transfer of the Company, on the 6th of October, 1858—comprising only of those who declined to make the loan, or pay on the unpaid instalments, under which it is alleged "The New Policy" of the Company, adopted in April last—will have an opportunity of presenting all the facts in their respective cases, at the office of the Company, to me, during this week, from 12 M. to 2 P. M., and from 3 to 5 P. M.
The prospects of the Company were never so promising as now, the new arrangement having secured to it a guaranteed at an early day. It will give the enterprise the character, influence and experience of the Hon. J. Edgar Thompson, of Pennsylvania, associated with Hon. J. C. Stevenson and Col. Samuel Tate, of Tennessee, than whom three more able, capable and successful railway managers were never before united in the prosecution of any railroad enterprise in the Union.
I shall be glad to furnish full information to any stockholder or other public spirited citizen who feels an interest in this great national highway.
d14 tf J. FOWLKES, President.
